My Dear Parishioners,

Praised be Jesus Christ! This weekend marks 18 years since Pope John Paul II went to the "House of the Father." As we enter this Holy Week and accompany Jesus into the Jerusalem, in obedience to His Father, let us make this week different. I encourage you to participate in the Liturgies of the Sacred Triduum, Spend time in Silent Prayer, Ready yourself for the Passover of Jesus Christ! It is His Passover that enables us to move from Death to Life and makes possible, the salvation of each and every soul, yours and mine included!

Be sure of my prayer for you this week and please keep me in your prayer.

Peace, Fr. Rogers

1. "He humbled himself and became obedient unto death, even death on a cross" (Phil 2:8).

The celebration of Holy Week begins with the "Hosanna!" of Palm Sunday and culminates in the "Crucify him!" of Good Friday. But this is not a contradiction; rather it is the heart of the mystery the liturgy wants to proclaim: Jesus willingly gave himself up to his passion; he did not find himself crushed by superior forces (cf. Jn 10:18). It was he himself who, in discerning the Father's will, understood that his hour had come and he accepted it with the free obedience of the Son and with infinite love for mankind.

Jesus brought our sins to the Cross and our sins brought Jesus to the Cross: he was crushed for our iniquities (cf. Is 53:5). The prophet said in reply to David, who was seeking the one responsible for the deed Nathan had recounted to him: "You are the man!" (2 Sm 12:7). The Word of God gives us the same answer as we wonder what caused Jesus' death: "You are the man!". Indeed, Jesus' trial and passion are repeated in the world today and renewed by every person who abandons himself to sin and can only prolong the cry: "Not this man, but Barabbas! Crucify him!".

2. Looking at Jesus in his passion, we see humanity's sufferings as well as our personal histories reflected as in a mirror. Although there was no sin in Christ, he took upon himself what man could not endure: injustice, evil, sin, hatred, suffering and finally death. In Christ, the humiliated and suffering Son of Man, God loves everyone, forgives everyone and confers the ultimate meaning on human life.

We are here this morning to receive this message from the Father who loves us. We can ask ourselves: what does he want of us? He wants us to look at Jesus and be willing to follow him in his passion in order to share in his Resurrection. At this moment we recall Jesus' words to his disciples: "The cup that I drink, you will drink; and with the baptism with which I am baptized, you will be baptized" (Mk 10:39). "If any man would come after me, let him ... take up his cross and follow me. For whoever would save his life will lose it, and whoever loses his life for my sake will find it" (Mt 16:24-25).

The "hosanna" and the "crucify him" thus become the way to measure how one conceives of life, faith and Christian witness: we must not be discouraged by defeat nor exalted by victory because, as with Christ, the only victory is fidelity to the mission received from the Father. "Therefore God has highly exalted him and bestowed on him the name which is above every name" (Phil 2:9).

STATE OF RELIGION & YOUNG PEOPLE - MENTAL HEALTH

THURSDAY, APRIL 20, 2023
6:30 PM - 8:00 PM
ST. JOSEPH ROOM

Springtide Research Institute has released a 2022 study titled "The State of Religion & Young People - Mental Health." Based on data from over 10,000 young people aged 13-25, the results have indicated a positive impact of religion and spirituality on young people's mental health. The next step for faith leaders in schools, parishes, ministries, and our own families is how to build on these deep, authentic spiritual and psychological needs.

Are you interested to find out more and learn how you can impact our youth and young adults? If so, we welcome you to join us on Thursday, April 20 from 6:30 PM – 8:00 PM in the St. Joseph Room. This interactive evening discussion is for all parents, grandparents, ministry leaders, teachers and any adult interested in learning more. FREE Childcare will be provided for those in need.

We welcome our speaker Dan Pin, fellow parishioner and Director of the Office for Catholic Youth, Young Adult, and Family Ministry for the Diocese of Wilmington. He has nearly 10 years of ministry experience and has been working with the National Federation for Catholic Youth Ministry over the past two years to study the most up-to-date reflections and data on the faith lives of young people. Dan and his wife, Kelly, have been parishioners at St. Patrick's for 8 years, and have two kids, Amelia and Benjamin, in PREP.

