"The bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world." ~ John 6:51

Eucharistic Etiquette:

A weekly word about reverence for the Eucharist.

This week, we celebrate the Feast of St. Aloysius Gonzaga. In 1580 he received First Holy Communion from St. Charles Borromeo. This inspired in him a lasting devotion to the Holy Eucharist. This week, pray for all those who shared the Eucharist with you.

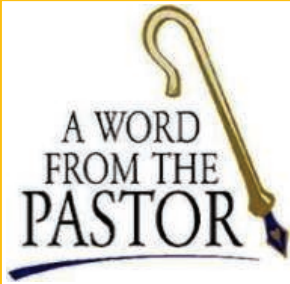

All praise and glory is yours, Lord our God, for You have called us to serve You in love. Bless our sick:

Praised be Jesus Christ! A Happy Father's Day Weekend to all our pops and dads. You are loved, valued and remembered in all the Masses this weekend and throughout this month.

IT'S ALL ABOUT THE FATHER.

Pope John Paul has been quoted as saying, "All of the spiritual life is a pilgrimage to the heart of the Father."

Certainly, it can be said of the Life of Christ Himself that it was "all about the Father". Jesus revealed God the Father to us through His perfect Love.

Father Dave Pivonka writes:

It should pain all of us to say that the present crisis of fathers and fatherhood has become a truism. The fact that everyone knows there's a problem, that this problem has far-reaching effects, and that so few have any solutions, is troubling indeed. It shouldn't surprise us to see, then, that as the crisis of fathers increases, so, too, does a crisis of faith in God as Father.

I am one of the lucky ones. My dad was as good a dad as anyone could ask for. Although he had a busy occupation as a doctor, he was present when he could be and longed to be present when he couldn't, and we knew that. He was my first spiritual leader as well; I remember walking into the hospital chapel as a young boy and seeing him in the front pew on his knees, which to this day shapes my own fatherhood as a priest in profound ways.

But that doesn't mean he was perfect. There is no such thing as a perfect earthly father — a fact that some know and experience more deeply than others. These imperfections, however, are not a reason to abandon fatherhood or lose hope in this most fundamental and irreplaceable relationship. Our identity, what we are and who we are, needs a point of reference, and in this, fathers play the biggest role.

This isn't just true of fathers, but the Father as well. St. Paul writes to the Romans that we are "children of God," having received a "spirit of adoption, through which we cry, 'Abba, Father!'" This, too, has become a truism, but it is incumbent upon all Christians to remember that this idea is a radically unique Christian claim.

God is not merely a good idea, nor is he a far-off deity seated on a throne shooting lightning from his fingertips. He is Father. He is close. He sees "in secret" (Matthew 6:4), not to catch his children in wrongdoing, but rather with the gaze of love. He is tender and stable, and before him, our identity is solidified. As St. Francis said, "I am who I am in the eyes of God, nothing more and nothing less."

For better or worse, who God is as Father is learned first and foremost in the home from an earthly father. Tragically, many take to heart that God the Father is as absent as their own father, and the road to true faith is unpaved and overgrown and, in many ways, heart-wrenching. However, even the greatest of fathers can unintentionally leave wounds that, in the Providence of God, give the Father an opportunity to heal and reveal his love through the Holy Spirit.

On this Father's Day weekend, as we see, honor and salute our own Fathers, let us draw near and not fear the fact that God the Eternal Father Sees, Honors and salutes us. In fact, He loves us. And that is a VERY Great Gift, it's the Gift of Salvation!

Peace,
Fr. Rogers

A FATHER'S DAY BLESSING

Blessed is the father who lets the Lord be his guiding hand, whose faith brings his family courage, whose wisdom comes from God, and whose children still stand and honor him.

CULTURE OF LIFE CORNER

WORD OF LIFE – Weekly Quote:

“Through our prayers and through the intercession of St. Joseph, patron of fathers, may fathers come to know the irreplaceable role they hold in the lives of their children, and the responsibility they share in welcoming God’s gift of new life!”

