My Dear Parishioners,

Praised be Jesus Christ! In recent weeks, Bishops across the country – including our own -- have written Pastoral Letters to the faithful in their region. Bishop Conley of Lincoln, Nebraska wrote a letter in September entitled The Joy & Wonder of Catholic Education. With Catholic Schools Week now here, I share a commentary on that letter by Archbishop Chaput.

Peace, Fr. Rogers

Archbishop Chaput on Bishop Conley's newest pastoral letter

Your bishop and my friend, Bishop James Conley, has written a wonderful pastoral letter on Catholic education that reminds us that a good education must be intentional and directed toward the wonder of truth, beauty, and goodness. It is a letter that should be read widely by educators, pastors, parents, and all people entrusted with the care of young hearts and minds.

All the years I have known Bishop Conley, he has been a passionate advocate for quality education that is liberal in the traditional sense: an education that frees the student to receive the truth. This is a simple concept but one that has become increasingly difficult with the cacophony of distractions that demand our attention in this post-modern world.

The Joy and Wonder of Catholic Education reminds us that a genuine education is one that touches not just the intellect, but the imagination and heart. We are created for something more than facts or technical skills. We are created to know and love the source of creation, and that is only possible when the person opens up to those things which reveal to the soul the greatness for which each of us was created.

The idea of wonder seems to be lost on so much of education these days, even at times within Catholic schools, and yet there is no genuine education, especially Catholic education, without the spark of wonder. Children instinctively know there is something to which they are called that is greater than their experiences. This is why good stories capture their imaginations. They know there is a world outside of their limited knowledge and they want someone to lead them there. This is what a good education does: it leads us out of our ignorance and puts us in touch with the spark of the Creator. It enables the soul to sing. Anything less is a failure that eventually leads the soul to a mere shadow of its potential, and this in turn impacts the immediate and global community.

So many of today's societal problems can be traced back to a failure in education. Few people sense the wonder of what the world offers. Some entertainment eclipses wonder, and yet entertainment is a drug that quickly passes and leaves an empty space in the soul. What we need from education is a renewed sense of wonder; a renewed sense of the sacred that is at the heart of what it means to be human.

Bishop Conley's letter draws from the Holy See's Congregation for Catholic Education by identifying five marks of an authentically Catholic education: 1) inspired by a supernatural vision; 2) founded on Christian understanding of man and woman; 3) animated by communion and community; 4) imbued with a Catholic worldview throughout its curriculum; and 5) sustained by gospel witness.

All of these marks are given their due attention in Bishop Conley's pastoral letter with a simplicity that makes them accessible. A liberal education is not complicated, but it requires a deliberate focus that too often does not exist today.

Those who are in the field of education would do well to read *The Joy and Wonder of Catholic Education*, meditate on it, and discuss it among colleagues. More than ever, we need a conversation about the proper end of education. Without understanding where education should take students, it will be impossible to get there.

Bishop Conley does us a great service in reminding us of the purpose of education. We are made for wonder, which is a wonder that breathes life into the soul and gives our lives meaning and purpose beyond the mere functional. What a gift it would be if our schools could give to our students that wonder through which God enters the heart and gives it new life.

Winter Bible Study Now Forming

Lectio: Eucharist: Discovering the Mass in the Bible

Dates: February 4 – April 15, 2025 (10 weeks)

Tuesday Evening, 7:00 PM – 8:30 PM

Where: St. Joseph Room

Acclaimed author and teacher Dr. Brant Pitre digs down to the biblical roots of the Eucharist, through its foreshadowing in the miraculous events of the Old Testament, the Gospels, and Apostolic teaching.

"The Lamb of God," "The Bread of Life," "The Body and the Blood of Christ"... these are phrases we know from the Mass. But do we understand what they mean in the greater and deeper context of Scripture and Church teaching? We'll discover firsthand how Christ's Body and Blood are an integral and wondrous part of God's plan for our salvation.

This study from Ascension Press will be held for 10 weeks and will include a combination of video segments, group discussion, and prayer. It will begin on Tuesday, February 4 in the St. Joseph Room or on Zoom. You have the option to purchase the Individual Participant Workbook via Amazon for $24.95 at <https://qrco.de/bfgN4B>.

To register for this study or if you have further questions, please contact Ann Marie Gillinger at amgmag03@gmail.com. You may also register online through the Parish Website or Parish Flocknote.

SPIRITUAL ADOPTION MONTH FIVE

Thank you to our 60 parishioners who have pledged to pray daily for your spiritually adopted child and his/her parents. We are at the five-month mark of our spiritually adopted child's development in the womb.

