"The bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world." ~ John 6:51

Eucharistic Etiquette:

A weekly word about reverence for the Eucharist.

Monday is the Feast of St. Thomas the Apostle. When he saw the Risen Lord, he fell to His knees and said "My Lord and My God". This 5 word declaration of faith is also a beautiful prayer. A beautiful prayer to say when the Risen One is held up before us in the Eucharist. "My Lord and My God!"

All praise and glory is yours, Lord our God, for You have called us to serve You in love. Bless our sick: Rosa Maria Santos, Thomas Layug, Steven Mangini, John Pellegrino, Thomas Kelleher, Diane Jones, Giovanna Sankus, Frankie Knowles, Richard Reynolds, Marc Palfy, Joshua Brown, Maria Rowe, William Morey, Eufemia Ortega Milagros, Ada Maldonado, Bryan Pudelka, Miles Kennedy, Diane Stansberry, Diane & Jeff Jones, Ana Teresa Encarnacion, Robert "Mack" Marc-Aurele, Pamela Maldonado, Mary Anne Proch, Aaron Pogue, Susan Walker, Beth Stingel, Kathi Lafferty, Tom Lafferty, Barry Fragale, David Brice, John Whiteman, Jim Feiler, Dianne & Anthony Smith, Shannon Quinn, Florence Ciliberti, Clint Norris III, Samantha Brown, Mary Ellen Rorke Ventrella, Diane Jones, Janice DiGennaro, Ellen Rendel, Chris Baker, Linda Harris, Millie Basile, Vira Smith, Bob McCaffrey, Ed Homa, Chris Santos, Alan Hobbs, Jeff Hammaker, Karen Amato, Jessica Moorhead, Carmen Rossini, Joe Posse, Maria Ireson, Karen Neyerson, Dure Gantz, Brent London, J. My Dear Parishioners,

A Happy 4th of July Weekend! Last week, I shared the news that Blessed Carlo Acutis' mother is coming to Philadelphia in September. She will be speaking at the Eucharistic Congress in Doylestown. I look forward to meeting her perhaps with some of you. Mark your calendar now! September 30, 2023.

The meeting of a Saint's mother, reminds me of the story of St. Maria Goretti whose feast day is this week. Her mom met Alessandro Serenelli, the man who murdered her daughter. In fact, the two were present in St. Peter's Square when Pope Pius XII declared Maria, a Saint! It's a terrific story of martyrdom and forgiveness. I share the following article with you here and encourage you to learn more. Many today know the power of sexual addiction. But God has Power, too! Seek His Power, His Mercy for yourself and your family! Share the story of Alessandro and Maria!

Could Alessandro Serenelli Be The Future Patron Of Porn Addicts? By Chloe Langr

On June 24, 1950, Pope Pius XII stood before 500,000 people gathered in Saint Peter's Square. "Young people," the Pope asked the crowd, "are you determined to resist any attack on your chastity with the help and grace of God?" "Yes!" echoed the response of thousands of young Catholics. Despite the celebration and joy, sixty-six year old Alessandro Serenelli stood crying in the middle of the crowd. He may have stuck out in the crowd of young people promising, but he played a part in the life of the young woman whose canonization the Church was celebrating. He had murdered St. Maria Goretti in 1902. On a hot day in July, Maria was home watching her little sister Teresa and repairing one of Alessandro's shirts. Their families lived in the same house as poor Italian tenant farmers Alessandro returned from threshing beans and Maria fought back, telling Alessandro that what he wanted to do with her was a mortal sin, and she didn't want his soul to go to Hell. "No! It is a sin!" she screamed. "God does not want it!"

He tried choking her, but when she said she would rather die than let him commit a mortal sin, he stabbed her fourteen times and ran away. Maria lived for 24 more hours before dying at a local hospital. Before she entered into Heaven, she said she wanted Alessandro to join her in Heaven and she forgave him. Alessandro couldn't have cared less about Maria's forgiveness. During the trial he was unrepentant, and admitted to attempting to rape Maria several times before killing her because of her refusal. He was sentenced to 30 years in prison, escaping a life sentence only because he was a minor when he committed the crime.

