Eucharistic Etiquette:

A weekly word about reverence for the Eucharist.

My sweetest Joy is to be in the presence of Jesus in the Holy Sacrament. I beg that when obliged to withdraw in body, I may leave my heart before the Holy Sacrament. How I would miss our Lord if He were to be away from me by His presence in the Blessed Sacrament!

Katharine Drexel

My Dear Parishioners,

Praised Be Jesus Christ! As we enter this 1st Full Week of March, we celebrate three significant moments in the Life of the Archdiocese of Philadelphia. Today, Sunday, March 3rd is the Feast of our own St. Katherine Drexel. This Thursday, March 7, our Archdiocese will gain three new auxiliary bishops; Finally, this Friday, our own parish will celebrate the Dedication of our new Narthex. A brief word on each of these moments.

- 1) St. Katherine Drexel: The Life of this heroic woman is worth knowing. Not only is she a local girl but she is a Saint, whose generosity, faith and love for God and Neighbor, reached great heights. Katherine spent the last years of her life in the infirmary at the Motherhouse in Bensalem prior to her death on March 3, 1955. I encourage you this week, to look up information about St. Katherine, watch a movie or video about her. Ask her intercession for our local Church.
- 2) Ordination of New Bishops: On December 8, 2023, it was announced that Pope Francis had appointed three priests to be auxiliary bishops of Philadelphia: Fr. Keith Chylinski, Fr. Christopher Cooke and Fr. Efen Esmilla. Each had already been a priest in the Archdiocese and each will now be ordained a Bishop on Thursday at the Cathedral in Philadelphia. From there, they will serve in a whole new role/capacity here in the local Church as Bishops, assisting the Archbishop with the work of the Archdiocese. The Ordination ceremony for a Bishop is worth watching and it will be livestreamed on the Archdiocese Website. Tune in for more details.
- 3) Dedication of our New Narthex: This Friday, exactly 10 months since we broke ground on our building project, we will dedicate the building, cut the ribbon and placing the cornerstone. All are welcome to join us at 11AM for a brief ceremony outside along Meredith Street. On hand will be various dignitaries, parishioners and so many who made the project possible. I invite you to take some time to be here on Friday for this historic moment. That day will also begin a NOVENA to ST PATRICK, which will conclude on the Vigil of his Feast Day, March 16th. At that Vigil Mass, Bishop John McIntyre will bless our Narthex. The words Gratitude and Praise seem to fall short of all that I want to say and yet those words are what fill me the most at this time. I'm filled with Gratitude and Praise! For now, please hold onto and pray the NOVENA PRAYER published in this week's bulletin & plan on praying this Prayer from Friday, March 8 to Saturday, March 16.

Finally, this Thursday marks the midpoint of Lent. Now might be a good time to make your Lenten Confession, examine and renew your walk with the Lord. His Mercy endures forever and how beautiful that it can be received. Don't wait till the end. Now is the Day of Salvation!

Peace,

Fr. Rogers

Be merciful to me, O God, because of your constant love.

Because of your great mercy wipe away my sins! Psalm 51:1

Thinking of Jesus losing his temper in the temple is an alarming thought but flipping those tables is to signify a new worship. His actions are a sign for all of us to cleanse our worship of the trappings of power or the performance of faith, to cling fast to the core of faith. Namely, to one special person-Jesus.

Silently in your heart reflect on the times you have been distracted from true worship. How can you root out the other thoughts that hold you back from true prayer and worship?

Once again, the children are introduced to a Mystery of the Kingdom of God Parables. At the prayer table, they hear the Parable of The Hidden Treasure proclaimed and have the opportunity to make art related to the imagery found in Matthew 13:44. As Sophia Cavaletti writes in her book, Religious Potential of the Child, "(This) parable makes us stop to marvel at the kingdom and the great happiness there...", and what a gift it is to observe the children's wonder and awe over this Kingdom of Heaven.

ADORATION OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT

MONDAYS FROM 8:00 AM – 7:00 PM

Consider joining the Adoration Team – Our Lord seeks your company!

Sometimes we can be intimidated to go to Adoration. It is not because we fear being with Jesus in prayer but rather we have never been taught what to do in an extended period of prayer. While visiting our Lord in Eucharistic Adoration, we can pray in a variety of different ways:

- Pray the Rosary
- Read the life of a saint. There are so many holy men and women who have had a great devotion to Our Lord in the Eucharist. A few to consider: St. Therese of Lisieux, St. Catherine of Siena, St. Francis of Assisi, St. Thomas Aquinas, Mother Teresa of Calcutta.
- Ask for forgiveness and intercede for others
- Sit quietly and just "be" in the presence of God. Think of a visit to the Blessed Sacrament as coming to see your best friend. Sit quietly and enjoy being in each other's company. Instead of talking to the Lord, try listening to what He wants to tell you.

Our Lord waits for each one of us in the Blessed Sacrament each Monday at Adoration. You are invited to stop in to the Church and spend some time with Him. We are always in need of Adorers who can either take a regular hour, or sub when needed. In particular, there is need for help at and 12:00 PM and 2:00 PM. If you are available at one of these hours and/or would like to be added to the Adoration team, please sign up using the QR code below or contact Angela Eyre at reachmorepatrick@gmail.com or at 484-753-4801.

The Core Beliefs of our Catholic Faith – The Real Presence

Father Mike Schmitz's short video "The Shocking Reality of the Eucharist" is an excellent follow up to Father's Barron's Eucharistic videos of the past two weeks. Father Mike discusses the greatest gift from God—himself. What does it actually mean to "eat Jesus' body" and "drink his blood"? Father Mike illuminates this greatest miracle of the church—a miracle we participate in every time we attend mass. Please take a moment out of your busy daily schedule to view this important 8.5 minute video.
