Eucharistic Etiquette:

A weekly word about reverence for the Eucharist.

St. Kateri Tekakwitha, the first Native American to be canonized by the Catholic Church, had a deep devotion to the Eucharist. Her familiar nickname is "Lily of the Mohawks," but because of her devotion, she also has been called "Princess of the Eucharist" and "Lily of the Eucharist."

My Dear Parishioners,

Praised Be Jesus Christ! Today, July 14, the Church in the United States remembers one of her own: St. Kateri Tekakwitha. This Native American girl who passed away at 24 years of age, continues to live, work miracles and inspire Christians on the Way. And so with the start of the Eucharistic Congress this week and in the light of St. Kateri, I share a word on the Eucharist as medicine, healing and strength.

Kateri Tekawitha knew her fair share of medicine growing up. As a native American, living amidst plaques and disease, she was familiar with the medicine men of her day who had plenty of rituals, potions and remedies for illness. Unfortunately, no medicine could heal the ailment of SMALLPOX which ravaged her community, took the life of her family and left her with severe scars on her face. Her name “Tekakwitha” was actually a nickname, “meaning the girl who pushes things”; Such was the effect of those facial scars which left her virtually blind, bumping into things.

While scarred by the effects of Smallpox, Kateri thrived in the Way of Life, she found and received through the Sacraments of the Church and the early Christians who proclaimed Jesus to her. She was baptized into Christ and fed on Him often in the Eucharist. Unlike the medicine men of her day, She found Jesus, her Savior, Lord, and on-going Friend – particularly in the Eucharist.

From the earliest days of the Church (Ignatius of Antioch) to our own days (Pope Francis), we find the Eucharist described as “medicine for immortality”. This reflects Jesus own words, “Unless you eat the flesh of the Son of man and drink his blood, you have no life in you; he who eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life and I will raise him on the last day.” (Jn.6, 53-54) The Eucharist is healing medicine; but it’s one that follows Baptism; medicine for those already united in Christ; medicine for on-going strength, healing and salvation. It’s the Way in which the Life of Christ, already in us, is nourished.

Recently, I met with someone who reported that he had lost the Life of God in him through Sin and had a great desire to be baptized again. That was actually, his request to me. I shared with them the beauty of our faith: that being baptized again happens through Confession and then thru Eucharist, the restored Life of Christ in us is strengthened. How beautiful, the Way of God for us and with us.

This week, as the Great Eucharistic Congress begins...let us thank God for what He has started and how it all continues through the Church and her Sacraments. God healing us, not with magic potions; God with us, not as a medicine Man. But rather, as Savior and Lord.

As we celebrate St. Kateri this week, ask her intercession; Ask for the grace of knowing Jesus as Savior and Lord and the on-going friend who sustains salvation in us. For more information on St. Kateri and this topic, join us this Wednesday after the 7PM Mass in the St. Joseph Room.

Peace,

Fr. Rogers

The Core Beliefs of our Catholic Faith – The Real Presence

Welcome to Week Five of our Growing in Faith video series about the Eucharist – the Real Presence of Jesus Christ. This is the final video in our series and is again from Fr. Mike Schmitz entitled “How the Eucharist Changed My Life.” In this short yet powerful video, Fr. Mike shares his personal turning point when he went from a “so-so” Catholic to fully believing in the Real Presence and he explains from the Bible what inspired that turn around. Before you start watching, consider getting out your Bible and turning to The Gospel of John, Chapter 6 so you can read along as he’s explaining the story. Not only was this Gospel message a turning point for Fr. Mike but also for many of Jesus’ followers. Be sure to scan the QR code below and set aside 9 minutes to soak in Fr. Mike’s message and let it be your turning point!

We hope that this short video series has imprinted the beauty of the gift of the Eucharist on your hearts. For it truly is the heart of our faith, our spiritual nourishment, the bread that we live for, and the teaching worth dying for.

“Truth will spring from the earth; justice will look down from heaven.”

Psalm 85:12

This week’s Gospel gives us a glimmer of the necessary qualifications to become a saint. The prophets of the Old Testament were chosen by God and the twelve apostles chosen by Jesus to go and preach the Good News, expel demons and heal the sick. Amos was a peaceful shepherd when God called him to prophesy in Israel. Like the apostles, these people had no letter of introduction or references. They were not selected by a voting process. They were just ordinary people who were called to spread God’s word and did what was asked of them because they loved God. Quietly reflect on how your ordinary work can make a difference on journey.
