My Dear Parishioners,

Praised be Jesus Christ! One of my favorite poems referencing the Trinity is Holy Sonnet 14 written by the English poet, John Donne. It's a poem found in the back of the Roman Catholic Breviary and it's worth reading. On this Trinity Sunday, I share it with you here in all its realness and rawness and ask you to pray with it this week. But first, a brief word about the author, John Donne, and his times.

Donne was born into a Catholic family, at a time when Anti-Catholicism in England was very high (1572). His father died when he was four years old and his mother, Elizabeth, who was a great-niece of the martyr Sir Thomas More and a sister of a Catholic priest, certainly had her hands full. Donne was a bright young man but because of his Catholic Faith and his refusal to take the Oath of Supremacy, he was not permitted to graduate Oxford or Cambridge Universities. As a boy, he was a witness to the martyrdom and torture of Catholics and this influenced him in dramatic ways. He knew the seriousness of faith and throughout his life he took it seriously. This is displayed in his writings. As an adult, John Donne left the Catholic Church, became an Anglican Priest. He was a member of the Parliament, a husband, father of 12 children and one of England's most renowned religious poets.

In Holy Sonnet 14, the language is powerful and forceful. Certainly, it's reflective of Donne's times and self-knowledge. As I read it, I find its language to be a great gift; a refreshing antidote to the malaise, flatness and sterility that our world makes of religion. In Donne's time, there was nothing flat and sterile about religion and certainly, there is nothing flat and sterile about the Trinity. Thanks be to God!

As we celebrate God, the Most Holy Trinity, may praying this poem, awaken in you what needs awakening, the Truth of who God is! And May that Living Good grant a new Zeal, Zest and Desire for all that is true!

Batter my heart, three-person'd God, for you
As yet but knock, breathe, shine, and seek to mend;
That I may rise and stand, o'erthrow me, and bend
Your force to break, blow, burn, and make me new.
I, like an usurp'd town to another due,
Labour to admit you, but oh, to no end;
Reason, your viceroy in me, me should defend,
But is captiv'd, and proves weak or untrue.
Yet dearly I love you, and would be lov'd fain,
But am betroth'd unto your enemy;
Divorce me, untie or break that knot again,
Take me to you, imprison me, for I,
Except you enthrall me, never shall be free,
Nor ever chaste, except you ravish me.

Peace , Fr. Rogers

THANK YOU...

for making a Mother’s Day

On behalf of those who rely on Birthright services, many thanks to those who donated to our May Diaper Drive and for helping mothers in need. Every offer of support helps Birthright continue to provide free, loving, confidential and non-judgmental support to the women and families they serve. For more information about Birthright, visit www.birthright.org.

Birthright is a tax-exempt, charitable organization that relies solely on private donations from supporters. As such, although our official diaper drive has concluded, our friends at Birthright continue to have a great need for baby items such as sippy cups, baby wipes, and diapers. If you would like to find out how you can help, please contact fellow parishioner Jim DiBrino at 484-678-7141.

Loving God, we thank you for all who graduate from grade school, high school and college this time of the year. You have blessed them during their years in school with wisdom, friendships, and skills. You continue to challenge them to make this world a better place because of their education.

Give them wisdom to spend their time and money wisely. Grant them success for their efforts at every turn and guide their feet to follow. In Jesus’ name. Amen

"I and the Father are one."

John 10:30

The Apostles were not only able to preach and share the Good News, but were granted the powers of forgiveness of sins and of healing by Jesus. Often it is a simple act of kindness that can make a difference to someone. This weekend we celebrate the Holy Trinity-God the Father, our Creator; Jesus the Son, our redeemer; and the Holy Spirit, the one who sustains us. Through our faith and discipleship God brings us into relationship with Jesus Christ, we are brought into a deeper relationship with God through the Holy Spirit. Quietly reflect on how God is your source of strength.

Catechesis of the Good Shepherd

In the atrium we continue to work on our practical life, such as flower arranging and water pouring. These works of the child are not only to build a sense of purpose, beauty and focus, but also intertwine with some of our liturgical work.

Water pouring is a prerequisite for working with the water and wine in crucibles like the child would see the priest do at Mass. Flower arranging allows the child to give glory to God by intentionally placing their design on the prayer table, by Mother Mary.

You can help build our Atrium for Catechesis of the Good Shepherd by donating any small baskets, natural colored place mats, old dish cloths, or child size tables.

PRAY FOR US!

THANK YOU TO OUR SUNDAY NIGHT ROSARY PRAYER WARRIORS!

A summer challenge to our Zoom Rosary Friends is to continue to say the Rosary at 7 PM on Sunday nights either independently, with your family, or invite a friend to be your Rosary prayer partner. If you receive Parish Flocknotes, you now can access all of Bishop Barron's recorded Rosary meditations that may assist in deepening your prayer experience. You can also find a pocket guide to the Rosary in the back of church. In the words of St. Frances de Sales, "The greatest method of praying is to pray the Rosary."
