"The bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world." ~ John 6:51

Eucharistic Etiquette:

A weekly word about reverence for the Eucharist.

Did you know?

It is part of the Church Law that One who is to receive the Most Holy Eucharist is to abstain from any food or drink, with the exception only of water and medicine for at least the period of one hour before Holy Communion.

All praise and glory is yours, Lord our God, for You have called us to serve You in love. Bless our sick: Rosa Maria Santos, Thomas Layug, Steven Mangini, John Pellegrino, Thomas Kelleher, Diane Jones, Giovanna Sankus, Marc Palfy, Joshua Brown, Maria Rowe, William Morey, Bryan Pudelka, Miles Kennedy, Diane Stansberry, Diane & Jeff Jones, Pamela Maldonado, Mary Anne Proch, Aaron Pogue, Susan Walker, Kathi Lafferty, Barry Fragale, David Brice, Jim Feiler, Dianne & Anthony Smith, Shannon Quinn, Florence Ciliberto, Clint Norris III, Samantha Brown, Mary Ellen Rorke Ventrella, Diane Jones, Chris Baker, Linda Harris, Millie Basile, Vira Smith, Bob McCaffrey, Ed Homa, Chris Santos, Alan Hobbs, Jeff Hammaker, Karen Amato, Jessica Moorhead, Carmen Rossini, Joe Posse, Maria Ireson, Karen Neyerson, Brent London, J. My Dear Parishioners, Praise Be Jesus Christ! Last week, as we flew high with the Eagles, I shared with you an article about a soon-to-be canonized Saint, Pier Giorgio Frassati whose canonization is set for August. His motto was “To the Heights!”. This week, as we march into March, I share another soon-to-be canonized Saint, Carlo Acutis. His life may be more familiar to you; he’s the first saint of the millennial generation. His parents are still living and his witness to the Eucharist is so beautiful. In a world where true beauty is often missed, consider the life of 15 year old Carlo. His life on earth converted his family and friends; May his life in heaven assist in our conversion – as we turn away from sin and toward Jesus Christ.

Peace,

Fr. Rogers

Acutis, an Italian computer-coding teenager who died of cancer in 2006, is known for his great devotion to the real presence of Jesus in the Eucharist. Born in 1991, Acutis is the first millennial to be beatified by the Catholic Church. Shortly after his first Communion at the age of 7, Acutis told his mother: “To always be united to Jesus: This is my life plan.”

To accomplish this, Acutis sought to attend daily Mass as often as he could at the parish church across the street from his elementary school in Milan. Acutis called the Eucharist “my highway to heaven,” and he did all in his power to make this presence known. His witness inspired his own parents to return to practicing the Catholic faith and his Hindu au pair to convert and be baptized.

Acutis was a tech-savvy kid who loved computers, animals, and video games. His spiritual director has recalled that Acutis was convinced that the evidence of Eucharistic miracles could be persuasive in helping people to realize that Jesus is present at every Mass.

Over the course of two and a half years, Acutis worked with his family to put together an exhibition on Eucharistic miracles that premiered in 2005 during the Year of the Eucharist proclaimed by Pope John Paul II and has since gone on to be displayed at thousands of parishes on five continents.

Many of Acutis’ classmates, friends, and family members have testified how he brought them closer to God. Acutis was a very open person and was not shy about speaking with his classmates and anyone he met about the things he loved: the Mass, the presence of Jesus in the Eucharist, and heaven.

He is remembered for saying: “People who place themselves before the sun get a tan; people who place themselves before the Eucharist become saints.” Acutis died at the age of 15 in 2006, shortly after being diagnosed with leukemia. Before he died, Acutis told his mother: “I offer all of my suffering to the Lord for the pope and for the Church in order not to go to purgatory but to go straight to heaven.” Thousands of people visited Acutis’ tomb in Assisi following his beatification in the Basilica of St. Francis of Assisi on Oct. 10, 2020. He will be canonized a Saint on April 27, 2025.

An Invitation from Archbishop Pérez

ST. PATRICK PARISH INFORMATION SESSION

SUNDAY, MARCH 23, 2025

1:00 PM – 3:00 PM

Your voice and presence are essential as we plan a new way forward!

Archbishop Perez published an important Pastoral Letter on January 5th. This letter outlines his hopes for the Church of Philadelphia over the coming years. He invites each of us to read and reflect upon this letter and to participate in a conversation about it. His letter can be found at www.trustandhope.org.

On Sunday, March 23rd, from 1:00 PM – 3:00 PM, in the St. Joseph Room, St. Patrick Church will host an information session for our parish community on the pastoral planning for the Archdiocese of Philadelphia.

