Eucharistic Etiquette:

A weekly word about reverence for the Eucharist.

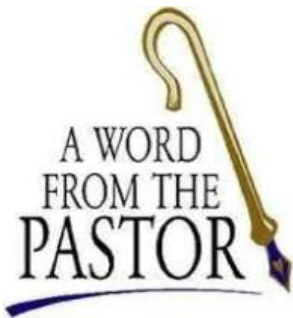

"Mary Magdalene has a lot to teach us about the kind of reverence and love we should have in the presence of Jesus Christ. If love can be measured by the degree of attentiveness to the other, then her love for Christ is perfect. We would do well to invoke her assistance as we try to be attentive to Him in Holy Communion and Eucharistic Adoration."

Fr. Sean Davidson, Author of "Mary Magdalene: Prophetess of Eucharistic Love."

Good and loving Father, watch over and protect all who serve in the Armed Forces of our nation. Surround them with your love and care and bring them safely home.

My Dear Parishioners,

Praised be Jesus Christ! One of my favorite movies is the 1992 Classic: A Few Good Men. That movie contains the infamous scene of Colonel Nathan R. Jessep (Jack Nicholson) being interrogated by the young Lt. Daniel Kaffee (Tom Cruise). The questioning was all about who ordered the "Code Red" which took the life of an innocent man. That one scene was so very human and powerful: filled with anger, entitlement and pride. It culminated in the words: "You want the truth, you can't handle the truth. You're damn right I ordered the Code Red!" And with the utterance of those words all the tension of the scene evaporated. The Truth was exposed, the movie was over.

Earlier this month, I saw another movie entitled Sound of Freedom and quite honestly it was not a pleasant watch. In fact, it disturbed me deeply. It's disturbing in its subject matter: human trafficking, the sale of children. But even more, in the fact that our country is the #1 market for such evil and it's happening now, it's not over. As that movie ended, I came out of that movie with great tension as it reminded me that indeed the truth is hard to handle. In fact, truth can be brutal. Not unlike the light that shines as we come out of the dark theater! This is why we have such a proclivity to lie, cheat and steal even in small ways. Why we have become so clever in cutting corners. Why? Because the Truth is hard to handle. (If you don't believe me, see the Sound of Freedom.)

How beautiful that when revealing Himself as Truth, Jesus also said the words Way and the Life! "I Am the Way, the Truth and the Life." This is important for it gives direction. Truth is ordered to Life, not death, to the right Way not the wrong. And it's always better to be on the Way toward Life.

This week, we come to July 25, "Christmas in July", and we have a chance to remember the Gift of Christian Faith. We are the only faith on earth that believes that God became man! That is radical, so too is all that flows from that Truth. July 25 also marks the anniversary of the Church Document Humanae Vitae, a document that taught about human life. When that document came out 55 years ago, it was radical. The contraceptive pill had recently been crafted and the culture of the day was filled with tension and turmoil. Nevertheless, the Church in her most solemn authority continued to teach the Truth that flows from the Incarnation. Namely, that human life is sacred as are those who give and bear Life. And while they, like all, can be used as instruments of lust, their dignity calls them to Life and Love.

I did not live in the confusing 60s and I'm glad that I did not. Some may say that I'm living in the confusing 2000s. But it seems to me that things are actually becoming quite clear. That indeed human life created in the image and likeness of God matters. And it matters very much. How we treat the smallest among us is a good indicator of how we care for ourselves and one another. And sadly, in that regard, America has a lot to learn. What America has done since the 60s in regards to human life is a truth too much to handle. But it's not too much for Jesus who is the Way, the Truth and the Life.

What a joy to proclaim Him, share Him and Live Him! Recognizing, Believing and Living Him, yields not just a Sound of Freedom but the Reality of Freedom for which we were made. So, do I recommend the movie Sound Of Freedom? I do with appropriate reservation. The truth has power to convert us and that's not just recommended to us, it's commanded of us.

Peace,
Fr. Rogers

It is time again to submit your scheduling dates for the fiscal year and reserve your meeting space. The calendar will run from August, 2023 through July, 2024.

