My Dear Parishioners,

Praised be Jesus Christ! Thanks to all who attended our St. John the Baptist Bonfire last week; it was great to bring that ancient tradition here! Each year as the 4th of July week approaches, I commend for your reading, Eric Metaxas' 2016 best-seller: IF YOU CAN KEEP IT. It's my favorite book on American Liberty because it defines what Liberty is and makes clear that Liberty works so long as we keep it. And to keep liberty is to be about virtue. Apart from virtue, liberty fails quickly.

As Christians, we recognize this duty to “keep” virtue but we know too that we are kept by virtue. Long before we were “good”, God was; He loved us first. This is the foundation of faith, our response to Him! How beautiful and important to note this, all that God has done: His providence, His Hand.

Five years ago, Michael Medved wrote a great book about this: God's Hand on America: Divine Providence in the Modern Era. It's a fascinating read of American history and how God has kept us. I commend it to you for your summer reading and share a tidbit of History that some think reveals God's Hand!

Peace,

Fr. Rogers

It is a fact of American history that three Founding Father Presidents—John Adams, Thomas Jefferson, and James Monroe—died on July 4, the Independence Day anniversary. But was it just a coincidence?

On July 4, 1831, James Monroe, the fifth President, died at the age of 73 at his son-in-law's home in New York City. Monroe had been ill for some time and newspapers had reported on Monroe's illness before his passing. Local and national newspapers were also quick to report after Monroe's death that they thought his July 4 passing was a “remarkable” coincidence, at the least, since Thomas Jefferson and John Adams had both also died on July 4, 1826 – the 50th anniversary of the Declaration of Independence.

The oddness of the events wasn't lost on the New York Evening Post in 1831, when the newspaper founded by Alexander Hamilton called it a “coincidence that has no parallel”: “Three of the four presidents who have left the scene of their usefulness and glory expired on the anniversary of the national birthday, a day which of all others, had it been permitted them to choose [they] would probably had selected for the termination of their careers,” the Post reported on July 5, 1831.

The New York Commercial Advertiser wrote on July 5, 1831: “It would be difficult to find a parallel in history, three of them have been called away in a good all age, on the same proud anniversary.”

And then the Boston Traveler wondered about the coincidence on July 8. “Again our national anniversary has been marked by one of those events, which it may be scarcely permitted to ascribe the chance.”

Then the Frederick, Maryland Town Herald marked Monroe's passing on July 9, 1831 by also noting the “presidential coincidence”: “This have three of our revolutionary presidents departed this life on the anniversary of our independence; presenting the most remarkable tissue of coincidences that have marked the history of nations,” the newspaper said.

Back in 1826, Daniel Webster's eulogy for Adams and Jefferson spoke to a point that many people believed: that something other than coincidence was involved.

“The concurrence of their death on the anniversary of Independence has naturally awakened stronger emotions,” Webster said. “It cannot but seem striking and extraordinary, that these two should live to see the fiftieth year from the date of that act, that they should complete that year, and that then, on the day which had fast linked forever their own fame with their country's glory, the heavens should open to receive them both at once.”

“As their lives themselves were the gifts of Providence, who is not willing to recognize in their happy termination, as well as in their long continuance, proofs that our country and its benefactors are objects of His care?”

HELPER OF GOD’S PRECIOUS INFANTS Saturday, July 6, 2024

- A Catholic Devotion that includes Mass and Rosary Procession to Planned Parenthood on the First Saturday of the month at St. Agnes Church, West Chester

Saturday, July 6, 2024
8:00 AM Mass with Rev. Alessandro Giardini
St. Agnes Church, 234 W. Gay Street, West Chester

All are welcome to be a Helper of God’s Precious Infants! Join us at 8:00 AM at St. Agnes Church for the celebration of Mass followed by a Rosary Procession to Planned Parenthood.

Thank you to all who helped us celebrate St. John the Baptist’s birthday this past Monday, June 24.

It was a beautiful night for a bonfire and to share the love of God with one another.

St. John the Baptist, Pray for Us!

Our Parish Pilgrim Statue of the Expectant Madonna is extending her Summer vacation into the homes of our parish family and enjoyed an extended stay at the home of Ann Marie & Bob Gillinger. Ann Marie shared the following regarding the Expectant Madonna’s visit:

“I was so glad to have the Expectant Mother statue for a few weeks. She was placed on a shelf in our kitchen which is the most active place in our home. There was a sense of peace simply in her presence. I hope many families will take the opportunity to welcome this statue into their home and see what fruit she brings through her intercession.”

All parishioners and families are invited to welcome the Pilgrim Statue of the Expectant Madonna into your home for a one-week visit (Sunday to Sunday). She began her journey through the parish in October and has shared her love and grace with 37 homes thus far. Consider opening your home this Summer to Our Lady! For more information and to sign up for your week, please see your weekly parish flocknote, visit the parish website, or contact Jen Keller at jenkellersp@gmail.com.

A heartfelt thanks to all who participated in our Spiritual Bouquet to St. Joseph during this month of June. This offering has served as a visual reminder of the important vocation of fatherhood and the powerful intercession of St. Joseph, Foster Father of Jesus and Defender of Life. While our bouquet will come down later this week, may you find comfort and peace knowing that the intentions have been imprinted on the heart of St. Joseph who always intercedes for us. St. Joseph, Pray for Us!

I felt secure and said to myself, "I will never be defeated." Psalm 30:6

Today's Gospel challenges us to expand our vision of God's love for us in times of personal difficulties and to strengthen our faith in him. As a young child puts their trust in a parent to be there to care for them, we put our trust in God. An example is the synagogue leader and the woman in today's readings. Quietly reflect on Jesus and how he handled his pains and fears. Was he angry, depressed, or resentful? No, Jesus turned to his Father and said "Not my will but yours." Always remember that God's love for you is immeasurable.

The Core Beliefs of our Catholic Faith – The Real Presence

Welcome to Week 3 of our Growing in Faith video series about the Eucharist – the Real Presence of Jesus Christ. If you have been following along, Father Mike Schmitz's short video entitled "The Shocking Reality of the Eucharist" is an excellent follow up to Bishop Barron's Eucharistic videos of the past two weeks. In this video, Father Mike discusses the greatest gift from God – Himself. What does it actually mean to "eat Jesus' body" and "drink His blood?" Father Mike illuminates this greatest miracle of the Church – a miracle that we participate in every time we attend Mass.

For more about "The Shocking Reality of the Eucharist", please scan the QR code and watch this 8.5 minute video from Father Mike.
