"The bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world." ~ John 6:51

Eucharistic Etiquette:
A weekly word about reverence for the Eucharist.

"They fell down and worshiped him...and offered him gifts: gold, frankincense and myrrh" (Mt 2:11-12). Here is the culmination of the whole journey: encounter becomes adoration; it blossoms into an act of faith and love which acknowledges in Jesus, born of Mary, the Son of God made man.

Pope Benedict XVI

My Dear Parishioners,

Praised Be Jesus Christ! On this Solemnity of Epiphany, when we remember the Three Kings and the Gifts they brought to the Lord, I want to express my thanks to all who made our Christmas Celebration so beautiful. The Gifts of your Time, Talent and Treasure made this year's Christmas special for many and such sacrifice does not go unnoticed. Particular Note of thanks to/for the following:

1) ALL who participated in the Giving Tree this year! This year, your gifts and gift cards filled many bags down-stairs and I'm sure filled many hearts with joy on Christmas. While this has become somewhat of a custom to collect gifts, it really is an act of Charity and a wonderful way of blessing. I was particularly moved this year, to see parents including their children in the act of selecting an ornament, purchasing and providing toys for those in need. Well Done!

2) Our Church Decorators! On the Friday before Christmas, our Church was quickly transformed into Christmas...with flowers, greens, wreathes and lights. Such décor is not just about decoration, but about beauty and beauty is about God. So many people expressed gratitude to me for the beautifully decorated Church. My gratitude to those who provided for it as I know it aided the worship of God! (Just imagine a Christmas without decorations!)

3) Our Ushers! I joked on Christmas Morning that our ushers had their face shields down and their swords out on Christmas Eve in an effort to control the crowds. While that wasn't exactly true, the crowds were thick for Christmas. I estimate 900 Christmas Eve and then another 1200 on Christmas Day. Whatever the numbers were, I'm very grateful that all was orderly, safe and no injury with such a large crowd. Special thanks to our ushers!

4) Finally, our liturgical crew of lectors, Extra-ordinary Ministers, Cantors, Choirs and Musicians. Our Liturgies of Christmas were celebrated very well. I'm grateful to all who not only showed up but prepared, worked hard and practiced well for the Celebration of Christ's Birth. Well Done!

The Celebration of Christmas is BIG and it comes and goes VERY QUICKLY. In fact, it is the shortest of all the Church Seasons. Next weekend, our Church decorations will be gone. While that may strike us as strange, it serves as a reminder that Jesus has a work to accomplish, a Mission to advance. And we are the recipients of that wonderful work. As we ready ourselves to hear and embrace that work in this New Year, let us continue to rejoice in Emmanuel, God-With-Us. Then grounded in His Embrace of Us, Baptized into Him and Made One with Him, we can day-by-day manifest Him outward in our way of Life.

Peace,

Fr. Rogers

CULTURE OF LIFE CORNER

WORD OF LIFE BULLETIN BRIEFS:

"Through the Incarnation and birth of Christ, God reveals to us the dignity of all human life. Human life, as a gift of God, is sacred and inviolable. The Son of God has united himself with every human being and desires for us to share eternal life with him... Each of us is made in the image and likeness of God, and we reflect his glory in the world."

FRIDAY, JANUARY 19, 2024, WASHINGTON, DC

Life is a precious gift from God!

The March for Life is an inspiring, peaceful, vibrant, and joy-filled rally of men, women, and young people, and children from all across the country. Every year, tens of thousands of pro-lifers converge on the National Mall and march on Capitol Hill. It is the largest annual human rights demonstration in the world. But this is not just a protest...TOGETHER, WE GATHER TO CELEBRATE LIFE!

Please join St. Patrick Church as we partner with Assumption BVM and Sacred Heart Parishes for a bus trip to Washington, D.C. for the 51st Annual March for Life. The motor coach bus will depart ABVM Church parking lot at 6:30 AM and return at approximately 7:00 PM. We will attend the Philadelphia Archdiocesan Mass at the Cathedral Basilica of the Immaculate Conception in Washington, D.C. We will then reboard the bus and travel to the National Mall for the Rally and March for Life. For more details about the March, please visit www.marchforlife.org. For questions or to sign up for the bus, please contact Jen Keller at 610-444-4364 or jenkellersp@gmail.com.

