My Dear Parishioners,

Praised be Jesus Christ! This is the week that forever changed the world; the most important week in human history; the week, we call "holy". These last eight days of Jesus' life—from Palm Sunday to Easter Sunday – offer much wisdom for us. Here is just a sample of what happens during Holy Week:

- Palm Sunday, Jesus triumphantly enters Jerusalem
- Monday of Holy Week, Jesus clears out the temple with a whip
- Tuesday of Holy Week, Jesus is anointed with oil at Bethany and preaches on the Mt. of Olives
- Spy Wednesday, Jesus is betrayed by Judas
- Holy Thursday, Jesus celebrates the Last Supper, prays in the Gethsemane, and is arrested
- Good Friday, Jesus is sentenced to death, scourged, beaten, crucified, and dies on the Cross
- Holy Saturday, Jesus is buried in the tomb and descends into hell
- Easter Sunday, Jesus rises from the dead

As we begin, I encourage you to make the most of it through personal prayer, silence, celebration of the Liturgies and mindful-living. There are many resources that can assist this, I share the following meditation written by Philip Kosloski.

Peace,

Fr. Rogers

Living in a fallen world, we often experience rejection and betrayal from those we love the most. It can be difficult to bear and as a result, we may feel unloved by everyone and utterly alone. It is during those times that Jesus wants to speak a message of love to us, and there is one particular scene in the Bible that can bring us consolation and peace. The scene does not immediately lend itself to meditation, but when looked at more closely, it can provide hours of prayer. It is from the Gospel of John and features a brief moment when Jesus' "beloved disciple" rests on his chest during the Last Supper.

One of his disciples, the one whom Jesus loved, was reclining at Jesus' side ... He leaned back against Jesus' chest (John 13:23, 25).

There is much to unpack in this short verse. First of all, instead of identifying the disciple, St. John states that it was the disciple "whom Jesus loved." While it might refer to a specific individual, it also applies to each one of us, whom Jesus loves very dearly. Jesus revealed to St. Margaret Mary Alacoque, "My Divine Heart is so passionately in love with humanity that it can no longer contain within itself the flames of its ardent charity. It must pour them out." Jesus loves us infinitely more than we can possibly imagine and he wants to pour out that love upon us. He can no longer contain the love that he has for us!

Furthermore, this disciple at the Last Supper leaned upon Jesus' chest, resting on his heart. Think about that for a few seconds. Wouldn't you want to rest on Jesus' heart? Think about when you were a child, when you leaned back against your mother or father and rested your head upon their chest, enfolded in their arms. Again, this is what Jesus wants you to do and the feelings he wants you to feel when thinking about this scene.

Jesus invited St. Margaret Mary Alacoque to do this very action when he visited her, "He made me repose for a long time upon His breast. He showed me the inexplicable wonders of His pure love, and to what an excess He had carried it for the love of humanity."

This scene can come alive each time we receive Jesus in the Holy Eucharist. After receiving him into our bodies, we return to the pew and can meditate on this scene. It can be a powerful experience if we truly believe that God loves us and is inviting us to rest on his heart.

Remember, we are never truly alone in this world, even when everyone has abandoned us. Jesus was abandoned on the cross and understands that feeling. However, he doesn't want us to stay there, but to come to the table of his feast and place our head close to his heart. By doing so, we can feel the heartbeat of his love for us and catch a glimpse of his burning charity.

The invitation is open. We just need to respond and accept the fact that God loves us more than we can imagine.

WORD OF LIFE BULLETIN QUOTE

"Like us, Christ entered the world through the womb of a woman. He willingly experienced the fullness of human suffering. He breathed his last on the Cross at Calvary in order that He might save us. Therefore, 'God is the foundation of hope: not any god, but the God who has a human face and who has loved us to the end' (Spe salvi 31)."

