My Dear Parishioners,

Praised Be Jesus Christ! As of you read this message, I hope to be – most likely will be in Lincoln, Nebraska for the Ordination to the Priesthood of Augustine Reimers. I'm grateful to Frs. McCabe, Connolly and Chorpensing for covering the Masses this weekend, allowing me to be away.

As a nation, on this last weekend of May, we mark Memorial Day and salute all those who died in service to our country. I encourage you to come to the 9AM Mass on Monday and stay in town for the parade. Such small town events are few but our town does a great job, beginning with Mass makes that day even better!

As a Church, on this First Sunday after Pentecost, we celebrate Trinity Sunday – the Feast of God, Himself, who has no beginning; Who has revealed Himself to be 3 Persons, 1 God; A Communion of Life and Love; In Whose very image, we are created! It's easy to hear the word "Trinity" and to chalk it up as a MYSTERY. I believe that that is a great dis-service to God and all that He has made known. While clearly a Mystery, God rejoices when we contemplate Him and it behooves us to do so with great wonder. So to that end, I share a portion of an article by Fr. Billy Swan: Immersed in the Trinity.

Peace,

Fr. Rogers

If you are baptized, then know that you too are immersed into God's life and remain there. In fact, the word baptism comes from the Greek baptizein meaning to plunge or immerse. We are immersed in the Trinity as a fish in water. It is there we 'live and move and have our being' (Acts 17:28) and are 'alive to God in Christ Jesus, participating in the life of the Risen Lord' (Catechism of the Catholic Church, 1694). When we realize that we are within God, it changes and deepens how we pray. We don't just pray to God but pray within God. In that space within the Trinity, the Holy Spirit moves us to join with the Son and enter into a harmonious stream of praise and adoration of the Father. And as we participate in this stream of praise, every aspect of our being becomes aligned to the person of Christ.

If all creation is immersed in the Trinity then this is the basis for everything being interconnected (cf. Pope Francis, Laudato Si, 70). This raises creation to a new dignity which ought to effect the way we see all that God has made and treat it accordingly. Here is also the foundation of human fraternity and communion within the Church. We are immersed in the Trinity with our brothers and sisters who, like us, bear the imago Dei and so partake in the divine life. In the Church, this God-likeness has been intensified by the grace of Christ that draws us together into his Mystical Body where we are joined in communion by the Holy Spirit as brothers and sisters in Him.

At the Eucharist, we are not spectators looking on something taking place outside us but are immersed in the very mystery of God we worship. The Feast of the Most Holy Trinity is the ideal time to ponder again the awesome mystery of being immersed in God. The new atheism has challenged us again not to think of God as far removed and distant but as the very mystery of life that enfolds us. Together with all creation, we exist, breathe and love within God, not outside Him. May this truth transform how we think of God, pray, work, participate in the Church and celebrate the Eucharist. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit!

MAY IS THE MONTH OF MARY. A special way to honor Mary, Mother of God, would be to welcome the Expectant Madonna Statue into your home.

Our Parish Pilgrim Statue of the Expectant Madonna continues her travels and recently made a stop at the home of the Starnes Family. They shared the following regarding the Expectant Madonna's visit:

"We already feel the calming effects of having this beautiful statue of Mary in our home. It is a blessing to have her this first week of May. My Mother's birthday is May 10th, and even though she has been deceased for 20 years she is still in our heart, and soul. Thank you, Dianne & Charlie Smith."

All parishioners and families are invited to welcome the Pilgrim Statue of the Expectant Madonna into your home for a one-week visit (Sunday to Sunday). She began her journey through the parish in October and currently has a home through June 9. Consider opening your home this Summer to Our Lady! For more information and to sign up for your week, please see your weekly parish flocknote, visit the parish website, or contact Jen Keller at jenkellersp@gmail.com.

Subsidy Letters-If you are a registered parishioner of St. Patrick Parish and have a child attending one of the following schools: Assumption BVM, St. Agnes, St. Maximilian Kolbe or St. Thomas for the 2024-2025 school year, please submit your request for a subsidy. If you would still like to make a donation, diapers may be dropped off to the Parish Office during business hours through Friday, May 31. For questions, contact Jen Keller in the Parish Office. Thanks again for helping mothers in need. God Bless.

"I and the Father are one."

John 10:30

The apostles were not only able to preach and share the Good News, but were granted the powers of forgiveness of sins and of healing by Jesus. Often it is a simple act of kindness that can make a difference to someone. This week we celebrate the Holy Trinity: God the Father, our Creator, God the Son, our redeemer; and God the Holy Spirit, the one who guides us. They are three Persons in one God. Through our faith and discipleship God brings us into a relationship with Jesus Christ. Through Christ, we are brought into a deeper relationship with God through the Holy Spirit. Quietly reflect on how the Holy Spirit has guided you.

"Let the little children come"
 Matthew 19:14

As we conclude our CGS year, we reflect on the Holy Spirit's coming to the apostles and bringing the seven gifts. We listened to the words of Isaiah, "The spirit of the Lord will give him wisdom and the knowledge and skill to rule his people. He will know the Lord's will and honor him. (Isaiah 11:2)

We wondered how the apostles chose to use their gifts. As well as the strength and power the Holy Spirit gave to them to go out and preach the Good News of Jesus.