To help us plan accordingly, please RSVP by Monday, April 17. Either sign up online via the Parish Website or QR code found here. You may also leave your name with the Parish Office. Questions, contact Jen Keller or Maria Miller at 610-444-4364

CULTURE OF LIFE CORNER

On the Second Sunday of Easter, the Church celebrates the Sunday of Divine Mercy. It provides an important opportunity to share Christ's message of mercy, especially with those who suffer because of their participation in one or more abortions. By the age of 45, as many as 1 in 3 women have had an abortion, and a similar number of men and family members have been involved. Many feel that abortion is "the unforgivable sin." They need to hear that, through the Sacrament of Reconciliation, God forgives every sin of a repentant heart, even the sin of abortion. In fact, Jesus' message to St. Faustina is that the greater the sinner, the greater the right to His mercy.

What is Project Rachel?

Project Rachel is the abortion healing ministry of the Catholic Church in the United States. It is a diocesan-based network of specially trained priests, religious, therapists, and laypersons who provide a team response of care for those suffering in the aftermath of abortion. In addition to referring for Sacramental Reconciliation, the ministry provides an integrated network of services, including pastoral counseling, spiritual direction, support groups, retreats, and referrals to licensed mental health professionals so that people affected by abortion do not have to carry their burden alone.

Walking Together Philly is a part of Project Rachel, a network of services in the Philadelphia area that provides support to people impacted by abortion. For more information visit <https://walkingtogetherphilly.org/>.

DIVINE MERCY NOVENA

Please join us in praying the Divine Mercy Novena beginning this week on Good Friday, April 7 through Saturday, April 15. In private revelations to St. Faustina, Jesus asked that the Feast of Divine Mercy (April 16) be preceded by a novena praying for nine intentions with the Divine Mercy Chaplet. The novena can be accessed online at www.thedivinemercy.org/message/devotions/novena.

PREP

Parish Religious Education Program

Be strong and let your heart take courage, all you who wait for the Lord! Psalm 31:24

Palm Sunday begins the holiest week of the year. The religious leaders of Jesus' time felt threatened by Jesus' popularity. They wanted the Jewish people to follow their customs and rules so they could retain power. The leaders sought false testimonies after Jesus' arrest so they would have reasons to charge him with a crime. Pray for the courage to stand up for those who are judged unfairly.

In 1986 on Palm Sunday, St. John Paul II initiated the first World Youth Day. During this Holy Week invite friends over and learn about Easter traditions and foods from different countries and reflect on how you can welcome Jesus into your lives and home today and every day.

PREP concludes on Sunday, April 2 and Monday, April 3

Registration will begin on Monday, April 17

This Sunday, April 2 is the final day for our Lenten Food Collection. Many, many thanks to all who have donated to this important cause. KACS will be making a final pick up on Monday, April 3. We will be sure to share our final total collected as a parish and the grand total of all the faith communities who participated together. Thanks again for helping those in most need.

WOMEN'S RETREAT SATURDAY, APRIL 15, 2023

Forgiveness: The Best Revenge (or Forgiveness: The Name of Love in a Wounded World) ~ You Choose with Sister Sheila Galligan, IHM

Our Women's Retreat is now just two weeks away! Are you planning to join us but have not yet registered? Be sure to do so today!

Join the Ladies of St. Patrick for a morning of prayer, reflection and fellowship. Begin the day with Mass at 8:00 AM or arrive at 9:00 AM in the St. Joseph Room for a little refreshment and the presentation. The retreat will conclude by Noon. Be sure to bring a friend!

Forgiveness: The Best Revenge (or Forgiveness: The Name of Love in a Wounded World) ~ You Choose

Presenter: Sister Sheila Galligan, IHM

Are you in a state of unforgiveness? Are you (or someone you know!) caught in a vortex of resentment and anger or a desire for revenge or retaliation? This presentation will explain how "giving the gift" of forgiveness, approached through a Christian manner, benefits both the forgiver and the forgiven. Practical ways to provide the enemy with the "medicine of mercy" will be explored.

DATE: Saturday, April 15, 2023

TIME: 9:00 AM - 12:00 PM

PLACE: St. Joseph Room

To help us plan accordingly, advance registration is requested by Wednesday, April 12, 2023. To sign up, visit the parish website or scan the QR code found here. You may also leave your name with the Parish Office at 610-444-4364. We hope to see you there!