DIVINE MERCY NOVENA

Please join us in praying the Divine Mercy Novena beginning this week on Good Friday, April 18 through Saturday, April 26. In private revelations to St. Faustina, Jesus asked that the Feast of Divine Mercy (April 27) be preceded by a novena praying for nine intentions with the Divine Mercy Chaplet. The novena can be accessed online at www.thedivinemercy.org/message/devotions/novena.

MINISTRY SPOTLIGHT

This is a ministry of lay men and women who assist the Priest with the distribution of Holy Communion at Mass under both species, including weekday Masses. In addition to serving at Mass, ministers may bring the Eucharist to the sick and homebound members of our community.

The desired assets for an EMHC are:

- A registered parishioner who is fully initiated in the faith, in good standing and practicing the faith.
- Reverence for the Eucharist.
- Desire to share the Gift of the Eucharist with others.
- Willingness to serve at Mass and/or bring the Eucharist to our sick and homebound parishioners.

Those interested in serving as an EMHC must be approved by the pastor and then receive proper training. You are then appointed for a three-year term by the Archbishop.

If you feel called to serve as an Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion or would like to learn more about this important ministry, please contact Kathy Reinhardt at kmreinhardt@comcast.net.

PALM SUNDAY OF THE PASSION OF THE LORD

Be strong and let your heart take courage, all you who wait for the Lord!

~Psalm 31:24

Palm Sunday begins the holiest week of the year. Starting with Jesus' triumphal entry into Jerusalem. Hosanna was a common chant of joy in God's saving power. "Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord." (Psalm 118) This is a psalm of thanksgiving. At this time people were joyfully proclaiming their belief that Jesus was the Messiah. The one who would bring saving power to the people of God.

As the week went on the religious leaders of Jesus time felt threatened by Jesus' popularity. They wanted the Jewish people to follow their customs and rules so they could retain power. The leaders sought false testimonies after Jesus' arrest so they would have reasons to charge him with a crime. Pray for the courage to stand up for those who are judged unfairly.

Catechesis of the Good Shepherd

Serving children ages 3-6

The children have the opportunity to experience the presentation of the Paschal Mystery, where Jesus celebrated the Last Supper in the Cenacle. Children are invited to see, hear and experience Jesus' words of the covenant that had never been spoken before: "This is My Body...this is My Blood..."

The children continue to work with City of Jerusalem as this lays the foundation for the Paschal Mysteries. In this work, children work with the tangible figures representing the areas of Jerusalem that Jesus walked, where he died, and ultimately where he rose from the dead.

Spring is here! The work of arranging flowers is a favorite. If you are looking for ways to donate to our atrium, we would love fresh cut flowers from your yard or local grocery store.

St. Patrick-Family Promise Needs Your Help!

Family Promise of Southern Chester County continues to provide families experiencing homelessness with shelter, stability, and support as they work toward independence.

St. Patrick's Family Promise Ministry continues to play a vital role in:

- Supporting our Family Promise Apartments/Housing.
- Providing Social Suppers for families.
- Organizing our Christmas Gift Drive and party.

We are so grateful for all you have done, and we hope you will consider helping us with a few new needs. Primarily, Family Promise of Southern Chester County is seeking the following position:

Volunteer Coordinator – We are looking for a dedicated and organized person to help coordinate volunteers for Family Promise. This role includes:

- Scheduling and organizing meetings for our Church Partners
- Planning activities for the families staying in our Promise Houses.
- Creating a calendar for move-in and move-out clean-up teams.
- Tracking and restocking essential supplies in our homes.

This position is vital in keeping our volunteer network strong and ensuring that families feel supported during their stay. If you are interested in learning more or applying for this position, please contact Jean O'Neill at grandava@gmail.com.

If you cannot volunteer your time but would still like to support Family Promise, consider making an in kind donation at <https://www.familypromisesc.org/wish-list>.

Palm Sunday is the Christian moveable feast that falls on the Sunday before Easter. The feast commemorates Christ's triumphal entry into Jerusalem, an event mentioned in each of the four canonical Gospels.