ST. PATRICK PARISH PILGRIM STATUE OF THE EXPECTANT MADONNA

Our Parish Pilgrim Statue of the Expectant Madonna continues her travels and recently made a stop at the home of Petra Young. She shared the following regarding the Expectant Madonna's visit:

"I welcomed the Expectant Madonna on the Third Sunday of Advent after much anticipation, to a prepared place which would be the focal point of her adoration for a week, relishing daily her presence during Advent. Prayerfully asking for her grace and motherly wisdom, to continue living a faith filled focused humanitarian life. How blessed I was this Christmas to have the honor of experiencing our Expectant Madonna's Joy!"

All parishioners and families are invited to welcome the Pilgrim Statue of the Expectant Madonna into your home for a one-week visit (Sunday to Sunday). She began her journey through the parish in October and currently has a home through the end of March 2024. Please consider welcoming Our Lady into your home. For more information and to sign up for your week, please see your weekly parish flocknote, visit the parish website, or contact Jen Keller at jenkellersp@gmail.com.

WHEN THEY SAW THAT THE STAR HAD STOPPED, THEY WERE OVERWHELMED WITH JOY. MATTHEW 2:10

The Magi sought the newborn king among rulers but found him in the vulnerable body of an infant. This could not be what they had expected to find, but they understood the power of God and were overwhelmed with joy. During the Epiphany, we are reminded that Jesus came for all the world's people. Silently in your heart consider a gift you can give to Jesus.

Serving children ages 3-6

Life in the atrium is steady, thoughtful, and peaceful

Children are given autonomy over what works they would like to do. These may include practical life, such as pouring water, spooning beans, sorting beads, which form the child's confidence and abilities. This practice transfers over into Liturgical life, and therefore a greater focus may be applied as one lifts their hearts up to see God's Word come alive in Liturgical presentations.

This month we focused on the Annunciation and Visitation, as we prepared our hearts for the coming of Jesus. We said the names of tiny baby Jesus-Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace-and we wondered about these names with hope in our heart.

Reach More Small Groups

Lent 2024 is Soon Here

Is your New Years resolution to focus on improving your health?

What about your spiritual health? Consider focusing on your spiritual health this year and let our Small Groups help you on your journey!

Our Reach More Small Group Leaders are prayerfully preparing for the Lenten Season and invite YOU to join them! Whether you have never participated in a faith sharing group before or whether you been part of a group for years, Small Groups meet you wherever you are at in your faith journey.

What is a Small Group? Small group is a place to encounter Jesus. Groups of 6-10 people meet weekly to pray, read Scripture, and discuss how it applies to you personally. There are co-ed mixed, women, men, and couples groups. Small Groups are about friends helping friends follow Jesus!

Here is what your fellow parishioners are saying about being part of a Small Group:

- "It was an amazing experience. No matter what stage of life and where you are in relation to your faith journey, there is a place for you. The experience meets you where you are and purposefully moves you forward."
- "It is a great first step to get involved in the parish, to meet new people, and to come to know Jesus better."
- "It not only brings us closer to God through scripture, but you get a chance to build long lasting friendships."
- Reach More Small Group Sign-Ups begin next weekend of January 13/14 and Small Group Leaders will be available this Sunday at Coffee & Donuts to answer your questions. We hope that you will consider joining a group this Lent. Groups will begin meeting the week of February 11. For more information, email Brian Eyre: eyre.brian.s@gmail.com.

THANK YOU TO OUR FAMILY PROMISE MINISTRY—"For I was hungry and you gave me food." Matthew 25:35

The Family Promise Ministry Team of St. Patrick fed Christ this Christmas by preparing a full Christmas dinner for the men of Good Samaritan House on Birch Street.

Good Samaritan Services of Kennett Square helps provide men experiencing homelessness and poverty to move from housing crisis to stability. There are currently 12 men participating in the program through the supportive housing on Birch Street.

On Christmas Eve a few Family Promise Elves made a visit to the home to provide a home cooked meal prepared by our parishioners. The meal included ham and turkey, mashed potatoes, sweet potatoes, stuffing, mac and cheese, multiple vegetables, desserts and much more! The gentlemen we met at the house were very appreciative and we are very grateful to all those who donated their time and cooking talents to make this possible.
