"The bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world." ~ John 6:51

Eucharistic Etiquette:

A weekly word about reverence for the Eucharist.

The Eucharist is Christmas prolonged, because faith tells us that once God became man, He decided to remain man. From all the reaches of past eternity, God had only been God. But having once taken on human flesh, into now the future reaches of eternity, God will always remain man. And this God-man is here; Bethlehem is wherever there is a Catholic Church or chapel in which Christ is present. Those are the two facts that we commemorate on Christmas day. (Fr. Hardon)

All praise and glory is yours, Lord our God, for You have called us to serve You in love. My Dear Parishioners, Praise be Jesus Christ! Several years ago, Christian Artist Matt Maher wrote a song entitled "The In Between". You may be familiar with it from Season 3 of THE CHOSEN. The song comes to mind this weekend as we literally find ourselves in between Christmas and New Years, between 2024 and 2025.

While I suppose we are always "in between" something, this particular week highlights that reality. A reality which may be good but more often is challenging. Who likes the in between seat of an airplane? How often it is that the "in between" is a place of anxiety, wondering about the future? Or a place of grief, regret about the past. It's true that the "in between" is a place of great challenge. A challenge that Christmas embraces and changes.

Having celebrated the day of Christmas, we are now living the reality of Christmas – God With Us – Emmanuel. God is now here in the great in between no matter what that might be. And this is truly GOOD and SAVING NEWS! Namely, that no matter the situation, God IS with us; this fact gives us Hope; gives us companionship; it is the root of all Peace. The Key is simply to be with Him.

As we turn the calendar into the New Year, let us make a new commitment, even a resolution, to simply be with Him who is already with Us. To let Him lead and move us; to teach and guide us; to accompany and befriend us. How beautiful this Way of Life can be, It is the Way to Peace.

A Blessed and Happy New Year!

Peace,

Fr. Rogers

The In Between (from The Chosen) Song by Matt Maher

From death to life
 From darkness to a shine
 From fear to a peace I can't explain
 From doubts to a hope
 Holding on and letting go
 Of all the empty promises of shame
 This is my song

REFRAIN:

I was one way but now I'm different
 There was a clear change in a holy collision
 Who I was and who I'll forever be
 And He was the in between

From orphan to Your child
 From a stone to running wild
 From a seed in the ground to breaking out
 From a mess to a mess
 A blessing to a blessing
 A sea of failures bearing testimony
 This is my song

REFRAIN

Love stretched out
 On a tree screaming out
 So that I could say You've not forsaken me
 You're the first and the last
 My future and my past
 Who I was and who I will forever be
 You are the in between

FRIDAY, JANUARY 24, 2025 WASHINGTON, DC
Life is a precious gift from God!

The March for Life is an inspiring, peaceful, vibrant, and joy-filled rally of men, women, and young people, and children from all across the country. Every year, tens of thousands of pro- lifers converge on the National Mall and march on Capitol Hill. It is the largest annual human rights demonstration in the world. But this is not just a protest
TOGETHER, WE GATHER TO CELEBRATE LIFE!

Please join St. Patrick Church as we partner with Assumption BVM and Sacred Heart Parishes for a bus trip to Washington, D.C. for the 52nd Annual March for Life. The motor coach bus will depart ABVM Church parking lot at 6:30 AM and return at approximately 7:00 PM. We will attend the Philadelphia Archdiocesan Mass at the Cathedral Basilica of the Immaculate Conception in Washington, D.C. We will then reboard the bus and travel to the National Mall for the Rally and March for Life. For more details about the March, please visit www.marchforlife.org. For questions or to sign up for the bus, please contact Jen Keller at 610-444-4364 or jenkellersp@gmail.com.

ADORATION OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT

MONDAYS FROM 8:00 AM – 7:00 PM

FIRST FRIDAYS – Join us this Friday, January 3, 2025 at 7:00 PM

Many of us may have time off from work and other obligations during the week between Christmas and New Years. Consider setting aside some time on the last Monday of 2024 in the Lord's presence. Kneel before the Creche and gaze upon the Blessed Sacrament, thanking and praising the Lord for all the year's blessings and looking in anticipation to the New Year ahead.

Speaking of New Year, consider spending the First Friday of 2025 in the presence of our Eucharistic Lord. All are welcome on Friday, January 3 from 7:00 PM – 8:30 PM. Let us surrender our plans for the New Year to the Lord and pray for the grace and strength to follow Him and become more like Him in the year ahead.

Our parish offers Eucharistic Adoration on Mondays from 8:00 AM – 7:00 PM and on First Fridays from 7:00 PM – 8:30 PM. Mark your 2025 calendars and plan a regular date with our Eucharistic Lord. For questions or more information, please contact Angela Eyre at 484-753-4801 or by email at reachmorestpatrick@gmail.com. 236

“Bless our King, O God, the king you have chosen.” Psalm 84:9

The Holy Family had their share of pain and difficulties much like your own experiences. Yet Scripture tells us that Joseph & Mary found strength from their faith in God and were guided by His Word. Celebrate the Feast of the Holy Family by gathering for a special family meal or activity.

THANK YOU TO OUR FAMILY PROMISE MINISTRY

The Family Promise Elves of St. Patrick helped make Christmas extra special this year for 15 families assisted by Family Promise of Southern Chester County, which is a non-profit organization that helps families with children experiencing homelessness achieve sustainable housing and stability.

On Thursday, December 19, a holiday celebration for these families was held at the Church of the Advent. In conjunction with the Presbyterian Church and ABVM, the St. Patrick Family Promise team provided dinner, cookie decorating, craft making and a visit from Santa Claus. Each family received an abundance of gift cards and each individual child received several gifts that were all made possible by the generosity of parishioners.

The good works of our Family Promise ministry didn't stop there....

On Monday, December 23, a Christmas Breakfast Basket filled with lots of mouthwatering breakfast items was given to the men at Good Samari-

Catechesis of the Good Shepherd
Serving children ages 3-6

The children are on a break but when they return, they will continue with the birth of Jesus and adoration of the shepherds.

THANK YOU TO ST. PATRICK KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS COUNCIL MEMBERS

The Knights of Columbus is the largest Catholic men's fraternal organization in existence and the St. Patrick Knights of Columbus Council, comprised of about 70 men, are a wonderful example of the importance of this Catholic family organization. All the good works that are done by the Knights of Columbus are informed by the four core principles of Charity, Unity, Fraternity, and Patriotism. It is through these principles that the Knights serve our parish and our larger community.

Speaking of Charity, members of the St. Patrick Knights of Columbus and other fellow parishioners spent Saturday, December 14 at the Kennett Area Senior Center to help with their fall leaf clean up. Despite the frigid morning temperatures, the volunteers bundled up and got the job done. A word of thanks to all those who participated to help our neighbors in need. Job well done!

FAMILY PROMISE MINISTRY CONTINUED

On Monday, December 23, a Christmas Breakfast Basket filled with lots of mouthwatering breakfast items was given to the men at Good Samaritan House, which is an organization that helps provide men experiencing homelessness and poverty to move from housing crisis to stability. There are currently 12 men participating in the program through the supportive housing on Birch Street. Thanks to Family Promise, these men did not go hungry on Christmas morning.

A word of thanks to parishioners Jean O'Neil, Lucy D'Angelo, and Mary Drinker for spearheading these works of charity and to all those who gave so generously to families in need. 236