Most Reverend Shelton J. Fabre, Bishop of Houma-Thibodaux
“Fathers’ Irreplaceable Role in Welcoming Life”

To read in its entirety, visit www.usccb.org/prolife/fathers-irreplaceable-role-welcoming-life

After all Masses this Father’s Day weekend, please join us in offering a spiritual bouquet to St. Joseph, Patron of Fathers. We hope this spiritual bouquet provides an opportunity to pray for the intentions brought to your heart by Father’s Day.

A Spiritual Bouquet is individual prayers and acts of devotion offered up on someone’s behalf. This month the Respect Life Ministry invites you to lift up the many intentions laid on your heart to the intercession of St. Joseph, while also honoring him, and giving him thanks for his fatherly love and care. Each individual act is like a spiritual flower that when gathered with other acts and prayers becomes a “bouquet.”

To participate, intention cards may be found in the pews. After Mass, you are invited to spend some time with St. Joseph - write down your prayer intentions and then place them in the basket that will be in front of the St. Joseph statue. This offering will remain throughout the month of June serving as a visual remembrance of the important vocation of fatherhood and the gift of life. Let us all cherish the gift of life we receive from our fathers and entrust all men to whom God gives life to the protection and care of St. Joseph.

St. Joseph, Pray for Us!
Yours In Christ,
St. Patrick’s Respect Life Ministry

Together we collected 1,618 pounds of life-sustaining food to help KACS help our neighbors.

WAY TO GO ST. PATRICK’S! JOB WELL DONE!

“This shows that the Lord is just, that there is no wrong in my protector.”

Psalm 92:15

Jesus often used imagery from everyday life to teach his disciples and others about the Kingdom of God. This week in Mark’s Gospel we see a farmer sows seeds and then has no control over the growth until harvest time. Since many of Jesus’ friend’s livelihood required them to live off the land, they were able to relate to this parable. They understood that the smallest seed had the potential to grow into a magnificent creation. Quietly reflect on who was the person that planted the seed for you to believe in God. What helps a small amount of faith grow into a lifetime of serving God?

Pilgrimage to Shrine of Our Lady of Guadalupe

My name is Tony Basilio and late last year, I had the very good fortune to be invited on a pilgrimage to visit the Shrine of Our Lady of Guadalupe in Mexico City. That visit was a life altering event. I would like to share that event with you. I am organizing a pilgrimage to the shrine for St Patrick Parish. The dates for the trip are November 6 – 13, 2024. The cost is $1,700 which includes ground transportation in Mexico, (Please note: airfare is NOT included) a full time bilingual Mexican guide, room accommodations, most meals, visits to at least 8 holy sites and three other tourist attractions and daily Mass. There will also be time for shopping at a very favorable exchange rate. If you are interested or have any questions, please don't hesitate to contact me at tbasilio@verizon.net or on my mobile phone (302) 218-0954.

Practical life centers in the atrium helps the child build a sense of purpose but intertwines with some of our liturgical work. Order, concentration, coordination and independence are consistently the direct aim of the activities in practical life.

Donations help build the atrium and are greatly appreciated. As you clean out closets this summer, we are looking for natural colored place mats, small severing tongs, cloth napkins & rings, small water pitchers& vases and child size aprons. If you are looking to recycle old crayons, colored pencils or children’s scissors, please consider donating them to us.

The Core Beliefs of our Catholic Faith – The Real Presence

A 2019 Pew Research Center survey found that most Catholics do not believe that the bread and wine used for Communion become the actual body and blood of Jesus Christ. In fact, just one-third of U.S. Catholics believe in the Real Presence - that Jesus Christ is truly present, Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity in the Holy Eucharist after the words of Consecration are pronounced. The Catholic Church teaches that "the Eucharist is 'the source and summit of the Christian life.'" Why then do so many Catholics not believe? Watch this short video from Bishop Barron on Catholics Misunderstanding the Eucharist. Next week we will share more from Bishop Barron on the Real Presence of Christ in the Eucharist.
