My Dear Parishioners,

Praised be Jesus Christ! As we begin the 1st full week of Lent, we find our Lord in the desert, a literal desert in Southern Israel. While most of us have never visited a desert, the term resonates within us. Over the years, it's a word that has developed into a figure of speech, to refer to that which is empty, difficult, trying time. All of us have a familiarity with those "deserts". In fact, we may spend whole portions of our life in "desert times". These are realities familiar to Jesus and to the Church. So we can have company in such times and that company can bestow great wisdom, and bring about greater maturity in us, in ways that ground us more deeply faith, hope and love.

As we enter Lent, do not fear the desert but seek in it the Presence of God. I share here an article Desert Fathers written by Philip Kosloski and published on 05/09/17

Peace,

Fr. Rogers

Who were these "Desert Fathers"?

During the late 3rd century a Christian man named Paul, living in the city of Thebes, Egypt, was forced into the desert during the persecution of Emperor Decius. While there he lived in a cave and was waiting for the persecution to end. In the process Paul discovered that he enjoyed the solitude and freedom to fast and pray. He embraced life in the desert and lived in that cave for many more decades as a hermit dedicated to the worship of God.

Near the end of Saint Paul's life another man in Egypt named Anthony was inspired by the Gospel to give up his possessions and serve God alone. His experience is related in the famous Life of Anthony written by Saint Athanasius. The book recounts how during Mass one day, "the Gospel was being read, and [Anthony] heard the Lord saying to the rich man [Matthew 19:21], 'If you would be perfect, go and sell what you have and give to the poor; and come follow Me and you shall have treasure in heaven.'" Anthony believed the words were aimed directly at him and so, immediately following Mass, he sold all of his possessions and sought to do God's will.

Around this time Anthony heard about Paul the Hermit and went to visit him in the seclusion of the mountains. Anthony was inspired by his way of life and was convinced that God was also calling him to become a hermit in the wilderness. Anthony dedicated the remainder of his life to fasting and prayer, living a life of poverty for the glory of God. His holiness became widely known and, during the persecution of Diocletian, Christians became attracted to the desert as a way of escaping the world and living a private Christian life. Anthony's life and wisdom inspired numerous men and women to give up their worldly ambitions and live in solitude worshipping God. Monasteries developed over time and spread throughout Egypt. A rule of life was formed and other holy men and women began to take up the call to the desert.

While most Catholics may not be familiar with the writings of the Desert Fathers, their influence can be felt throughout the world. They call us to a radical form of Christian living that features fasting, penance and silence. In a world filled with numerous earthly temptations and such great noise, the Desert Fathers are a beacon of light calling us to live differently.

Even though we may not be called to give up all our possessions and live in the desert, the Desert Fathers challenge us to make our own daily sacrifices, live more simply, and dedicate time each day for prayer and silence.

CULTURE OF LIFE CORNER

Word of Life Bulletin Briefs
"We often assume parenthood happens easily after 'I do,' but for many married couples, it does not. For some, the joy of conception never happens. Others suffer repeated miscarriages. Still others experience secondary infertility... If you experience difficulty bringing a child into your family, know that you are not alone. God is with you, and his Church desires to walk with you... God has a beautiful plan for your life as a married couple."

Holy Family Initiative

Engaged by Heart

Following Mary's Way of the Cross on Feb 23rd, all adults and teens are invited to join a discussion of "The Virgin Mary's Struggles" by Ascension Presents in the St. Joseph Room from 7:30-8:30pm!

The Holy Family Initiative will host quarterly events for parishioners to meet someone new and engage with others through a fun activity.

See you there!

To you, O Lord, I offer my prayer; in you, my God, I trust. Psalm 25:1

In order to truly love God, we are asked to love our neighbor as ourselves. In order for human love, service, and sacrifice to have meaning, we must put God before all else. Love of God and love of neighbor are forever linked. This week, the readings will be exploring forgiveness, a concrete way in which we act on our love for God, for neighbor, and for ourselves.

Catechesis of the Good Shepherd

Serving children ages 3-6

As we continue our journey of Lent in the atrium, we are presented with the mystery of Christ as the Good Shepherd. The children ponder the words from Psalm 23:1, "The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want."

We wonder in awe over how God provides for all our needs. There is nothing I lack. Children may take the opportunity to trace the prayer card or make their own, or they may simply ponder these words as they work on the practical life in the atrium.

As a reminder, the work of arranging flowers is a favorite. If you are looking for ways to donate to our atrium in a pragmatic way, we would love fresh cut flowers from your yard or local grocery store.

"So you could not keep watch with me for one hour?" Matthew 26:40

ADORATION OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT

MONDAYS FROM 8:00 AM – 7:00 PM

Consider joining the Adoration Team – Our Lord seeks your company!

Adoration is answering Our Blessed Lord's question, "Could you not watch with me for one hour?" with a "yes, here I am". That being said, remaining in silent adoration of the Lord is a perfect way to spend adoration. Saying your prayers is also perfect, as long as you leave enough time to hear from Him.

Our Lord waits for each one of us in the Blessed Sacrament each Monday at Adoration. You are invited to stop in to the Church and spend some time with Him. We are always in need of Adorers who can either take a regular hour, or sub when needed. In particular, there is need for help at 12:00 PM and 2:00 PM. If you are available at one of these hours and/or would like to be added to the Adoration team, please sign up using the QR code below or contact Angela Eyre at reachmorestpatrick@gmail.com

A staggering 70% of people who call themselves Catholics do not believe in the Real Presence - that Jesus Christ is truly present, body, blood, soul & Divinity, in the Holy Eucharist after the words of Consecration are pronounced. From the time of Christ until 1525 there were no doubts about the Real Presence. That is when a Swiss Protestant reformer named Zwingli pronounced that belief in the Real Presence is not found in the Bible. That simply is NOT TRUE! And we hope after watching these videos, you will also see, not just that Zwingli was wrong, but what an incredible gift Jesus left us before He was taken up into Heaven.

ST. PATRICK PARISH PILGRIM STATUE OF THE EXPECTANT MADONNA

Our Parish Pilgrim Statue of the Expectant Madonna continues her travels and recently made a stop at the home of the Chris & Cathy Burkett. They shared the following regarding the Expectant Madonna's visit:

"Hosting Our Expectant Lady has been a wonderful reminder that amidst our busy days we can always find a way to pray. We know that Our Lady would have had so many things to do while awaiting the birth of Jesus, yet her "Yes" to God's Will for her to carry His Son would be ever present and growing, expanding Her faith and love for Him. We can offer each daily task as a prayer of thanksgiving to God for the gift of Our Blessed Mother and Jesus!"

All parishioners and families are invited to welcome the Pilgrim Statue of the Expectant Madonna into your home for a one-week visit (Sunday to Sunday). She began her journey through the parish in October and currently has a home through April 2024. Let's keep her going! Did you know that May is the month of the Blessed Mother? What a perfect time to welcome Our Lady into your home. The next opening is May 19. For more information and to sign up for your week, please see your weekly parish flocknote, visit the parish website, or contact Jen Keller at
