"The bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world." ~ John 6:51

Eucharistic Etiquette:

A weekly word about reverence for the Eucharist.

"Ask Christ to help you become happy. I obey Christ. After Christ's example, I forgive my persecutors. I do not hate them. I ask God to have pity on all, and I hope my blood will fall on my fellow men as fruitful rain."

St. Paul Miki (1562-1597)

All praise and glory is yours, Lord our God, for You have called us to serve You in love. Bless our sick:

My Dear Parishioners,

Praise Be Jesus Christ! As February begins, we arrive this Sunday to the 40th Day of Christmas, yes GROUNDHOG DAY, but also The Feast of the Lord's Presentation, aka Candlemas Day. Believe it or not, there is a connection between the two days! An Old English Poem reads:

*If Candlemas be fair and bright, Come winter, have another flight.
If Candlemas bring clouds and rain, Go winter, and come not again.*

In Germany, ground-dwelling animals such as badgers were the traditional harbingers of winter or spring on Candlemas. German immigrants imported the idea to Pennsylvania, adopted the local groundhog as the weatherman, and the rest is history.

But what is Candlemas? The feast of Candlemas is also called the Purification of Our Lady or the Presentation of Our Lord in the Temple. It commemorates the coming of the Holy Family to the Temple in Jerusalem forty days after Our Lord's birth. There Our Lady completed the sacrifices the Mosaic Law required of new mothers. Firstborn sons being traditionally dedicated to God's service, she and St. Joseph presented the infant Jesus to His Father—a beautiful image of Christ taking on His mission in the world.

We read about this event in the second chapter of Luke. The holy elder Simeon, to whom the Holy Spirit revealed that he would see the Christ, recognizes the Child and prophesies about His future. Because Jesus is the Light of the World Who, with His coming to earth, dispelled the darkness of sin, the Church blesses candles on this day for use in the liturgy and for home prayer. A candlelit procession is often included in the liturgy, recalling the entrance of this Light into His Temple.

As we enter the Temple today on the 40th Day of Christmas, we find ourselves 32 days before LENT. As such, we have an opportunity to consider the Temple of our own Bodies – heart, soul, intellect and will. A chance to root those parts of us deeper into the Light of Christ, so that every shadow can be lit up!

Two things to consider in advance of Lent:

1) Bishop Barron Book on Prayer. At Christmas, our parish distributed 300 copies of this book. In the coming weeks on Thursdays, beginning next week, our seminarians will be discussing the book. There's a lot there for the mind and heart and I'd encourage you to read and join them.

2) STUDY. Right now, there's a lot going on in the temple of our Country, especially Immigration. I encourage you to read the document on Immigration released by the Bishops of Colorado, this past week, IT IS EXCELLENT, FILLED WITH GOD'S LIGHT.

Finally in Lent:

SCREWTAPE: A Live performance of CS LEWIS Book will be coming to Philadelphia April 6. The Parish has a limited # of Tix at $75. Call parish if you'd like one.

Peace, Fr. Rogers

Parishioners from St. Patrick along with our friends from Assumption BVM and Sacred Heart were on the side of LIFE at the 52nd March for Life in Washington, DC on Friday, January 24. Thank you for representing our parish community and for your witness to LIFE.

NATIONAL MARRIAGE WEEK (February 7-14, 2025)

THEME: “Marriage: Source of Hope, Spring of Renewal. Pursue a Lasting Love!”

“What is Marriage? It is a true and authentic vocation, as are the priesthood and the religious life. Two Christians who marry have recognized the call of the Lord in their own love story, the vocation to form one flesh and one life from two, male and female.” - Pope Francis, Meeting with the Young People of Umbria (October 4, 2013)

The observances of National Marriage Week (February 7-14) and World Marriage Day (Sunday, February 9) are an opportunity to focus on building a culture of life and love that begins with supporting and promoting marriage and the family. For more information and resources to support your marriage, visit www.foryourmarriage.org.

FEBRUARY 8 – Feast Day of St. Joseph Bakhita
INTERNATIONAL DAY OF PRAYER & AWARENESS
AGAINST HUMAN TRAFFICKING

St. Josephine Bakhita was kidnapped as a child and sold into slavery in Sudan and Italy. Once Josephine was freed, she became a Canossian nun and dedicated her life to sharing her testament of deliverance from slavery and comforting the poor and suffering. She was declared a Saint in 2000.

The elimination of human trafficking is a priority issue for the Catholic Church. Because every life is a gift from God and is sacred, it deserves to be protected and nurtured; we each have a responsibility to fight against the violation and degradation of our brothers and sisters. For more information visit www.usccb.org/topics/anti-trafficking-program.

