Wishing you a happy and blessed Easter!

PLEASE JOIN US BACK AGAIN ON SUNDAY, APRIL 24, 2022

My Dear Parishioners!

The LORD IS RISEN, HE IS RISEN INDEED, ALLELUIA! A HAPPY EASTER TO ALL!

Today begins an entire Season, indeed a new Way of Life, as we rejoice with the Church throughout the world in the Resurrection of our Lord from the dead: The Root of Christian Faith. As we begin this Sacred Season, I share with you a mediation by Fr. Joe Laramie, SJ. In the context of this week, consider the Easter Encounter of Christ to His Mother and allow their indescribable joy to be yours.

Peace, Fr. Rogers

“Mom?” “Son?”

Jesus is Risen! Alleluia, truly He is Risen! This Easter we celebrate the glorious Resurrection of Christ from the dead. And who knew Him better than anyone else? His Mother.

Who spend more time with Him than anyone else? Mary, His mother.

Who was the only one who was with Him from His conception and birth, throughout His entire life, and all the way to His suffering and death on the cross? Only Mary, our mother.

To whom did the Risen Jesus first appear, after His resurrection from the dead? Of course, Mary, His mother.

This is the obvious truth for St Ignatius Loyola, as recorded in the Spiritual Exercises: the Resurrected Jesus appeared first to His mother. Though not described in the New Testament, this was a popular devotion in Spain and parts of Europe throughout the middle ages. St Ignatius encourages us to contemplate Christ visiting His mother at her home. We might imagine the dialogue between the Blessed Mother and her Son.

“Mom?” “Son?”

Mary last saw her Son on Good Friday. His friends wrapped His broken Body in burial cloths and placed Him in the tomb. They rolled a stone across the tomb, completing His burial. Hours earlier, He had died on the cross. Bleeding and suffering for hours, He breathed His last as Mary gazed at Him through her tears. She saw Him die. She saw His lifeless Body taken down from the cross. She held Him many times as a boy. She holds him once more before His burial in the tomb.

He greets her early on Easter morning. “Mom?”

“Son? Is that you? Is it really you!”

He brings her joy in this glorious visit on Easter morning. She embraces Him again, weeping again, now smiling through tears of joy. He has a Body-- a risen, glorious Body. His disciples do not recognize Him at first. He is different, mysterious. He can pass through locked doors and appear in different places that are miles apart in mere moments. It is only when He calls their names or shares the Eucharist with them that they realize: it's Him, it's really Him!

“Mom, yes, it's Me. It's really Me.”

The Risen Jesus brings us joy. He draws us out of desolation and into the consolation of His Resurrection. He literally went through hell and back for us. He comes to save us. Our God saw us sinking into sin and death and He pours out His life to save us. He holds nothing back, but gives us His life.

Jesus says to us, “Yes, it's Me. It's really Me.” He is the Alpha and Omega; Son of God and Son of Mary. He offers us to share in His joy and glory this Easter. He is Risen! Alleluia, truly He is Risen!

"From Age to Age You Gather a People to Yourself"-With these familiar words we come to better understand how the Christian community expressed deep belief in the Real Presence of Jesus Christ in the Holy Eucharist. Join Father Connolly in these two presentations which will explore how the infant Christian community (30 a.d.-100 a.d.) set the stage for the development of Eucharistic expression (100 a.d.-313 a.d.) until the conversion of Constantine and the legitimizing of Christianity throughout the Roman Empire. Join us Sunday, April 24 at 1:00PM in St. Joseph Room.

Thank You!

Now that our Parish Religious Education Program (PREP) has come to the end for the season, we would like to take this opportunity to say THANK YOU to all the catechists who helped to make this year possible. These individuals dedicated themselves on a volunteer basis to share the Catholic faith with the children of our parish during the school year. The following individuals have done a wonderful job!

Barbara Abate, Joanna Armer, Warren BeVard, Patricia Brady, Kate Buchanan, Don Drinker, Tomi Harnos, Rose Hearn, Marge Korn, Alex Lawes, Maria Miller, Matthew Murphy, Damon Owens, Deborah Reedy, Gilberto Sanchez

A big THANK YOU is also given to the aides and substitutes as well as all the moms and dads who taught from home this year. May God bless them and their families.

Come and Join Us at St. Patrick PREP

As we look to next year's PREP classes there will be a need for individuals to step forward as catechists. You will be provided with training, materials and the support of many catechists. Find out what you have been missing. Adults and young persons, 18 and older are invited to learn more about this ministry.