For three years, Alessandro said nothing to the outside world from his prison cell. But when a local bishop, Monsignor Giovanni Blandini visited him in jail, Alessandro told him of a strange dream he had. He was in a garden, and so was Maria. She handed him a bouquet of lilies, which burned his hands. He woke up a changed man. He was released from prison 27 years after Maria's death and his first visit was to Maria's mother, Assunta. He begged her for forgiveness and she told him, "If my daughter can forgive you, who am I to withhold forgiveness?" The two went to Mass together the next day and received Holy Communion side by side at the altar rail. Alessandro repented of the murder and prayed to Maria every day, calling her his "little saint." He became a lay brother with the Capuchin Franciscans and worked in the monastery as a gardener. He died in 1970. In a testimony given shortly before he passed away, Alessandro reflected on his past and his encounter with Maria Goretti.

"My behavior was influenced by print, mass-media and bad examples which are followed by the majority of young people without even thinking. And I did the same. I was not worried," he wrote. "There were a lot of generous and devoted people who surrounded me, but I paid no attention to them because a violent force blinded me and pushed me toward a wrong way of life."

In the early 1900s, pornographic photos were sold near the train stations. Pornography was readily available to Alessandro, and it twisted his ideas of the sexuality and chastity.

"I hope this letter that I wrote can teach others the happy lesson of avoiding evil and of always following the right path, like little children. I feel that religion with its precepts is not something we can live without, but rather it is the real comfort, the real strength in life and the only safe way in every circumstance, even the most painful ones of life."

Although the Catholic Church has not opened a case for the canonization of Alessandro, his story of overcoming the effects of pornography is inspiring in today's world. Our modern, hyper-sexualized culture encourages sexual immorality yet Alessandro's life stands as an example of repentance and bears witness to the beauty of chastity.

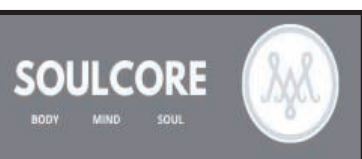

Glorious Lord, on this day, we celebrate our nation's birth and the symbol of freedom it represents to many. We acknowledge that you have been the author of this nation and that it is your great faithfulness that has brought us this far.

ST. PATRICK CHURCH, KENNETT SQUARE, PA

In 2022 the Catholic Church in the United States kicked off the National Eucharistic Revival. The Revival is a three-phase movement intended to restore understanding and devotion to the great mystery of the Eucharist States by helping us renew our worship of Jesus Christ in this most holy Sacrament. In 2023 the Feast of Corpus Christi marked the beginning of the second phase: the Year of Parish Revival. This phase will help us to strengthen our liturgical life through faithful celebration of the Mass, Eucharistic Adoration, and more.

This summer join Deacon Alan in a three-part series of talks titled "Eucharist: Source and Summit." These sessions will explore the Scriptural background of the Sacrament, its significance in our lives as disciples of Christ Jesus, and the practices we should observe when participating in this Holy and Divine Liturgy.

We will meet at 7:00PM on July 13, 20, and 27 in the Saint Joseph Room. No books are necessary, but please sign up beforehand by contacting the parish office, online at <https://bit.ly/eucharisttalk> or scan the QR code found here.

Join SoulCore Leader Heather Smalley, to nourish body, mind & soul with SoulCore—a prayer experience that combines the prayers of the rosary with core strengthening, stretching and functional movement. No fitness level or experience required. Dress in comfortable clothing or sportswear and bring a fitness mat if you have one. All are welcome! Visit www.stpatrickkenettsquare.org/soulcore for more information.

WHEN: Saturday Mornings – July 8, 15, 22

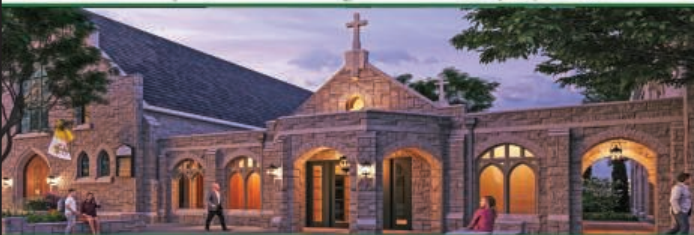

TIME: 9:15 AM – 10:15 AM

WHERE: St. Joseph Room / School Building

There is no cost to attend but a suggested freewill offering of $5.00, for those who are able. All funds collected will be donated to Kennett Area Community Center.

Contact Heather Smalley mrs.smalley219@yahoo.com for additional information.

