My Dear Parishioners,

Praised be Jesus Christ! Wednesday and Thursday of this week mark historic days for our Parish Community and Church at large. Wednesday is the 1st Anniversary of Fr. Sharrett's Death. It is also the 1st Anniversary of the Groundbreaking for our new Narthex. To honor both events, there WILL BE a 7:30AM Mass on Wednesday in Church for Fr. Sharrett, followed by coffee/donuts in the St. Joseph Room. We will share stories about the past year and memories of Fr. Sharrett. ALL ARE WELCOME.

Thursday is the 40th Day of Easter, Ascension Thursday, a Holy Day of Obligation. Mass Schedule is posted and I share here an article out of BUSTED HALO highlighting this beautiful yet overlooked Mystery of our Faith.

Next Sunday, we welcome the Little Sisters of the Poor from Newark, DE. The Little Sisters care for the elderly poor and run the Jeanne Jugan Residence on Salem Church Road in Newark along with many such centers throughout the world. They will be here looking for some support and giving us the joy-filled support of their Christian Witness. Please remember them next week.

Finally, as of this writing, Deacon Augustine will be with us next week as well. His Ordination to the priesthood is slated for May 25 in Lincoln, Nebraska. We thank Augustine for his witness to us and pray every blessing for him in this most special time of his life.

Enjoy the week! Peace, Fr. Rogers

A Grand Entrance: What the Ascension Is Really About BY HUNTER LEONARD

Between the glory of the Resurrection and the fire of Pentecost is an often-overlooked event in the life of Christ and the Church. Forty days after Easter, the Church celebrates the Solemnity of the Ascension, where we read of Christ's bodily ascent into heavenly glory.

Growing up, I never really grasped the importance of the Ascension. It almost seemed like a grand exit with no purpose. This concluding moment in Christ's life was always mentioned but never explained. As I started studying my Catholic faith more in college and began to read and pray on this topic, I discovered my view of the Ascension as a grand exit was far from the truth. Here are four points that help us better understand and experience the significance and beauty of this special day.

The difference between Ascension and Assumption: First, it's helpful to be clear about our terms. As Catholics, we use two different words when speaking of the events in which Jesus and Mary enter heaven, and very often people get these terms mixed up and confused. We speak of Christ's Ascension and his mother's Assumption. The reason for the distinction is because Jesus ascended into heaven by his own power, for he is God in the flesh, whereas Mary is assumed into heaven by the power of God. Both Jesus and his mother enter heaven by God's power, but Jesus is himself the power of God (1 Cor 1:24).

Where did Jesus ascend to? St. Luke tells us that "He was lifted up, and a cloud took him from their sight" (Acts 1:9) At first glance, it might seem strange — Jesus rising higher and higher into the sky. Did Jesus ascend into outer space? Where did his body go? Luke's wording is specific in saying that a cloud took Jesus from the sight of his followers. Throughout Scripture, the cloud is the symbol of God's presence. For example, God's dwelling in the tabernacle was symbolized by the presence of the cloud (Ex 40:34), and at the Transfiguration, a cloud overshadowed Jesus and his disciples, as God spoke to them (Lk 9:34-35). By saying that Jesus was taken up into a cloud, Luke is explaining that Jesus is entering into the divine presence. I was shocked when I first heard this; it made total sense. Jesus ascends, with his body, into the presence of God in heaven.

Entry of humanity into divine glory: For me, one of the most beautiful points to reflect on is that the Ascension commemorates the entrance of humanity into heavenly glory. Just as we emphasize that Jesus rose bodily from the grave, we insist that Jesus ascended bodily into heaven. I used to think of it this way: Jesus comes down to Earth at Christmas and returns to heaven at the Ascension. But the Ascension is not the undoing of the Incarnation, it is the solidifying of the Incarnation for eternity. God has a human body forever. At the Incarnation, God enters into our humanity. At the Ascension, He raises humanity up to his divinity. The early Church said it like this, the Son of God became a son of man so that sons of men might become sons of God (cf. 2 Cor 8:9). I always love to ponder how the angels reacted when seeing Jesus in his glorified body entering heaven. The shock of the Incarnation is seeing God on earth, the shock of the Ascension is seeing man in heaven.