Please submit your requirements to the parish office no later than August 6, 2023 to ensure that the space you require is available.
Scheduling will be done on a first come, first served basis.

DON'T TAKE A VACATION FROM YOUR FAITH

It can be difficult to find a Catholic Church while traveling and vacationing in unfamiliar locations. Mass Time Ministry at www.masstimes.org is a convenient way to locate a church so you can continue to receive Holy Eucharist and celebrate Mass.

WORLD DAY FOR GRANDPARENTS AND THE ELDERLY

SUNDAY 23 JULY 2023

"The Holy Spirit arouses thoughts and words of wisdom in the elderly today: their voice is precious because it sings the praises of God and guards the roots of peoples. They remind us that old age is a gift and that grandparents are the link between generations, to transmit to young people an experience of life and faith."
- POPE FRANCIS

WWW.CATHOLICGRANDPARENTSASSOCIATION.COM

Pope Benedict XVI's Prayer for Grandparents

Lord Jesus, you were born of the Virgin Mary, the daughter of Saints Joachim and Anne. Look with love on grandparents the world over. Protect them! They are a source of enrichment for families, for the Church and for all of society. Support them! As they grow older, may they continue to be for their families strong pillars of Gospel faith, guardians of noble domestic ideals, living treasures of sound religious traditions. Make them teachers of wisdom and courage, that they may pass on to future generations the fruits of their mature human and spiritual experience.

Lord Jesus, help families and society to value the presence and role of grandparents. May they never be ignored or excluded, but always encounter respect and love. Help them to live serenely and to feel welcomed in all the years of life which you give them. Mary, Mother of all the living, keep grandparents constantly in your care, accompany them on their earthly pilgrimage, and by your prayers, grant that all families may one day be reunited in our heavenly homeland, where you await all humanity for the great embrace of life without end. Amen!

CULTURE OF LIFE CORNER

WORD OF LIFE BULLETIN BRIEFS

"Married love differs from any other love in the world. By its nature, the love of husband and wife is so complete, so ordered to a lifetime of communion with God and each other, that it is open to creating a new human being they will love and care for together...That power to create a new life with God is at the heart of what spouses share with each other." FAITH, MUSIC & FAMILY FESTIVAL

What is an Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion (EMHC)?

This is a ministry of lay men and women who assist the Priest with the distribution of Holy Communion at Mass under both species, including weekday Masses. In addition to serving at Mass, ministers may bring the Eucharist to the sick and homebound members of our community. The desired assets for an EMHC are:

- A registered parishioner who is fully initiated in the faith, in good standing and practicing the faith.
- Reverence for the Eucharist.
- Desire to share the Gift of the Eucharist with others.
- Willingness to serve at Mass and/or bring the Eucharist to our sick and homebound parishioners.

Those interested in serving as an EMHC must be approved by the pastor and then receive proper training. You are then appointed for a three-year term by the Archbishop. If you feel called to serve as an Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion or would like to learn more about this important ministry, please contact Kathy Reinhardt at kmreinhardt@comcast.net.

Lord, you are good to us and forgiving, full of constant love for all who pray to you. Psalm 86:5

The Gospel parable of the weeds & wheat and their separation at the final judgment is an important message. Our lives can be difficult and full of weeds. In today's culture our soul has weaknesses in all the different messages we receive through social media. Take time this week to reflect on how you can remove these weeds. As a family talk about other troubles and how you can plant seeds of kindness.

Another area in the practical life lessons is Control of Movement. Control of Movement is composed of Gross & Fine Motor skills. Children typically master gross motor skills before fine motor skills. A few gross motor activities the children will participate in are walking the line while carrying a ball in one hand or a bell without letting it ring, how to carry a tray with two hands, and how to put on an apron. Fine motor skills are very effective in developing eye-hand coordination and strengthening the hand muscles to prepare children for writing. Some of these activities will include grasping, dry pouring, and pinching with clothespins & tweezers. All these and other activities tie in with the direct aim of order, concentration, coordination and independence.

Thank you to all who have answered our need for donations. May God be praise we have received so many wonderful items. We are taking a little break from collecting donations at this time as we organize what we have received for the Atrium.

Be on the lookout for registration to start in August.
