My Dear Parishioners,

Praised be Jesus Christ! As we arrive into May this week, we immediately and happily call to mind our Blessed Mother, our biological mothers, flowers and all things Spring! Complementing these May themes, May is also a time to salute workers, St. Joseph and the dignity of human work.

Ever since the late 19th century, May 1st—May Day-- has been particularly known for its association with workers. For socialists and communists, May Day is their high holy day — the annual major feast day on their ideological calendar, a calendar that is absent of God.

To counter this, in 1955, Pope Pius XII established the feast day of St. Joseph the Worker, which highlighted not the ideology of work and workers but the dignity of both, a dignity that we find in St. Joseph. The Pope wrote: “The spirit flows to you and to all men from the heart of the God-man, Savior of the world, but certainly, no worker was ever more completely and profoundly penetrated by it than the foster father of Jesus, who lived with Him in closest intimacy and community of family life and work.”

It is Joseph, said Pope St. John Paul II, who offers a balanced ideal of workers’ rights and human rights—that is, with God rather than without God. In his 1989 apostolic exhortation Redemptoris Custos (On the Person and Mission of St. Joseph in the Life of Christ and of the Church), John Paul II characterized Joseph as the Guardian of the Redeemer, the “custos,” the protector of the child Jesus. He was a worker who raised a carpenter son, but with eyes fixed on a divine mission and vocation.

Pope Francis in 2021 – the Year of St. Joseph – reiterated this powerful truth: “Work is a means of participating in the work of salvation, an opportunity to hasten the coming of the Kingdom, to develop our talents and abilities, and to put them at the service of society and fraternal communion.... Working persons, whatever their job may be, are cooperating with God himself, and in some way become creators of the world around us.... Saint Joseph’s work reminds us that God himself, in becoming man, did not disdain work.”

Friends, as we enter May and the work begins on our project, how wonderful it is to salute St. Joseph and all those who have worked and do work for all of us day in day out. Men and Women who sacrifice for their families and even for strangers, so many vocations, so many manifestations of God’s Love!

Next week, we welcome the Little Sisters of the Poor to St. Patrick. Their community cares for the elderly poor throughout the work but close to us in Newark, Delaware. Their community is dedicated to St. Joseph. They will be here asking for your financial support for their good work.

Peace,

Fr. Rogers

REACH MORE CORNER

On Saturday, April 22, several St. Patrick's Reach More Small Group Leaders gathered at the Daylesford Abbey for a day of prayer, fellowship, reflection and learning with the Holy Spirit as our guide. Pictured left to right: Mary Drinker, Jeannie Astifan, Rose Hearn, Anne Marie Gillinger, Jen Keller, Wendy & Ed Zaloga, and Angela & Brian Eyre. The group prayed for those leaders who could not be with us, for all our current small group participants and the continued growth of the Reach More Community here at St. Patrick. A special word of thanks to Brian & Angela Eyre, our Reach More Ministry Leaders, for organizing the retreat content and to all our leaders for a wonderful day of learning and growing in discipleship. Come, Holy Spirit! We look forward to the return of Reach More Small Groups in the Fall.

CULTURE OF LIFE CORNER

The Chester County 40 Days for Life Spring Campaign concluded on Sunday, April 2, 2023. The Campaign Coordinators recently shared the wonderful news of a confirmed LIFE SAVED, and a family so well taken care of by the staff at CCCC (Chester County Connect Care) and the generous support of many individuals! A 40 Days Vigil volunteer outside of West Chester Planned Parenthood shared CCCC literature with a couple and then walked with them to CCCC where caring employees listened to their story, addressed their concerns, and showed the couple their baby via ultrasound. Being presented with many helpful services and a reassuring follow-up ultrasound, the couple chose life for their baby!

So far, this was the largest ever worldwide 40 Days for Life Lenten campaign held in 604 cities that resulted in 331 lives saved (1 here in West Chester, PA), 2 abortion workers quitting, and 3 abortion facilities that were closed. For more information about 40 Days for Life, visit www.40daysforlife.com.

A word of thanks to our parishioners who participated in the 40 Days for Life Campaign along with ABVM on March 24, 2023. Your prayers and peaceful presence make a difference! Save the Dates for the Fall Campaign: September 27-November 5, 2023 and PA March for Life on Monday, October 16.

Please join us on Friday, May 5 for First Friday Adoration at 7:00PM in Church.

All are welcome!

The stone that the builders rejected has become the chief cornerstone. Psalm 118-1-2

This week we will learn of the many titles attributed to Jesus. Some titles are Messiah, Savior, Lord, beloved Son, etc...On this Fourth Sunday of Easter, we hear that Jesus is our Good Shepherd. Not only is He our Shepherd who leads his sheep, but He is the gate through which the sheep must pass to encounter God. Jesus wants us to be the sheep who follow him. Ponder how can you listen more closely for Jesus' voice? How does it feel to know the kingdom of heaven belongs to someone like you?

Congratulations to our Communicants

This Sunday, April 30, is the final day for the 9:00 AM Children's Liturgy of the Word (CLOW). Many thanks to our parents/guardians for sharing your children with us each week so as to help them learn about Jesus and our Catholic faith. It has been a joy to see all the young children participate each week and we look forward to having them join us again in the Fall. A special word of thanks to our parishioners Joanna Sirusas, Kathy Drees, Lucy Zungailia, and Renee Johnsson for leading Children's Liturgy and helping our young people grow in faith. As we look ahead to the Fall, we are in need of another adult leader to join the team. It is a commitment of once a month from September – April with a completion of the Children's Safe Environment Training. If interested, please contact Jen Keller at 610-444-4364 or jenkellersp@gmail.com.
