Eucharistic Etiquette:

A weekly word about reverence for the Eucharist.

The liturgy today invites us to rejoice because Easter, the day of Christ's victory over sin and death, is approaching. But where is the source of Christian joy to be found if not in the Eucharist, which Christ left us as spiritual Food while we are pilgrims on this earth?

My Dear Parishioners,

Praised be Jesus Christ! On this Laetare Sunday, the mid-point of Lent, a word on CHARITY. Charity certainly takes many forms but one of the oldest forms of charity is financial charity. That is, providing for others and as we know so often that involves finances.

This weekend, two opportunities to consider as Lent continues.

- 1) Cross Catholic Outreach: We are blessed to be hosting Fr. Victor Ibhwana, a priest representing Cross Catholic Outreach. This official Catholic ministry was founded to link parishes in the U.S. with priests, religious brothers and sisters, and laypeople working in Church missions overseas. Its programs span the Caribbean, Africa, Asia, and Central and South America. Donation envelopes will be provided. Please be generous and be sure to say hi after Mass. Brochures with a donation envelope will be provided if you wish to support this worthy Catholic ministry. For more information on Cross Catholic Outreach, please go to CrossCatholic.org/ outreach.
- 2) Catholic Charities Appeal: This appeal is the main source of income for the charitable work in the Archdiocese. That charitable work includes Social Services, Evangelization, Special Education, Retired and Infirm Priests. Please visit the Catholic Charities Appeal Website for more information. Please note that all monies collected for this stay in the Archdiocese of Philadelphia and are not affiliated with Catholic Charities USA. That is a separate work.

Peace,

Fr. Rogers

Did You Know? Laetare Sunday

by Joe Hines

On March 30th, we will celebrate the 4th Sunday of Lent, also known as Laetare Sunday. The entrance antiphon is taken from Isaiah 66:

“Rejoice, Jerusalem, and all who love her. Be joyful, all who were in mourning; exalt and be satisfied at her consoling breast.”

The first word of this passage – rejoice – sets the theme for Laetare Sunday. The word Laetare is Latin for “rejoice”. This celebration stands out in part because the priest and deacon wear rose colored vestments rather than the usual purple of Lent, similar to Gaudete Sunday in Advent.

The Church celebrates Laetare Sunday for a couple of reasons.

First, it provides a glimpse of the joy that awaits us at Easter, just before we enter the somber days of Passiontide. This celebration allows us to look past the looming passion and death of Jesus in order to focus on His resurrection on Easter Sunday. We should look for restrained rejoicing with a certain amount of sadness.

Second, since Laetare Sunday falls roughly in the middle of Lent, it serves as a sort of breaker during a season that is otherwise of a penitential character.

On Laetare Sunday, the Church and her people express hope and joy in the midst of Lenten fasts and penances. These signs of joy are intended to encourage the faithful in their course through the Lenten season.

CULTURE OF LIFE CORNER

WORD OF LIFE BULLETIN BRIEF

10 Ways to Support Her When She's Unexpectedly Expecting

As a mom who had my first baby in college, I know that as unexpected pregnancy can sometimes bring fear, shame, and doubt. Perhaps one of your friends has become pregnant unexpectedly. I encourage you to support her in her new journey of being a mother.

It's okay if you don't know the perfect words to say. Let her know you are there for her, and ask how you can support her. Assist her in lining up practical help. She may not feel she "deserves" to show happiness; reassure her it's okay (and good) to be happy. Your support might be the only support she receives. You can make a difference in her life. Will you?

WHAT ABOUT THOSE "EPISTLES" AT SUNDAY MASS?

At Sunday Mass we "get" the Gospels...and most often the homily is about the Gospel...we get that connection.

But what about those 2nd Scripture readings from the Epistles? What's with these 21 letters, mostly from St. Paul and a few from other authors? Where did they come from? How are we to understand them as guides for our spiritual growth? Join Fr. Connolly and your peers to find out.

FOURTH SUNDAY OF LENT

"The helpless call to him, and he answers;
he saves them from all their troubles."

Psalm 35:6

The story of the Prodigal Son continues to resonate with us today because it reminds us God's grace and no matter how far we stray God is ready to forgive us. God's love is unconditional and He is willing to welcome back those who have wandered away after making mistakes. This parable encourages individuals to recognize their own need for God's grace and to seek his forgiveness.

Catechesis of the GOOD SHEPHERD
"Let the little children come"
Matthew 19:14

Catechesis of the Good Shepherd
Serving children ages 3-6

We continue with Psalm 23 and added verse 3—"He gives me new strength, He guides me in the right path, as he has promised." We discussed how the Good Shepherd leads his sheep out of the sheepfold and guides them. He walks ahead of his sheep to defend them from danger.

We related his job as shepherd as a way to explain how much Jesus loves us and is by our side to help guide us.
