My Dear Parishioners,
 Praised be Jesus Christ!

In the Fall of 2011, there was a change in the English translation of the Mass. It was at that time that we went from “And also with you” to “And with your spirit”. This change reflected a more careful translation of the original Latin text which quite frankly was already present in other languages. One of the more subtle but significant changes was a translation change in the Creed. We went from saying “seen and unseen” to “visible and invisible”. Now, there’s a big difference there. Seen/Unseen refer to what our senses can perceive, but which may be blocked from view. Visible/ Invisible refers to something very different For instance, when you’re at Church, your TV remains unseen because you’re away from it. It’s still visible, just not seen. But angels and heaven, these are realities that are not merely unseen, they are actually invisible! And we do believe in invisible things. Why? Because God revealed them. He spoke of a Kingdom beyond this world, a Cloud of Witnesses, angels and so much more than what we now know! All of which God has prepared for us, His people, Alleluia! This is the foundation for Christian Hope! There is much more: Invisible realities that can be perceived by faith.

One such reality is the Eucharist which is the Sacrament of Faith. When I look at the Eucharist, I see bread. When I eat the Eucharist, I taste bread. When I hold the Eucharist, I feel bread. But it is NOT bread. It is the flesh and blood of Jesus Christ under the appearance of bread and wine. And this is not just what I believe, this is what the Church believes, teaches and has taught from the beginning. It’s a truth beyond the seen/unseen world; a reality that stretches into the visible and the invisible. Not unlike the divinity of Christ, his virginal birth and his resurrection! All of which the Church teaches, all of which are essential to the Faith, worthy of our “Amen” to if we are to be truly Christian.

Faith in the Eucharist involves an intellectual assent to what the Church teaches: That the Eucharist is not bread, a symbol, or even a holy object. It is Jesus, Himself. Faith in the Eucharist also involves a reverence for how we approach, treat and receive the Eucharist. These are two items that we need to affirm over and over again: right teaching and reverence. But faith in the Eucharist also involves trust. And that is a gift that is something that cannot be merely taught. Trust can only be invited.

As we celebrate CORPUS CHRISTI WEEKEND, as we begin this year-long parish based Eucharistic Revival, I ask for your trust. Trust in the Lord Jesus. Trust in the teachings of the Church. Trust in the Word of God. Trust in the faith of all who have gone before us. TRUST. This is the muscle that is necessary today; a muscle that has been weakened by sin, scandal, pride. It is the very muscle through which we actually receive grace most fully. TRUST. When I consecrate the Eucharist, pray before the Eucharist, carry the Eucharist to the sick or distribute the Eucharist, I trust in the Power and Word of God. I believe what the Church believes. It is not bread. It is Jesus. And that faith – trust, surrender, humility – heals me. I invite you to that same surrender. Jesus I trust in you.

Peace

Fr. Rogers

June 11, the Solemnity of the Body and Blood of Christ, marks the entrance into the second year of the National Eucharistic Revival-the Year of Parish Revival. The second phase will foster Eucharistic devotion at the parish level. As such, please join us in praying our Parish Prayer for Eucharistic Revival.

PARISH PRAYER FOR EUCHARISTIC REVIVAL

God, Our Father, we thank you for the Gift of Your Son, Jesus, who promised to stay with us always, until the end of the age.

Reawaken our faith in His real and living presence here in the Most Holy Eucharist. Enkindle our wonder and allow our hearts to burn within us as we hear His Word and celebrate this Mass.

May our worship purify our eyes and heart to recognize His presence in our brothers and sisters, especially in the faces of the poor and those most in need.

And nourished by the Eucharist, may we go forth with right faith, certain hope and more perfect love to proclaim the Gospel to every heart, extending Your kingdom to every land.

We ask this through Christ our Lord. AMEN.

CULTURE OF LIFE CORNER

A Spiritual Bouquet to St. Joseph, Patron of Fathers

Fatherhood has its origins in God, who chose to reveal Himself to us as Our Father, sending his only Son for the sake of our salvation. Fathers therefore have a special role, “in revealing and in reliving on earth the very fatherhood of God” (Familiaris consortio 25)

All men are called to the vocation of spiritual fatherhood; some are also called to live this out as fathers of biological, adopted, or foster children. While not a liturgical observance, Father’s Day provides a wonderful opportunity to recall the essential role of fathers in the life of the family and in building a culture of life. It is also an opportunity to highlight the spiritual fatherhood of godparents, priests, deacons, uncles, and other men who often serve as fathers in important ways within extended family, parish communities, or individuals’ lives. Indeed, the role of father “is of unique and irreplaceable importance” (FC 25). As such, Father’s Day affords us the perfect moment to pray for all fathers including those facing an unexpected pregnancy, those struggling with infertility, those who have lost children, and those who have lost their own fathers.

St. Joseph, himself, was unexpectedly called to both practical and spiritual fatherhood, and amid very difficult circumstances. But despite all obstacles, Joseph was faithful. He welcomed life of the Christ Child, offering care and protection to Mary and Jesus. As a Church community, we need to encourage and support men to follow the example of St. Joseph and embrace their various roles as father.

A Spiritual Bouquet is individual prayers and acts of devotion offered up on someone’s behalf. This Father’s Day we invite you to lift up the many intentions laid on your heart to the intercession of St. Joseph, Patron of Fathers, while also honoring him, and giving him thanks for his fatherly love and care. Each individual act is like a spiritual flower that when gathered with other acts and prayers becomes a “bouquet.”

When you come to Church next weekend, you will find intention cards in the pews. After all Masses, the Respect Life Ministry invites you to spend some time with St. Joseph - write down your prayer intentions and then place them in the basket that will be in front of the St. Joseph statue. We hope this spiritual bouquet provides an opportunity to pray for the intentions brought to your heart by Father’s Day. This offering will remain throughout the month of June serving as a visual remembrance of the important vocation of fatherhood and the gift of life. Let us all cherish the gift of life we receive from our fathers and entrust all men to whom God gives life to the protection and care of St. Joseph.

St. Joseph, Pray for Us!

Yours In Christ,

St. Patrick’s Respect Life Ministry

He took bread, said the blessing, broke it and gave it to them, and said,

“Take it; this is my body”

Mark 14:22

Today we celebrate the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body & Blood of Christ, (Corpus Christi), We celebrate Jesus is fully present in the Body and Blood of the Eucharist we receive at Mass. After Mass, we carry Christ into the world. This week the readings will focus on Jesus’ miracles. Miracles are events that seem unexplainable. Miracles happen due to God’s grace and mercy, though we may not understand how or why. Quietly reflect on how the Eucharist fills and transforms every part of our lives. What miracle have you experienced?

Catechesis of the GOOD SHEPHERD "Let the little children come" Matthew 19:14

We Are Called by Name

Catechesis of the Good Shepherd

Catechesis of the Good Shepherd (CGS) is a program founded on the teachings and philosophy of Maria Montessori for children ages of 3-6. The atrium, which is central to the program, offers the place and time for the children to be who they are and hear God’s voice and work independently.

As you are cleaning up this summer, you can help build our atrium by donating natural colored place mats, clothespins (natural wood or colored wood), old dish cloths, small severing tongs, or pom-pom balls.