CULTURE OF LIFE CORNER

PRAYER FOR RELIGIOUS LIBERTY

"O GOD OUR CREATOR, from your provident hand we have received our right to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. You have called us as your people and given us the right and the duty to worship you, the only true God, and your Son, Jesus Christ. Through the power and working of your Holy Spirit, you call us to live out our faith in the midst of the world, bringing the light and the saving truth of the Gospel to every corner of society.

We ask you to bless us in our vigilance for the gift of religious liberty. Give us the strength of mind and heart to readily defend our freedoms when they are threatened; give us courage in making our voices heard on behalf of the rights of your Church and the freedom of conscience of all people of faith.

Grant, we pray, O heavenly Father, a clear and united voice to all your sons and daughters gathered in your Church in this decisive hour in the history of our nation, so that, with every trial withstood and every danger overcome— for the sake of our children, our grandchildren, and all who come after us— this great land will always be "one nation, under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all."

We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen

Are you home this holiday weekend and looking for something to do? Consider this thought-provoking film in theaters beginning July 4 from Angel Studios (who brought us The Chosen) featuring Jim Caviezel (The Passion of Christ).

Sound of Freedom is based on the true story of a federal agent who rescues a young boy from child traffickers and embarks on a dangerous mission to save his sister who is still held captive. This film will spread awareness, spark conversation, and spur action among audiences in an effort to prevent and eventually end child trafficking for good. The goal of Sound of Freedom is to get 2 million people into theaters during the opening week to represent the 2 million children trafficked every year.

To view the trailer, find showtimes, and even help Pay it Forward visit <https://www.angel.com/tickets/sound-of-freedom>.

What is Human Trafficking?

Human Trafficking is a form of modern-day slavery that involves the use of force, fraud, or coercion to obtain some type of labor or a commercial sex act. Inducing a minor into commercial sex is always considered human trafficking, regardless of the presence of force, fraud, or coercion.

The U.S. Catholic Church in particular has been actively engaged in combating human trafficking, recognizing it as a grave violation of human dignity and a modern-day form of slavery. For more about Human Trafficking, U.S. Policy, and the Catholic Church visit

Forever I will sing the goodness of the Lord. Psalm 89:2

As disciples, we have been set free to follow Jesus. In our daily distractions, we easily forget that "For freedom, Christ has set us free." By his death and rising, he gave us the power to overcome all obstacles that crop up when we fail to exercise unselfish love. As the first disciples, we sometimes fight and react with anger when threatened. No matter who we meet in life-they are made in God's image and He is present in everyone. How often do you freely choose to love others?

ADORATION OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT

MONDAYS:
8:00 AM - 7:00 PM

FIRST FRIDAYS:
7:00 PM - 8:30 PM

ALL ARE WELCOME

If the idea of Eucharistic Adoration is new to you, you might wonder what should I do during Adoration? St. John Paul II said "We must understand that in order 'to do', we must first learn 'to be', that is to say, in the sweet company of Jesus in adoration." Our lives are filled with doing, movement and sounds. If you are just starting out, it's helpful to just sit reverently in the presence of the Lord for about fifteen minutes. With practice, sitting quietly in His Presence will become easier. Don't give up if you are distracted, that's normal! It can take time to build spiritual muscles.

Our parish offers Eucharistic Adoration on Mondays from 8:00AM-7:00PM. All are invited to stop in Church to spend some time with the Lord. We also celebrate First Fridays with Adoration from 7:00PM-8:30PM. First Fridays include beautiful music and a short teaching on prayer from Father Rogers. Why not have an early dinner on State Street, then walk to Church to kick off your weekend? In fact, since there is no Adoration on Monday, July 3 (due to the holiday), mark your calendars for Friday, July 7 and do just that!

For questions or more information regarding Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament, please contact Angela Eyre at 484-753-4801 or by email at reachmorepatrick@gmail.com.

NEW CEMETERY INFORMATION

St. Patrick's Cemetery is the home of many of our dearly departed loved ones. Just as we maintain our own homes to look nice, it is the same for our cemetery as we are always looking for new ways to improve the upkeep of these sacred grounds. As such, we will be implementing a new way for us to maintain our graves after a burial. Instead of our current practice of laying seed, which tends to be eaten by birds or blown away by the wind, we will be placing sod on the graves. This process will begin in the Fall as it is the best time of year to do so. In the interim, if you have just buried a loved one, the grave will be maintained with added soil as needed until the sod can be placed. We appreciate your understanding as we begin this new process. Should you have any questions, please contact the Parish Office. Thank you.
