"The bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world." ~ John 6:51

Eucharistic Etiquette:

A weekly word about reverence for the Eucharist.

The Eucharist and Lent are intricately intertwined in the seasonal journey of faith. The Eucharist serves as a spiritual anchor throughout the Lenten period, providing believers with a sense of sustenance and communion with God as they navigate the challenges and introspection of the Lenten season.

Dr. Anthony DJ Gafoor

My Dear Parishioners,

Praise Be Jesus Christ! As we enter the 1st Week of Lent, a few words of Lenten Practice and a reflection.

1) 40 Hours Devotion begins this weekend. Please afford yourself and make an appointment with Jesus. It may be 15, 30, or 60 minutes. But an intentional time of silence before the Eucharist can be such a blessing not just for you, but for Jesus who loves you with His whole Heart. Each evening will close with Evening Prayer, Reflection and Benediction. See the schedule on-line.

2) Disciple Maker Index: This is now up and available for the taking. It's a parish survey that I ask all of you take. It will be a big help to our parish and the Archdiocese in future planning.

Finally, a Lenten Reflection from Assumptionist Priest Fr. John Franck, entitled "THIRSTING"

Recently, I was watching a series on grieving filmed in a beautiful church. The various speakers stood at a podium at the front of the sanctuary. After a while, I noticed the apse of the church but the view was partially blocked because of the angle of the camera. What I could see was an image of Christ the Good Shepherd carrying a lamb and three letters of a word above: S-I-T. Finally, on one of the last talks, the camera passed over the entire span of the apse and the full word became clear, S-I-T-I-O, Latin for "I thirst". Not only did this word capture the meaning of the Good Shepherd, it captured the meaning of Jesus' entire life, "I have come to seek out the lost." "I thirst for them."

What came to my mind was one of the seven "last words" of Christ on the Cross, "Sitio." "I thirst"...not just a physical thirst but an existential thirst, a thirst to save all of humanity, from the repentant thief who hung next to him ("Today you will be with me in paradise"), to the Samaritan woman to whom he wished to give living water springing up to everlasting life – and to every one of us, his disciples, He sacrificed his life that all of us might taste that living water. May this Lent be for us a season when we hear the Lord's call from the cross, "I thirst for you".

Peace,

Fr. Rogers

Christ Taking Leave of His Mother. (Piotr Stachiewicz, c. 1900)

An Invitation from Archbishop Pérez

Learn more about a new way forward together for the Catholic Church of Philadelphia

Archbishop Perez published an important Pastoral Letter on January 5, the Feast of St. John Neumann. This letter outlines his hopes for the Church of Philadelphia over the coming years. This initiative, known as "The Fourth Way," invites us to reach the 83% of Catholics who are not coming to Church and to personally invite them to come back home!

HOW CAN WE PARTICIPATE IN THIS INITIATIVE?

- 1. READ THE FULL PASTORAL LETTER: We ask that you take some time to read and reflect on his letter about the future of our Church. The pastoral letter and more details can be found at www.trustandhope.org.
- 2. PARTICIPATE IN THE DISCIPLE MAKER INDEX (DMI): At the Archbishop's request, we will be doing the DMI again this year and it will open on March 5th (Ash Wednesday). This year it is even more important that we participate in the DMI survey to help us reflect on our own journey of discipleship here at St. Patrick Parish. Stay tuned for more details.
- 3. ATTEND AN INFORMATION SESSION ON SUNDAY, MARCH 23, 2025: St. Patrick Parish will host an information session for our parish community on the pastoral planning of the Archdiocese of Philadelphia. This will take place from 1:00 PM – 3:00 PM in the St. Joseph Room. We would like as much of our St. Patrick community in attendance as possible.

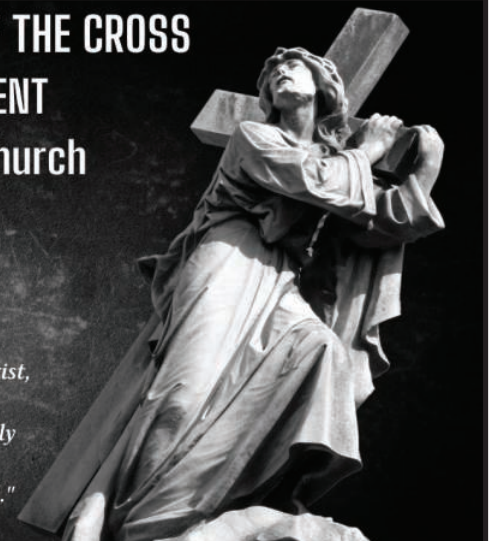

To help us plan accordingly, please register for this event using the QR code found below, visit the parish website, or please email Jen Keller at jenkellersp@gmail.com.

If you cannot attend our parish session, you are invited and encouraged to attend one of the Archdiocesan sessions being offered throughout Chester County. To sign up for an Archdiocesan session, please visit www.trustandhope.org.

STATIONS OF THE CROSS FRIDAYS OF LENT 7:00 PM in Church

"We adore You, O Christ,
and we praise You.
Because, by Your holy cross, You have redeemed the world."

“God will put his angels in charge of you to protect you wherever you go.” Psalm 91:11

Jesus’ temptation teaches us how to resist the devil’s temptation. Lean on Jesus when you are unable to resist temptation on your own. We can do this by listening to the Bible and studying the Church’s teachings and apply it to our lives.

Quietly reflect on which temptations in your life are a struggle.

NEW this Lent

“The Way of the Cross for Children”

By Rev. Jude Winkler, OFM Conv.

Friday, March 21 at 6PM

Catechesis of the
GOOD SHEPHERD
“Let the little children come”
Matthew 19:14

Catechesis of the Good Shepherd

Serving children ages 3-6

As we prepare for Lent, we listen to the Parable of the Yeast or Parable of the Leaven from the Gospel of Matthew. We experimented by making bread in two different ways; one with yeast and one without yeast. After mixing all the ingredients, we let the two bowls sit for an hour. The children were surprised to see such a noticeable difference between the two bowls. The bowl with the yeast changed—the dough rose; while the other bowl remained the same. We compared this to God’s Kingdom and his grace and love in our lives. How we respond with our faith helps us grow. We often hide our faith but when we share our faith it can be powerful. Just as the yeast helped the bread grow sharing our faith helps us grow.

LADIES RETREAT

"DISCOVERING ONE'S TRUE SELF AND MISSION IN LIFE THROUGH THE JOYS AND SORROWS OF OUR LORD AND OUR LADY"

This talk will delve into the primary responsibility of Catholic Christian women and use biblical figures and stories to illustrate a female's role as a woman, wife, mother, or grandmother. The talk will help women understand and discover one's true self and mission in life, relative to the Image of God, by reflecting on the joys and sufferings of Our Lord and Our Lady. The talk will also equip women with the tactics to spiritually defend themselves, their spouse and family by addressing topics on spiritual warfare and angelology, and the importance of prayer, holy desire, spiritual coaching and friendships.

Our retreat director is Dr. Antone Raymundo. He is a physician. He currently works as a medical consultant specializing in disability. Dr. Raymundo is a lay Carmelite, and a spiritual director.

The Ladies Retreat will be held on Saturday, March 29, 2025. We will begin with the 8:00AM Mass followed by refreshments in the St. Joseph Room in the Religious Education Center. Dr. Raymundo will begin the retreat at 9:00AM and finish around noon.

Please RSVP to the parish office, 610-444-4364, if you are planning to attend. We hope you will be able to join us.
