"The bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world." ~ John 6:51

Eucharistic Etiquette:
A weekly word about reverence for the Eucharist.

"There is no Holy Eucharist without the body and blood of Jesus Christ. And what is this body and blood of Jesus Christ but the resurrected Jesus! Jesus had certainly lost a tremendous amount of blood during his passion, and his body was badly mangled, but his physical life was restored to him-and gloriously so-by his resurrection. When we go to Mass, therefore, we go to the resurrection, and we receive the resurrected Christ-body, blood, soul and divinity." Tom Mulchay

The Sanctuary Candle will burn the week of April 1 for Deacon Jim Elliott requested by his wife, Marie.

All praise and glory is yours, Lord our God, for You have called us to serve You in love. Bless our sick:

My Dear Parishioners,

The Lord is Risen, He is Risen Indeed, ALLELUIA!

A Happy Easter to all of you. You've heard the expression that March comes in like a lion and out like a lamb. We'll on this last day of March, we rejoice in Jesus who is both the LION & the LAMB; and His great Victory which is our Salvation. I share with you this beautiful Easter Hymn which expresses the joy and truth of our Christian Faith. May that Joy and Truth – the empty tomb and the Risen Lord – fill our emptiness and heal our wounds.

Peace, Fr. Rogers

At the Lamb's high feast we sing
praise to our victorious King,
who hath washed us in the tide
flowing from His piercé side;
praise we Him whose love divine
gives His sacred blood for wine,
gives His body for the feast,
Christ the Victim, Christ the Priest.

Where the paschal blood is poured, death's dark angel sheathes his sword; Israel's hosts triumphant go through the wave that drowns the foe.
Praise we Christ, whose blood
was shed, Paschal Victim, Paschal Bread; with sincerity and love eat we manna from above.

Mighty Victim from the sky,
pow'rs of hell beneath Thee lie;
death is conquered in the fight,
Thou hast brought us life and light; hymns of glory and of praise, risen Lord, to Thee we raise; Holy Father, praise to Thee, with the Spirit, ever be.

Each year, on the Second Sunday of Easter, the Church celebrates the Sunday of Divine Mercy. In the 1930s, Jesus chose a humble Polish nun, St. Maria Faustina

Kowalska, to receive private revelations concerning His Divine Mercy that were recorded in her Diary. St. Faustina's Diary records 14 occasions when Jesus requested that a Feast of Mercy be observed. On May 5, 2000, five days after the canonization of St. Faustina, the Vatican decreed that the Second Sunday of Easter would henceforth be known as the Sunday of Divine Mercy.

WAYS TO CELEBRATE DIVINE MERCY

- Go to Communion on Divine Mercy Sunday.
- Go to Confession within 7 days of Divine Mercy Sunday.
- Trust in Jesus' Mercy and the graces that come from it.
- Be Merciful and Share God's Mercy with others.
- Perform acts of Mercy & Charity through deed, word, or prayer.
- Venerate the Divine Mercy Image in your home.
- Participate in the Parish Eucharistic Holy Hour on Divine Mercy Sunday.

EUCCHARISTIC HOLY HOUR FOR DIVINE MERCY, SUNDAY, APRIL 7, 2024

2:00PM-3:00PM

All are welcome to join together in prayer and adoration seeking God's mercy for ourselves and for our world. During this time, there will be a Recitation of the Chaplet of Divine Mercy. 236

The Core Beliefs of our Catholic Faith – The Real Presence

The last of the videos on The Real Presence is from Fr. Mike Schmitz. In it, Fr. Mike talks about his personal turning point when he went from a “so so” Catholic to fully believing in the Real Presence and he explains from the Bible what inspired that turn around. Before you start watching, consider getting out your Bible and turning to The Gospel of John, Chapter 6 so you can read along as he’s explaining the story. Not only was this Gospel message a turning point for Fr. Mike but also for many of Jesus’ followers. We hope this message is a turning point for you as well.

ST. PATRICK’S ELITE CLEANING TEAM

“Whatever you do, do from the heart, as for the Lord and not for others.” Col 3:23

Do you appreciate the sparkle of a clean house? Have you ever wondered, with all that goes on in our house of worship, how the area stays so clean? Have you ever used a broom or dust rag around your home? Congratulations! You have all the experience necessary to join St. Patrick’s Elite Cleaning Team!

Our mission is to make sure Our Lord’s house is always clean, attractive, and welcoming. We have a team of both men and women who dust and perform light cleaning every Thursday morning. Each team cleans once a month. As our Church building grows, so too does our need for some more helping hands. Anyone with a willing heart and desire to care for Our Lord’s home is most welcome! If interested in learning more, please call the Parish Office at 610-444-4364 and leave your name with Candy. We’ll be sure to get back to you and look forward to welcoming you to the team.

Alleluia, Alleluia! Jesus Christ is Risen!

Christ is risen! With Mary Magdalene, Peter and John, we wonder at the displaced stone and the discarded burial cloths. What a mystery. What a gift! ALLELUIA! We will continue to celebrate Christ's resurrection over the next fifty days.

St. Mother Teresa said, "We need to find God, and he cannot be found in noise and restlessness. God is the friend of silence. Take time to quiet yourself and listen to God's word."

Catechesis of the
GOOD SHEPHERD
"Let the little children come!"
Matthew 18:14

Catechesis of the Good Shepherd

Serving children ages 3-6

Alleluia! Christ has risen! Together, the children uncover their "buried Alleluias" and marvel over the gift that Jesus gave to us. We dress our prayer table in white along with songs for an Easter celebration.

As a reminder, the work of arranging flowers is a favorite in the atrium. Donating fresh cut flowers from your yard or local grocery store would be a special treasure for the children.

A Bible Walk Through the Mass

Dates: April 9 – May 7, 2024 (5 weeks)

Tuesday Evening, 7:00 PM – 8:30 PM

Where: St. Joseph Room

The Mass is nothing short of amazing. Through it, we encounter God in the most intimate way possible as we hear him speak to us in the Liturgy of the Word and as we receive him Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity in the Holy Eucharist. In his video-based study A Biblical Walk Through the Mass, Dr. Edward Sri explores the roots of the words and gestures we experience at Mass and explains their profound significance. This fascinating tour of the Mass will renew your faith and deepen your love for and devotion to the Holy Eucharist.

This study from Ascension Press will be held for 5 weeks and will include a combination of video segments, group discussion, and prayer. It will begin on Tuesday, April 9 at 7:00 PM in the St. Joseph Room or on Zoom. You have the option to purchase the book online for $14.99 at <https://qrco.de/betrHs>.

To register for this study or if you have further questions, please contact Ann Marie Gillinger at amgmag03@gmail.com. You may also register online through the Parish Website or Parish Flocknote.

"OUR INFANT CATHOLIC CHURCH"

30 A.D. - 300 A.D.

The "beginnings" of any enterprise are always significant. Further "development" either builds upon that foundation or departs from it – purposefully or not. Hence, the "pioneers" of any enterprise are always significant.

Who were the "pioneers" of our Catholic faith? What decisions/choices did they contribute? Where did the Catholic faith prosper, where did it not? Why? How?

In these two presentations, the "beginnings" and "pioneers" of our Catholic Church and their specific contributions will be explored. How did we get "here" from "there?"

These two presentations are in concert with the 2nd Scripture readings at Sunday Masses for the next 6 months – from May through December – so called "Ordinary Time." The contributions of our Catholic "pioneers" were anything but "ordinary" – Paul, Titus, Timothy, Corinth, Ephesus, etc.
