"The bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world." ~ John 6:51

Eucharistic Etiquette:

A weekly word about reverence for the Eucharist.

☒ust as by melting two candles together, you get one piece of wax, so I think one who receives the Flesh and Blood of Jesus is fused together with him.

And the soul finds that he is in Christ and Christ is in Him.☒

St. Cyril of Jerusalem

My Dear Parishioners,

Praised be Jesus Christ! Last Sunday, I had the joy of baptizing two new parishioners—Samuel Robert and Thomas Brian. They are baptism 26 and 27 for our parish this year which is ahead of where we were this time last year! Praise God and Thanks to you parents for saying “Yes” to the Gift of Life! What is so amazing about Samuel and Brian – both of two different families -- is that they had the same birthday! What’s more, it’s the same day as mine! Wow! What are the chances of that?! For that reason, I had to take a pic of that joyous day! Congrats to Samuel and Brian and their families!

Last week in Flocknote, I shared another joyful event that I experienced. On Monday, June 26th, I received a letter from Archbishop Perez sharing with me that Pope Francis has appointed me and 9 other priests of our Archdiocese to be Missionaries of Mercy. While I don’t have a picture of my reaction to the moment of opening that letter, I do want to share with you a snapshot of what this new role is.

From Dec. 2015 – Nov. 2016, the Church celebrated a Year of Mercy. As part of that year, Pope Francis designated some priests throughout the world to be special agents of God’s abundant mercy. That is to say, priests who are sent out with a three-fold mission and mandate: 1) to preach about the Lord’s merciful love; 2) to make that mercy as available as possible to as many as possible through the Sacrament of Confession; 3) to become more and more an icon of the Father’s merciful love and the Church maternal compassionate solicitude.

After that year, he extended the practice of commissioning Missionaries of Mercy. Today, there are about 1,000 throughout the world. While all Catholic priests have the privilege and responsibility of preaching God’s mercy, reconciling sinners to God in the Sacrament and becoming merciful like God the Father, Pope Francis appointed Missionaries of Mercy to focus on carrying out these activities in an exemplary way as a sign of the Church’s solicitude. In addition, he gave them the blanket authority to hear confessions anywhere in the world and the faculties to absolve serious ecclesiastical crimes and sins that normally only the Pope and the Holy See are able to absolve.

What does this mean for me? Well, the bar has been set higher for me: to be an authentic SIGN of God’s great Mercy. I hope in the coming days to speak and teach more about Mercy and be available to more people, particularly those who do not know God’s Mercy. I will be officially commissioned in a ceremony at the Cathedral on Sunday, September 24, the Feast of Our Lady of Mercy.

Pray for me as I embrace this new role.

Peace, Fr. Rogers

ADORATION OF OUR LORD
"Here I Am, Lord." Isa 6:8
EVERY MONDAY IN CHURCH
8:00 AM - 7:00 PM
ALL ARE WELCOME

St. Alphonsus Liguori said "Know also that you will probably gain more by praying fifteen minutes before the Blessed Sacrament than by all the other spiritual exercises of the day. True, Our Lord hears our prayers anywhere, for He has made the promise, 'Ask, and you shall receive,' but He has revealed to His servants that those who visit Him in the Blessed Sacrament will obtain a more abundant measure of grace." No matter what storms or challenges you are facing, the Lord will strengthen you during Adoration. Each time you visit Him, you will receive the healing you need to face the storms and challenges in your life.

Our parish offers Eucharistic Adoration on Mondays from 8:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m. All are invited to stop in the church to spend some time with the Lord. We also celebrate First Fridays with Adoration from 7:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. For questions or more information, please contact Angela Eyre at 484-753-4801 or by email at reachmorestpatrick@gmail.com

In your packet of envelopes, you will find two envelopes for the Missionary Appeal/Co-Op. Please just use one. Our visiting Missionary will be with us the weekend of August 26/27. All monies collected in these envelopes will be forwarded to that Mission Group.

Feast of Saints Joachim and Anne: July 26

"Faith & Perseverance" Novena begins Monday, July 17 to Tuesday, July 25

The Feast of Saints Joachim and Anne, parents of the Blessed Virgin Mary and grandparents to Jesus, is celebrated on July 26. The couple's faith and perseverance brought them through the sorrow of childlessness, to the joy of conceiving and raising the immaculate and sinless woman who would give birth to Christ. They are powerful intercessors for all married couples, expectant mothers, and married couples who are having difficulty conceiving, as well as those who are aging. In preparation for their upcoming feast day, you can pray the "Faith & Perseverance" Novena from July 17-25. To obtain a copy of this novena, visit <https://www.usccb.org/issues-and-action/marriage-and-family/natural-family-planning/upload/nfp-sts-anne-joachim-novena.pdf> 236

They must thank the Lord for his constant love, for the wonderful thing he did for them. Psalm 107:31

This week's Gospel speaks about faith formation. The seed of faith was planted in the heart of children at Baptism and it is up to you, the parents, to cultivate the Word of God in your family.

Ask your child to reflect on the words God has planted in their hearts about love, compassion and forgiveness.

Care of Environment is another activity found in the practical life category. Children learn how to complete simple tasks that would normally be done by an adult. The children become more independent and do not have to rely on adults for assistances. The atrium is important to the children and they learn to care for their classroom by cleaning up after themselves and taking pride in a tidy area.

Thank you to all who have answered our call. Your donations are greatly appreciated. We are still looking for natural colored place mats, cloth napkins & rings, small water pitchers and child size aprons.