O St. Bakhita, assist all those who are entrapped in a state of slavery; Intercede with God on their behalf so that they will be released from their chains of captivity. Those whom man enslaves, let God set free. Amen. USCCB

GALA SILENT AUCTION – REQUEST FOR AUCTION ITEMS

As we prepare for the highly anticipated Annual Saint Patrick Gala on March 16, we are reaching out to our wonderfully generous parishioners to ask for your help in making this year's silent auction a resounding success. The silent auction has become a cherished highlight of our gala.

This year, we aim to elevate the silent auction experience with an array of captivating items. We are especially seeking donations such as:

- Tickets to professional sporting events
- The use of vacation rental properties or timeshares
- High-end items like jewelry, luxury goods, and unique experiences

If you have an item or service you would like to donate or wish to discuss ways you can support the silent auction, please contact Charlie Smith at 484-614-9391.

CALLING ALL MEN OF ST. PATRICK

Join us on Thursday, February 6, 2025

6:00 PM – 9:00 PM

St. Joseph Room

The Thursday Morning Men's Group is hosting an evening for ALL MEN on Thursday, February 6, 2025 in the St. Joseph Room from 6:00 PM - 9:00 PM. This time of fellowship will include refreshments and a presentation from guest speaker Matt Lozano, Associate Director of Heart & Father Ministries. Come, let's get to know one another. While there is no cost to attend, a FREE WILL offering will be collected to cover the night. To help us plan accordingly, please RSVP at <https://flow.page/300men>.

Can't make it but looking for a way to grow closer to Christ and meet other men striving to live the faith? Consider joining the Men's Group at St. Patrick. This group meets weekly on Thursday mornings at 6:15 AM in the Church Basement. Together the men explore Scripture passages for the upcoming Sunday and reflect on the joys and challenges of men to live a life of faith. This time of prayer and fellowship ends in time for those available to attend Mass at 7:30 AM. For questions contact Dan Pin at piano.pin42@gmail.com.

Women's Prayer/Bible Meeting two times a month for women in their 20's & 30's, single and married.

What are Blessed is She Studies? These small group studies are come as you are, no prep needed, and perfect for continuing to build and cultivate friendship with other Catholic women.

Blessed is She meetings are held at Farmer & Co. in Unionville on various Saturday mornings at 8:30AM. After an opening prayer, a short reflection is read weaving together Church teaching, Scripture, women's stories and two sets of questions. A discussion follows.

The next two meetings will be held on Saturday, February 8 & 22. Our current study is <https://blessedishe.net/products/rooted>. For more information, please contact Kate O'Reilly at 610-719-7113.

THE PRESENTATION OF THE LORD

“Who is the great king? The Lord Almighty- he is the great king!” Psalm 24:10

As we celebrate the Feast of the Presentation of the Lord; let’s reflect on this ritual that Jesus’ life was dedicated to serving God; Jesus is the fulfillment of God’s covenant with Israel and a light for all nations. We believe that God is with us and guides us along the way. Quietly pray for your elderly family members who have kept their faith throughout generations.

REACH MORE SMALL GROUPS ARE BACK THIS LENT!

“Even now, says the Lord, “return to me with all your heart.” Joel 2:12

Join your fellow parishioners as we come together to deepen our faith and build friendships through Small Group discussions.

Groups of 6-10 people meet weekly to pray, read Scripture, and discuss how it applies to you personally. Small Groups are about friends helping friends follow Jesus!

We are expecting a wonderful Lenten season filled with hope, joy, faith sharing, and friendship. Groups will begin meeting the week of March 2, 2025. They are open to adults of all ages and are offered in the morning, afternoon, and evening.

YOU ARE INVITED! Space is limited so sign up today using the card found in the pew, online through the parish website, or scan the QR code here. For more information, email Brian Eyre at eyre.brian.s@gmail.com or call Jen Keller at the Parish Office at 610.444.4364.

Catechesis of the Good Shepherd

Serving children ages 3-6

We proclaim the parable of the Mustard Seed (Matthew 13:31-32) as we continue to ponder the mysteries of the Kingdom of Heaven. We observed and held the tiny mustard seeds and marvel over how the tiny mustard seed can grow into a great big tree. We wondered how this tiny seed grows into such a large tree. God’s kingdom will continue to grow as long as we have faith.

We sang our “Kingdom of Heaven” song and as desired, children may trace the mustard seed packet or create artwork inspired by the parable.
