"The bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world." ~ John 6:51

Eucharistic Etiquette:

A weekly word about reverence for the Eucharist.

In speaking with a friend about the Eucharist, American Author Flannery O'Connor said the following: "Well if it's a symbol, to hell with it. That was all the defense I was capable of. But I realize now that this is all I will be able to say about it outside of story except that it is the center of existence for me, all the rest of life is expendable."

All praise and glory is yours, Lord our God, for You have called us to serve You in love. Bless our sick:

Rosa Maria Santos, Thomas Layug, Steven Mangini, John Pellegrino, Thomas Kelleher, Diane Jones, Giovanna Sankus, Frankie Knowles, Richard Reynolds, Marc Palfy, Joshua Brown, Maria Rowe, William Morey, Eufemia Ortega Milagros, Ada Maldonado, Bryan Pudelka, Miles Kennedy, Diane Stansberry, Diane & Jeff Jones, Ana Teresa Encarnacion, Robert "Mack" Marc-Aurele, Pamela Maldonado, Mary Anne Proch, Aaron Pogue, Susan Walker, Beth Stingel, Kathi Lafferty, Tom Lafferty, Barry Fragale, David Brice, John Whiteman, Jim Feiler, Dianne & Anthony Smith, Shannon Quinn, Florence Ciliberti, Clint Norris III, Samantha Brown, Mary Ellen Rorke Ventrella, Diane Jones, Janice DiGennaro, Ellen Rendel, Chris Baker, Linda Harris, Millie Basile, Vira Smith, Bob McCaffrey, Ed Homa, Chris Santos, Alan Hobbs, Jeff Hammaker, Karen Amato, Jessica Moorhead, Carmen Rossini, Joe Posse, Maria Ireson, Karen Neyerson, Dure Gantz, Brent London, J. A. Shiner, Kaia Rae Watson-Seery, Tony Brown, Joan Ricevuto, Tracy Conway, Thomas O'Neil, Lucy Carroll, Randy Myers that they bear this illness in union with Your Son's obedient suffering, restore them to health, and lead them to glory. Amen.

Names on the prayer list will remain for two months. Please contact the office to add, renew or remove a name.

My Dear Parishioners,

Greetings to you and Praised be Jesus Christ! Having celebrated 7 weeks of Easter and the major Sunday Solemnities that followed, today we are back to wearing the green of Ordinary Time. We'll be wearing it now until Advent which begins in November. Ordinary Time is a 34 week season that can serve as a great reminder to us of God's Life, our walk with Him and the nature of that walk.

So a few pointers about those things:

- 1) It seems to me that as humans we celebrate well, that is to say we know how to party. On any given calendar, we find birthdays, anniversaries, holidays, vacations, dates/times that are different from the norm. Such dates dot our calendars and thank God for that. We need such things and the Church provides with Seasons, Feast Days and Memorials. All of which is good, we need things to look forward to.
- 2) With that said, if life is a mere jumping from one event to the next, one party to the next, than very often that is a problem. We need to be comfortable with the ordinary and this is often difficult. It requires a learning or wisdom. It requires a great deal of acceptance and patience with the day-to-day.

This is where the Ordinary Time of the Church can help us a lot. Consider the following points:

- 1) Most of our Lord's life was spent in the Ordinary. In fact, only 3 years of it are recorded in the Scripture. The other 30 years were spent hidden, we don't know what they consisted of. Simply that he lived the life of a son – a child, teenager, young adult, --- in Nazareth. And that alone is extraordinary. Think about it. God hidden, humble, quiet for 30 years in Nazareth.
- 2) The above fact makes the Ordinary Extraordinary. There was never a time when Jesus was not God. So all his activity from his time in the womb, to his time leaving home at 30 years old and everything in between became extraordinary, even sacred. Jesus in his divinity elevates humanity and human activity. So everything in life is sacred, even the ordinary.

The above facts are important to consider and a word that can help direct our thoughts, actions and time in living the Ordinary well is "NOURISHED". Ask yourself the question, "Am I nourished?", "How nourished am I?", "Am I receiving the graces, strength and love of God in my daily life?", "Or are those graces and love of God, not being received?", "Do I need to make some changes in my life in order to receive them.?" "What might those changes be?"

We know on a human level the serious disease of bulimia. It's an improper relationship with food which flows from a disordered relationship with self and others. It uses food not for nourishment but in a harmful, disordered way so much so that the body does not receive properly. Christians run the risk of "Spiritual Bulimia" in our walk with God. In this Year 2 of the Eucharistic Revival: Pray on the reflection and word: Nourishment. Allow the Eucharist to nourish you in the ordinary ways. Peace, Father Rogers 236

Happy Father's Day

The righteous man walks in his integrity; His children are blessed after him.
PROVERBS 20:7

Last weekend, over 25 parishioners gave of their time and talent to assist the Kennett Senior Center's Yard Sale. Many thanks to the Ladies of St. Patrick and the Knights of Columbus for organizing our team of volunteers and to all our parishioners who represented the community of St. Patrick.

