My Dear Parishioners,

Praise Be Jesus Christ! With the Philadelphia Eagles commanding victory in SuperBowl 59, a word this week about eagles. Eagles are near to us not only at the Zoo but along the Conowingo Dam in Darlington, MD. And even, here in our Church! Have you ever noticed the eagle portrayed in our stained glass? (Hint: check out St. John Window, the 4th Window on St. Joseph Side of Church).

Eagles are found in Scripture, both the Old and New Testaments. As creatures of God, they manifest God in their beauty, vision, power and might. Their flight represents freedom and has power to lift the heart and soul to new heights. And how we need that vision, flight and power in our day! In this Jubilee Year of Hope, eagles offer hope and Saints share it. I share with you an abridged article about a soon-to-be declared Saint, Pier Giorgio Frassati, whose motto was “to the heights” – His Feast Day is July 4th!

Peace,

Fr. Rogers

To The Heights! by Bishop William Waltersheid, Auxillary Bishop of Pittsburgh

On July 4th, when our minds and hearts are turned to the beginnings of our nation, the Church commemorates a holy individual who has been beatified and will be canonized. Blessed Pier Giorgio Frassati is a shining example for our own times. He was born on April 6, 1901 in the northern Italian city of Turin. His family was affluent and cultured. Alfredo, his father, was the founder and director of the liberal Italian newspaper, La Stampa, and an agnostic, a member of the Italian Senate and ambassador to Germany at one point. Adelaide, his mother, was a practicing Catholic and a celebrated painter.

From early in his life, Pier Giorgio was deeply spiritual and devoutly Catholic. As a child he sought his spiritual director’s permission to receive Holy Communion daily, a practice that was not common at that time. He became a member of the Sodality of the Blessed Virgin Mary and the Apostolate of Prayer. His spiritual life was founded on the two pillars of great devotion to Our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament and a tender devotion to Our Lady. He freely shared his love for Jesus and Mary with his young friends and all who would listen. He was an enthusiastic promoter of the faith.

He had a tremendous love for the poor since he was a small boy. He frequently denied himself money and others things to be able to provide for the poor. At the age of 17, Pier Giorgio joined the St. Vincent de Paul Society. Through his work in this organization, he was able to channel the great love he received from the Eucharistic Heart of Jesus into the care he poured out upon poor families, orphans of the First World War, single mothers, and all those in need. For him, it was only logical that love received from Christ present in the Holy Eucharist must be shared with his brothers and sisters who were less fortunate. Pier Giorgio was an accomplished athlete, avid swimmer, boatsman, and hiker, his great passion was for mountain climbing. His life motto came from his Alpine adventures. “To the heights!” referred not only to his conquest of peaks in the Alps but also to his spiritual life. His goal in life was to scale the heights of holiness and bring many souls to Christ. He will be canonized August 3, 2025.

And the Survey Said...

When promoting an annual event, the key question is always: What do people love most about it? Or, put another way: Why do parishioners keep coming back year after year?

For over a decade, I've written bulletin inserts highlighting the best aspects of St. Patrick's Gala, hoping to spark excitement and encourage attendance. By now, if you've even glanced at the bulletin, you probably know the Gala's biggest draws:

- A beautiful venue (Mendenhall Inn) with delicious food.
- A silent auction filled with unique finds—many selling for a fraction of their value—perfect for gifts or personal treasures.
- The Knights' biggest fundraiser, enabling the Knights to complement hands-on service with financial assistance to local nonprofits.
- Great entertainment, always fun and memorable.

A warm, relaxed atmosphere where you can reconnect with old friends and meet new ones. But we wanted to dig deeper. What truly brings you back? So, we surveyed 35 parishioners—most of whom have attended multiple Galas—and asked them to rank these features in order of importance.

The results were surprising—and heartwarming. The #1 reason you love the Gala was --- The chance to casually interact with fellow parishioners.

More than the food, the auction, or even the entertainment, you treasure this event as an opportunity to catch up with friends you haven't seen all winter, finally introduce yourself to the friendly faces you recognize from Sunday Mass and strengthen the bonds within our community. I've often ended these Gala invitations by mentioning this, but I never realized it was the most compelling reason to attend. Now that I do, I appreciate the Gala even more.

The Bottom Line:

On March 16th, join us at the Gala. Come for the great food, the fun, and the amazing auction deals—but most importantly, come to reconnect, laugh, and share a wonderful evening with your parish family.

And if we haven't met yet, I'd love to introduce myself and become a new friend.

“The Lord watches over the way of the just, but the way of the wicked leads to ruin.”

Psalm 1:6

This week in the Gospel of Luke it shows how Jesus tells his followers that the world might think people are poor, hungry, sad, or treated badly are unlucky but in God’s eyes, those people are actually blessed because they can rely on God more and will receive great rewards in heaven. Think about the Beatitudes, which do you live fully?

Catechesis of the
GOOD SHEPHERD
“Let the little children come”
Matthew 19:14

During ordinary time, our minds and hearts are of the mindset of growing. We hear God’s word, and wonder about the mysteries of the Kingdom of Heaven.

This week, we continue our focus on the Kingdom of God parables. Our hearts are set afire as we ponder the great and precious gift of God. The parable of the Precious Pearl helps us to fall more deeply in love with God and what His Kingdom holds for us.

We sing our “Kingdom of Heaven” song, adding the verses about the pearl, and as desired, children may trace the Precious Pearl packet or create art-work inspired by the parable.

Furthermore, at the prayer table, we pray and wonder over the words “Thy Kingdom come, thy will be done.”

The children are gaining confidence when using the different works in the Atrium and fine-tuning their fine motor skills as they completed their Rosaries. Fr. Rogers came over and blessed them for us.

- “It was an amazing experience. No matter what stage of life and where you are in relation to your faith journey, there is a place for you, the experience meets you where you are and purposefully moves you forward.”
- “It is a great first step to get involved in the parish, to meet new people, and to come to know Jesus better.”
- “It not only brings us closer to God through scripture, but you get a chance to build long lasting friendships.”

Have you been thinking about joining a Small Group, but have not yet signed up? If the answer is YES, then what are you waiting for?
