Eucharistic Etiquette:

A weekly word about reverence for the Eucharist.

☒One of the most admirable effects of Holy Communion is to preserve the soul from sin, and to help those who fall through weakness to rise again. It is much more profitable, then, to approach this divine Sacrament with love, respect, and confidence, than to remain away through an excess of fear and scrupulosity☒

All praise and glory is yours, Lord our God, for You have called us to serve You in love. Bless our sick:

Names on the prayer list will remain for two months. Please contact the office to add, renew or remove a name.

My Dear Parishioners,

Praised Be Jesus Christ! As we turn the calendar into August, we celebrate three saints this week who were Founders of Religious Communities: Ignatius of Loyola (The Society of Jesus, Jesuits), Alphonsus Ligouri (The Redemptorists), Peter Eymard (Blessed Sacrament Fathers). As Founders, these men did more than respond to a particular need of their day. They responded to God. Or to put it another way, they allowed themselves to be found by God. For Ignatius it happened when recovering from a leg wound; For Alphonsus, it was after losing a big legal trial; For Peter, it was after the death of his father and while recuperating from an illness. Into each of these moments, God revealed Himself and finding God, being found by Him, these men responded by founding new communities of religious life.

This week marks eight years since I became pastor here at St. Patrick. While I am not Founder of Religious Community, I thought it a fitting time to note what I have found here over these years. In 2015, upon my arrival at St. Patrick, I found an established, solid and faith-filled Christian Community. Like every community, it had faced its challenges. Perhaps the most significant, lingering institutional challenge was the closure of the parish school. To some degree, that closure affected the parish's identity; I know it effected the parish's mode of operating. But through it all, the fidelity of the people (many of you who are still here) and their pastor (Fr. Sharrett) was a great strength, a solid rock and strong support. While some new pastors find many crises, I did not. I found fidelity and for that --for you and for Fr. Sharrett -- I am grateful!

Eight years into pastoring and twenty-three years into priesthood, I have found and continue to find the presence of God in you, His People. I see this most in the Power of God's Word. Now more than ever, I am convinced that whenever and wherever the Word of God is proclaimed, beautiful things happen! For God's Word is True! His Word is Jesus! And His Word is such Good, Saving News.

As I begin year 9 here with you and together we begin another school year this month, the word on my heart and the word that I share with all of you is the following:

Unless the Lord builds the House in vain do the builders labor. Psalm 127:1

I love that Word for its Truth and its Challenge. For me, it's certainly a convicting Word as I guide this addition onto the Church! And I hope it convicts you, too! I hope it convicts all of us to NOT labor in vain. But rather, to be more and more attentive to the Lord, like the Saints were! To do ALL Things – Everything -- in Christ Jesus. If we do that, then all will be well and we will have done well.

Peace,

Fr. Rogers

HAVE YOU EVER THOUGHT ABOUT TAKING THIS STEP?
PERHAPS YOU....

- Have never been baptized but now you feel drawn to explore it
- Have been baptized in another Christian tradition, but now you want to continue your faith journey in the Catholic Church
- Have been baptized in the Catholic Church, but never received the sacraments of Eucharist and/or Confirmation

If any of these describes you, or someone you know, we invite you to take the next step to learn how St. Patrick can be part of your faith journey. Please call Father Rogers if you wish to learn more at 610-444-4364. 236

CULTURE OF LIFE CORNER

WORD OF LIFE BULLETIN BRIEFS

“A woman with an unexpected pregnancy may have any number of fears and challenges: facing judgment from her friends and family, losing her job or housing, or being abandoned by the father of her child. Following Mary’s example, we can ask ourselves how to better know these mothers, listen to them, seek understanding, and help them obtain the necessities of life for themselves and their children.”

What is an Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion (EMHC)?

This is a ministry of lay men and women who assist the Priest with the distribution of Holy Communion at Mass under both species, including weekday Masses. In addition to serving at Mass, ministers may bring the Eucharist to the sick and homebound members of our community. Those interested in serving as an EMHC must be approved by the pastor and then receive proper training. You are then appointed for a three-year term by the Archbishop.

What does it mean to someone to serve as an Extraordinary Ministry at St. Patrick:

“Being an EMHC has been such a blessing in my life and allows me to serve our mission of receiving and giving the love of God. I receive the healing, love and mercy of God in my life and there is nothing I desire more than for others to know and receive His love through the Eucharist. Whether it is assisting at Mass or visiting those who are sick or homebound, Jesus in the Eucharist brings healing and connects us as one. It gives me great joy to serve Jesus and those He loves in this way.” Rose H.

If you feel called to serve as an Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion or would like to learn more about this important ministry, please contact Kathy Reinhardt at kmreinhardt@comcast.net. 236

Discipleship

Blessed are you, father, Lord of heaven and earth; for you have revealed to little ones the mysteries of the kingdom.
Matthew 11:25

This Sunday the readings deal with the sense of values. This gospel talks of the kingdom of God and likens it to a fine pearl. Solomon's pearl was that of an understanding heart, Paul's treasure is our life in God through Jesus along with a courageous and discerning heart of discipleship. We want our children to grow up with Christian values. Quietly reflect on these values and then discuss them as a family. The values we name should be lived on a daily basis.

Catechesis of the Good Shepherd

Another area in the practical life lessons is Control of Movement. Control of Movement is composed of Gross & Fine Motor skills. Children typically master gross motor skills before fine motor skills. A few gross motor activities the children will participate in are walking the line while carrying a ball in one hand or a bell without letting it ring, how to carry a tray with two hands, and how to put on an apron. Fine motor skills are very effective in developing eye-hand coordination and strengthening the hand muscles to prepare children for writing. Some of these activities will include grasping, dry pouring, and pinching with clothespins & tweezers. All these and other activities tie in with the direct aim of order, concentration, coordination and independence.

Thank you to all who have answered our need for donations. May God be praise we have received so many wonderful items. We are taking a little break from collecting donations at this time as we organize what we have received for the Atrium.

Be on the lookout for registration to start in August.
