"The bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world" ~ John 6.51

Eucharistic Etiquette:

A weekly word about reverence for the Eucharist.

The Holy Eucharist is the continuation of Christ's incarnation on earth. The mystery of the Eucharist gives us the joy of having Christmas every day. When we come to the Blessed Sacrament we come to Bethlehem, a name which means "house of bread."

My Dear Parishioners,

Praise Be Jesus Christ! In this last full week before Christmas, we enter a new phase of Advent which is reflected in the "O Antiphons" of the Liturgy. What are the "O Antiphons"? That question was asked and answered well by Fr. William Saunders and I share his words with you.

O Antiphons refer to the seven antiphons that are recited (or chanted) preceding the Magnificat during Vespers of the Liturgy of the Hours. They cover the special period of Advent preparation known as the Octave before Christmas, Dec. 17-23, with Dec. 24 being Christmas Eve and Vespers for that evening being for the Christmas Vigil.

The exact origin of the O Antiphons is not known. Boethius (c. 480-524) made a slight reference to them, thereby suggesting their presence at that time. At the Benedictine abbey of Fleury (now Saint-Benoit-sur-Loire), these antiphons were recited by the abbot and other abbey leaders in descending rank, and then a gift was given to each member of the community. By the eighth century, they are in use in the liturgical celebrations in Rome. The usage of the O Antiphons was so prevalent in monasteries that the phrases, Keep your O and The Great O Antiphons were common parlance. One may thereby conclude that in some fashion the O Antiphons have been part of our liturgical tradition since the very early Church.

The importance of O Antiphons is twofold: Each one highlights a title for the Messiah: O Sapientia (O Wisdom), O Adonai (O Lord), O Radix Jesse (O Root of Jesse), O Clavis David (O Key of David), O Oriens (O Rising Sun), O Rex Gentium (O King of the Nations), and O Emmanuel. Also, each one refers to the prophecy of Isaiah of the coming of the Messiah.

According to Professor Robert Greenberg of the San Francisco Conservatory of Music, the Benedictine monks arranged these antiphons with a definite purpose. If one starts with the last title and takes the first letter of each one – Emmanuel, Rex, Oriens, Clavis, Radix, Adonai, Sapientia – the Latin words ero cras are formed, meaning, Tomorrow, I will come. Therefore, the Lord Jesus, whose coming we have prepared for in Advent and whom we have addressed in these seven Messianic titles, now speaks to us, Tomorrow, I will come. So the O Antiphons not only bring intensity to our Advent preparation, but bring it to a joyful conclusion.

Given that "Tomorrow, He will Come!" Be ready for His Coming, I encourage all of you to come to our parish Penance Service this Tuesday.

Peace,

Fr. Rogers

WORD OF LIFE – BULLETIN BRIEF

“O Blessed Mother, at the angel’s word you went in haste to the aid of your cousin Elizabeth. Although pregnant yourself, you placed her needs before your own. By your example of radical solidarity, teach us to reverence and protect those in need, without conditions or expectations... Obtain for us the grace to bring Christ to any expectant mother who is alone and afraid.”

Isaiah 12:5

This week we hear how people react to John the Baptist as he travels great distances to baptize and preach instructing different groups of people, (including tax collectors and soldiers), on how to act with justice and care for one another. John tells them to put God's commandments into practice. Quietly reflect on how you are called to care for others?

2024 PARISH TREE LIGHTING & JOYFUL SCENES OF CHRISTMAS

Thank you to all our children and families who participated in our joyful Scenes of Christmas celebration last Sunday and to all who joined us. It certainly was a joyous event!

A special word of thanks to our Knights of Columbus for donating the beautiful tree and organizing our holiday social gathering. All had a wonderful time and especially enjoyed the family photos with our friend from the North Pole-thanks to Tony Basilio for capturing the moment behind the lens. Job well done! Thanks to all for getting St. Pat's in the Christmas Spirit!

Catechesis of the Good Shepherd
GOOD SHEPHERD
"Let the little children come"
Matthew 23:12

Serving children ages 3-6

Last week, we heard the first of the Messianic prophecies Isaiah, "The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light!" followed by the names of the Messiah, and we continued to ponder this while we work in the atrium and lit the second candle on the Advent Wreath. We know that Jesus came to us as a baby but this week we focused on where Jesus was born. Looking at a globe we travelled across the Atlantic to Israel and using the raised surface map the children saw what Isreal looked like in Jesus' time. On the surface map the children saw that Israel was similar to where we live. They could see high mountain ridges, sand, forest land and seas & rivers. We focused on the town of Nazareth, Bethlehem, and Jerusalem.

ST. PATRICK PARISH PILGRIM STATUE OF THE EXPECTANT MADONNA

Our Parish Pilgrim Statue of the Expectant Madonna continues to bless the homes of our parish families and recently made a second visit to the home of Ethel Ann Murphy. She shared the following regarding Our Lady's visit:

"I never stop being amazed at the way the Lord touches my life through divine intervention. He knows what I need... And when I need it. His plan is my plan! I signed up months ago for this past week to be my second visit from the Expectant Madonna to my home. I was actually the first one on the list the week of October 16th of 2023 - what would have been Jacks and my 30th anniversary.

There was no reason I picked this week, this time. It was just one that was available. Little did I know that through divine intervention Mary would be in my home the week after my sweet sister went to meet our good Lord and her angels in heaven.... A few days after I held her hand for the very last time..... Yet another act of divine intervention. Mary has always been a great source of comfort to me throughout my life. To have her here this past week has been such a blessing in so many ways."

Have you signed up yet to welcome Our Expectant Madonna Pilgrim Statue? All parishioners and families are invited to welcome the Pilgrim Statue of the Expectant Madonna into your home for a one-week visit (Sunday to Sunday). As we now celebrate the beautiful season of ADVENT, this can be a special way to gather your family together in prayer each day while contemplating Mary's FIAT. A Prayer Booklet complete with the Rosary for Life intentions and other prayers specific to the family and pro-life matters will accompany the statue to help deepen your prayer time. For more information and to sign up for your week, please visit the parish website or contact Jen Keller at jenkellersp@gmail.com.
