Eucharistic Etiquette:
 A weekly word about reverence for the Eucharist.

The two sacraments of reconciliation and the Eucharist are intrinsically related. Just as a loving mother cleans and feeds a child, so God through these sacraments wipes us clean of our sins and fills us with supernatural nourishment. Fr. Roger Landry

My Dear Parishioners,

Greetings and Praised be Jesus Christ! This week, we welcome back to our parish Bishop McIntyre, Auxiliary Bishop of Philadelphia. He was with us just a few weeks ago to bless our new narthex and now this week – on Thursday—he returns to confirm 31 of our young people in the faith of Jesus Christ.

The timing, setting and celebration of the Sacrament of Confirmation have had a varied history in the life of the Church and even in our own lives. Some of us were confirmed as infants, others as adults, still others as teenagers. For some, Confirmation may have included a big celebration, for others it took place in the course of the school day with an anonymous 8th grader standing as a sponsor! Whatever the experience, there's more to Confirmation (and every Sacrament) than just our experience. There is the bestowal of Grace – and Grace—the Life of God is an Awesome, a Great Reality.

Nevertheless, our experience colors the way we think. A lot of people think that because formal religious education often concludes at Confirmation, the Sacrament of Confirmation is a Catholic “Graduation”. And for many it is! After Confirmation, most of our young people won't receive another Sacrament until they get married and as we know even that might not happen.

A similar experience can happen even in our celebration of Easter. In some ways, Easter is the end of the story, right? Jesus is Risen, Alleluia! And after a beautiful Easter Day, Week or Season, we go back to our regular way of life. Sound familiar? Does this Resonant? Might there be more to it? YES.

At Easter, we see just how great the Life of God is: Greater than our sin, greater than even Death. And the opportunity to welcome that Life of God is ours. And it's the WELCOMING of that LIFE that is so important. His Life is eternal, His Life is Peace, His Life is true Life. And ours is not. We are finite, restless and at times fake. SO a few questions for consideration this week:

In Easter, How might we welcome His Life? How might we give Him not just a Sunday, a Season or a room in our house...but how might we give Him our ALL? Indeed our Very Life?

In Confirmation we received 7 Gifts of God's Life and those gifts correspond to our minds and hearts. Wisdom, Knowledge, Understanding and Counsel for our minds; Fortitude, Piety and Fear of the Lord for our hearts. As our young people are strengthened in these gifts this week, I invite you to ask the Holy Spirit to strengthen those gifts in you. For our minds and hearts only thrive in Him, they were meant for Him and what a Gift, His Gifts can be for us. Welcome the Holy Spirit into your life, mind and heart today!

Peace,

Fr. Rogers

St. Augustine Prayer to the Holy Spirit

Breathe in me, O Holy Spirit,
That my thoughts may all be holy.
Act in me, O Holy Spirit,
That my work, too, may be holy.
Draw my heart, O Holy Spirit,
That I love but what is holy.
Strengthen me, O Holy Spirit,
To defend all that is holy.
Guard me, then, O Holy Spirit,
That I always may be holy.

CULTURE OF LIFE CORNER

WORD OF LIFE BULLETIN QUOTE

“Like us, Christ entered the world through the womb of a woman. He willingly experienced the fullness of human suffering. He breathed his last on the Cross at Calvary in order that He might save us. Therefore, ‘God is the foundation of hope: not any god, but the God who has a human face and who has loved us to the end’ (Spe salvi 31).”

Our Parish Pilgrim Statue of the Expectant Madonna continues her travels and recently made a stop at the home of Michael & Magdalena Snyder. They shared the following regarding the Expectant Madonna’s visit:

“The holy Easter week 2024 has been most special while the expectant Mother Mary has graced our home. Having a special place with Her to say our daily prayers, the Rosary, and the Divine Mercy has given my wife and I a most cherished memory. Also, the blessing of my birthday during the holy week, also spent with Mother Mary, has truly been a gift to always treasure. We pray for all the members and families of Saint Patrick’s Church will have a blessed Easter Season. God bless us all.” - Michael and Magdalena

All parishioners and families are invited to welcome the Pilgrim Statue of the Expectant Madonna into your home for a one-week visit (Sunday to Sunday). She began her journey through the parish in October and currently has a home through May 2024. The next opening is June 9. For more information and to sign up for your week, please see your weekly parish flocknote, visit the parish website, or contact Jen Keller at jenkellersp@gmail.com.

“Remember that the Lord has chosen the righteous for his own, and he hears me when I call to him. Psalm 4:3

Once again, we hear another post-resurrection appearance by Jesus to his disciples. He tries to open their minds so that they might fully better understand the Scriptures. He reminds them that repentance and forgiveness are both central to his message. Quietly reflect on how you can tell others about repentance and forgiveness.

Catechesis of the Good Shepherd

Serving children ages 3-6

Together, the children watched as we lit the Atrium's Paschal candle, rejoicing the light of the risen Christ. We sing songs of praise and say Alleluia! We watch how the light spreads from one person to another during the distribution of the candles.

We wonder about Jesus' resurrection, through the lens of the women traveling to anoint Jesus in the tomb. They found the tomb empty, and we ponder the miracle of His rising from the dead.

Through Jesus' death and resurrection, we have the promise of eternal life. What a gift to receive!

Who were the “pioneers” of our Catholic faith? What decisions/choices did they contribute? Where did the Catholic faith prosper, where did it not? Why? How?

In these two presentations, the “beginnings” and “pioneers” of our Catholic Church and their specific contributions will be explored. Scripture readings at Sunday Masses for the next 6 months, May-December-so called “Ordinary Time” show that the contributions of our Catholic “pioneers” were anything but “ordinary.” Join us on Sunday, April 14 & Sunday, April 21 at 1:00PM in St. Joseph Room.