His mother can feel him moving now as before he was too small for her to feel. We are mid-way through the pregnancy now. Your prayers have helped your baby's mother continue with her pregnancy and see the help she needs.*

Would you like to participate in St. Patrick Spiritual Adoption Initiative and receive monthly updates via Flocknote to include: A reminder to pray the Spiritual Adoption Daily Prayer; an update on your baby's developmental growth; and a word for prayerful reflection.

You may sign up anytime now through May using the pledge card found in the Narthex and place it in the basket next to the Expectant Madonna. You can also sign up online using the QR code found below. ### GALA SILENT AUCTION – REQUEST FOR AUCTION ITEMS

As we prepare for the highly anticipated Annual Saint Patrick Gala on March 16, we are reaching out to our wonderfully generous parishioners to ask for your help in making this year's silent auction a resounding success. The silent auction has become a cherished highlight of our gala.

This year, we aim to elevate the silent auction experience with an array of captivating items. We are especially seeking donations such as:

- Tickets to professional sporting events
- The use of vacation rental properties or timeshares

High-end items like jewelry, luxury goods, and unique experiences. These donations will enhance the appeal of our silent auction and significantly contribute to the funds raised for local nonprofits.

It is worth noting that while ticket sales cover essential gala expenses—such as venue rental, food, and entertainment—an impressive 80% of the funds allocated to nonprofit support come from silent auction sales. Your generosity is not just appreciated; it is crucial to our mission of making a lasting impact in the community.

In past years, we have been blessed with remarkable donations from local businesses and individuals, and we are deeply grateful for their kindness.

If you have an item or service you would like to donate or wish to discuss ways you can support the silent auction, please contact Charlie Smith at 484-614-9391.

Together, let us make this year's Saint Patrick Gala an unforgettable celebration of generosity, community, and faith—all while supporting those who need it most.

SAVE THE DATE-ST. PATRICK'S ANNUAL GALA-YOUNG & OLD-COME SHAKE, RATTLE & ROLL WITH ELVIS. SUNDAY, MARCH 16, MENDENHALL INN-1:30-6:00PM.

“The law of the Lord is perfect, refreshing the soul. The decree of the Lord is trustworthy, giving wisdom to the simple.”

Psalms 19:8

In today’s Gospel Jesus is the central figure of the Scripture. We are assured that now is the time when men may come to God, be delivered from their sins, and be redeemed. Jesus offers himself so that we can be free of things that lead us to sin. Quietly reflect on what is keeping you from following Jesus?

Family PREP-Sunday, January 26-Join us for family activities!

Reach More Small Groups Lent 2025 is Soon Here

St. Patrick’s Reach More Small Groups began in Lent of 2017 with approximately 60 parishioners. Eight years later we have certainly grown as Lent 2024 marked our highest season yet with 108 participants. WOW ST. PAT’S.....LET’S KEEP REACHING MORE!

Is your New Years resolution to focus on improving your health? What about your spiritual health? Consider focusing on your spiritual health this year and let our Small Groups help you on your journey!

Our Reach More Small Group Leaders are prayerfully preparing for the Lenten Season and invite YOU to join them! Whether you have never participated in a faith sharing group before or whether you been part of a group for years, Small Groups meet you wherever you are at in your faith journey.

What is a Small Group? Small group is a place to encounter Jesus. Groups of 6-10 people meet weekly to pray, read Scripture, and discuss how it applies to you personally. There are co-ed mixed, women, men, and couples groups. Small Groups are about friends helping friends follow Jesus!

Here is what your fellow parishioners are saying about being part of a Small Group:

- “It was an amazing experience. No matter what stage of life and where you are in relation to your faith journey, there is a place for you. The experience meets you where you are and purposefully moves you forward.”
- It is a great first step to get involved in the parish, to meet new people, and to come to know Jesus better.”
- “It not only brings us closer to God through scripture, but you get a chance to build long lasting friendships.”

Reach More Small Group Sign-Ups begin next weekend February 1 & 2. We hope that you will consider joining a group this Lent. Groups will begin meeting the week of March 2nd. For more information, email Brian Eyre: eyre.brian.s@gmail.com.

Catechesis of the
GOOD
SHEPHERD
“Let the little children come”
Matthew 19:14

Catechesis of the Good Shepherd

Serving children ages 3-6

While using the central figures of Mary, Joseph, baby Jesus, Simeon, and Anna from our diorama to help us think about the Gospel of Luke 2:22-38. We pondered the significance the presentation symbolizes. What did God tell Simeon? How did Simeon and Anna know the baby Jesus was so special?

Also, in the atrium the children made Rosaries and reflected on the Joyful Mysteries presented. As well as choosing items from the practical life area, such as pouring water, spooning beans, sorting beads, which form the child's confidence and abilities. This practice transfers over into Liturgical life, and therefore a greater focus may be applied as one lifts their hearts up to see God's Word come alive in Liturgical presentations.