The Senior Center was very appreciative of our hard work, enthusiasm, and kindness. Way to go St. Patrick! Thanks for sharing the love of God and love of others in our community!

HAVE YOU EVER THOUGHT ABOUT TAKING THIS STEP? PERHAPS YOU...

- Have never been baptized but now you feel drawn to explore it
- Have been baptized in another Christian tradition, but now you want to continue your faith journey in the Catholic Church
- Have been baptized in the Catholic Church, but never received the sacraments of Eucharist and/or Confirmation

If any of these describe you, or someone you know, we invite you to take the next step to learn how St. Patrick can be part of your faith journey. Please call the Parish Office at 610-444-4364 if you wish to learn more.

CULTURE OF LIFE CORNER

WORD OF LIFE – Weekly Quote:

“Through our prayers and through the intercession of St. Joseph, patron of fathers, may fathers come to know the irreplaceable role they hold in the lives of their children, and the responsibility they share in welcoming God’s gift of new life!”

Most Reverend Shelton J. Fabre, Bishop of Houma-Thibodaux
“Fathers’ Irreplaceable Role in Welcoming Life”

To read in its entirety, visit www.usccb.org/prolife/fathers-irreplaceable-role-welcoming-life

After all Masses this Father’s Day weekend, please join us in offering a spiritual bouquet to St. Joseph, Patron of Fathers. We hope this spiritual bouquet provides an opportunity to pray for the intentions brought to your heart by Father’s Day.

A Spiritual Bouquet is individual prayers and acts of devotion offered up on someone’s behalf. This month the Respect Life Ministry invites you to lift up the many intentions laid on your heart to the intercession of St. Joseph, while also honoring him, and giving him thanks for his fatherly love and care. Each individual act is like a spiritual flower that when gathered with other acts and prayers becomes a “bouquet.”

To participate, intention cards may be found in the pews. After Mass, you are invited to spend some time with St. Joseph - write down your prayer intentions and then place them in the basket that will be in front of the St. Joseph statue. This offering will remain throughout the month of June serving as a visual remembrance of the important vocation of fatherhood and the gift of life. Let us all cherish the gift of life we receive from our fathers and entrust all men to whom God gives life to the protection and care of St. Joseph.

St. Joseph, Pray for Us!

Yours In Christ,
St. Patrick’s Respect Life Ministry

The Lord speaks of peace to his people. Psalm 85:8

Jesus preached, taught, and healed many people during his ministry. Many people followed him hoping to be healed. Jesus felt compassion for the crowds of people waiting to see him. He called on his disciples to help heal in his name.

Being a disciple means to continue the mission of Jesus to bring people to God. Quietly reflect on the meaning of being a disciple. How do you see yourself as a disciple?

Catechesis of the GOOD SHEPHERD
'Let the little children come'
Matthew 19:14

We Are Called by Name
Catechesis of the Good Shepherd

When the children are in the atrium they will work on practical life centers, such as flower arranging and water pouring. These works not only help the child build a sense of purpose but intertwines with some of our liturgical work. Water pouring is a prerequisite for working with the water & wine in crucibles like the child sees the priest do at mass. Flower arranging allows the child to give glory to God by intentionally placing their design on the prayer table, near Mary, or a favorite work.

Thank you to all that have donated the requested items thus far. Your help is greatly appreciated as we build our atrium. As you continue to clean out closets, we are still looking for natural colored place mats, small severing tongs, cloth napkins & rings, small water pitchers and child size aprons.

CONFESSION & RECEIVING GOD'S MERCY

Through the Holy Spirit and the grace of baptism, we are beloved sons and daughters of the Father in Jesus. But our sins have affected this relationship and we often live separated from God. God is always seeking us. He even sent His Son Jesus, not to condemn the world, but to give His life to redeem it. (John 3:16) May we allow Jesus to find us, and may we receive His mercy.

Confession is our invitation to reject the isolation of sin and receive God's perfect love, which casts out all fear (1 John 4:19). Choose now to accept the Father's merciful embrace and live in communion with Jesus, who makes all things new (Rev. 21:5).

There is now an additional invitation for the Sacrament of Reconciliation at St. Patrick Church.

NEW CONFESSION SCHEDULE

Wednesdays from 6:00PM-6:45PM

Saturdays from 3:30PM-4:30PM