We would like as much of our St. Patrick community in attendance as possible. To help us plan accordingly, please register for this event using the QR code found below, visit the parish website, or please email Jen Keller at jenkellersp@gmail.com.

If you cannot attend our parish session, you are invited and encouraged to attend one of the Archdiocesan sessions being offered throughout Chester County. To sign up for an Archdiocesan session, please visit www.trustandhope.org.

SPIRITUAL ADOPTION MONTH SIX

Thank you to our 60 parishioners who have pledged to pray daily for your spiritually adopted child and his/her parents. We are at the five-month mark of our spiritually adopted child's development in the womb.

Did you know that during month six your baby is now approaching two pounds. She just opened her eyes and can now respond to sounds. Babies born prematurely at this time have a very good chance of surviving. The medical advances in caring for extremely small newborn infants are extraordinary indeed. Each passing year, we witness medical advances that allow our medical professionals to save younger and younger premature infants.

Would you like to participate in St. Patrick Spiritual Adoption Initiative and receive monthly updates via Flocknote to include: A reminder to pray the Spiritual Adoption Daily Prayer; an update on your baby's developmental growth; and a word for prayerful reflection.

You may sign up anytime now through May using the pledge card found in the Narthex and place it in the basket next to the Expectant Madonna. You can also sign up online using the QR code found below. For questions regarding Spiritual Adoption, please contact Rose Hearn at rosehearn@comcast.net.

COME WALK WITH ME NIGHT OF PRAYER with Irish tenor, Mark Forrest

Friday, March 7, 2025 at 7:00PM

St. Patrick Parish looks forward to welcoming back Irish tenor, Mark Forrest for a very special Lenten evening of prayer and spiritual reflection.

The Come Walk With Me evening is a time for us to reflect on our personal relationship with Jesus Christ. During the evening, the blessed sacrament will be exposed and Irish tenor Mark Forrest will take you through an evening of music, reflection, and healing. Consider taking an hour with the Lord as he invited you to a closer walk with him.

Please save the date and join us. All are welcome.

“Praise the Lord, my soul, and don’t forget how kind he is. Psalm 103:2

In the Gospel of Luke this week, we are given a powerful instruction from Jesus to actively love one’s enemies, going beyond simply not harming them, but to actively do good to those who have wronged us. Silently reflect in your heart. Who has hurt you and can you reconcile with them?

Catechesis of the GOOD SHEPHERD "Let the little children come" Matthew 19:14

Catechesis of the Good Shepherd

Serving children ages 3-6

As we continue listening to parables, we are reminded that Jesus lived in the land of Israel and walked all around telling these parables to help us learn a message.

We listened to the Gospel of Matthew 13:44 “Kingdom of God.” The Kingdom of God is one of the greatest mysteries of our faith. It is like a hidden treasure of immense value. If someone were to discover it, they should be willing to give up everything in their life to possess it. The children reflected on how the treasure represents the Kingdom of Heaven. The person finding the treasure realizes it’s value and the act of selling it symbolizes the cost of following Jesus.

Jesus wants us to understand that Kingdom of God is a special gift that will be given to us.

How might you answer the question, “What does the Kingdom of God mean to you?” For inquiries about CGS contact Kelly Pin or Maria Miller-Kpin.teacher@gmail.com or mmillerdresp@gmail.com

REACH MORE SMALL GROUPS BEGINS NEXT WEEK

FINAL WEEKEND TO SIGN UP

Join your fellow parishioners as we come together to deepen our faith and build friendships through Small Group discussions. Groups of 6-10 people meet weekly to pray, read Scripture, and discuss how it applies to you personally. Groups are offered Sunday through Thursday in the Morning, Afternoon and Evening – so there are plenty of options to work with your personal schedule. Small Groups are about friends helping friends follow Jesus!

Here are some things your fellow parishioners are saying about Small Groups:

- “Reach More is very rewarding. It keeps us focused on how we should be living our lives the way Jesus wants us to.”
“It is a faith filled experience with the right focus and discussions leading to better, richer Catholic faith and with an appreciation and better understanding of the Scriptures on a personal level.”
“I would tell anyone who asks me that the Reach More Small Group experience was like no other – it brought be closer to God.”

Have you been thinking about joining a Small Group, but have not yet signed up? If the answer is YES, then what are you waiting for? This is the final weekend to sign up as groups begin next week. Don’t miss the opportunity to experience being in a Small Group this Lent and be sure to sign up today! Please sign up using the card found in the pew and return it to the blue box found in the Narthex. You can also sign up on online using the QR code found below.