The Ascension and Christ's priesthood: The effect of Christ's Ascension into heaven continues to this day and is related to Christ's role as the new high priest. In the Old Testament, the high priest would enter the presence of God in the Temple to intercede for the people of Israel (Lev 16). Christ, our new high priest, enters the heavenly sanctuary, the true dwelling place of God, where he "always lives to make intercession" for all his people (Hb 7:25; 9:24). St. Thomas Aquinas wrote, "The very showing of himself in the human nature which he took with him to heaven is a pleading for us." Jesus Christ, our true high priest, entered the heavenly sanctuary so that we might one day enter, too. I love to reflect on his promise, "And when I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and will take you to myself, that where I am you may be also" (Jn 14:3).

I was wrong to think of the Ascension as a grand exit, it is in fact a grand entrance, the entrance of humanity into divine glory. Today, we are raised up to heaven by Jesus Christ, the power of God. His Ascension is the promise of our own bodily entrance into heavenly glory.

CULTURE OF LIFE CORNER

A Mother's Spiritual Bouquet

May has traditionally been observed as a month dedicated to Mary, Mother of God. It is also the month in which we celebrate our earthly mothers on Mother's Day. Mother's Day provides a beautiful opportunity to pray for all mothers, including those facing an unexpected pregnancy, those struggling with infertility, those who have lost children, and those who have lost their own mothers.

A Spiritual Bouquet is individual prayers and acts of devotion offered up on someone's behalf. This May we invite you to lift up the many intentions laid on your heart to Our Blessed Mother, honoring her, and giving her thanks for her maternal love and care. Each individual act is like a spiritual flower that when gathered with other acts and prayers becomes a "bouquet."

When you come to Church next weekend, you will find intention cards in the pews. After all Masses, the Respect Life Ministry invites you to spend some time with Our Lady - write down your prayer intentions and then place them in the basket that will be in front of the Blessed Mother statue. We hope this spiritual bouquet provides an opportunity to pray for the intentions brought to your heart by Mother's Day. This offering will remain throughout the month of May serving as a visual remembrance of the beautiful vocation of motherhood and the gift of life. Let us all cherish the gift of life we receive from our mothers and entrust all women to whom God gives life to the care of Our Blessed Mother.

Mother Mary, Pray for Us!
Yours In Christ,
St. Patrick's Respect Life Ministry

ST. PATRICK PARISH PILGRIM
STATUE OF THE EXPECTANT
MADONNA

MAY IS THE MONTH OF MARY. A special way to honor Mary, Mother of God, would be to welcome the Expectant Madonna Statue into your home.

Our Parish Pilgrim Statue of the Expectant Madonna continues her travels and recently made a stop at the home of the Starnes Family. They shared the following regarding the Expectant Madonna's visit:

"Thank you for blessing our family with Mary this week! It encouraged me to participate in the rosary via zoom on Sunday night and a great visual reminder to keep going Mary throughout the week for her peace and wisdom. Many more "Hail Mary's" were said this week."

All parishioners and families are invited to welcome the Pilgrim Statue of the Expectant Madonna into your home for a one-week visit (Sunday to Sunday). She began her journey through the parish in October and currently has a home through May 2024. The next opening is June 9. For more information and to sign up for your week, please see your weekly parish flocknote, visit the parish website, or contact Jen Keller at jenkellersp@gmail.com.

“Whoever loves me will keep my word, says the Lord, and my Father will love him and come to him.” John 14:23

At some point in your life, you will be faced with a choice to choose between beloved ones and possessions, reputations, power or even our own desires. Jesus teaches us that love is not selfish or grasping. In today's Gospel, the word "love" that John mentions refers to agape love. This love reaches out to all; wanting the same blessings for all. Quietly reflect on how to share God's love with others.

Pilgrimage to Shrine of Our Lady of Guadalupe

My name is Tony Basilio and late last year, I had the very good fortune to be invited on a pilgrimage to visit the Shrine of Our Lady of Guadalupe in Mexico City. That visit was a life altering event. I would like to share that event with you. I am organizing a pilgrimage to the shrine for St Patrick Parish. The dates for the trip are November 6 – 13, 2024. The cost is $1,700 which includes ground transportation in Mexico, (Please note: airfare is NOT included) a full time bilingual Mexican guide, room accommodations, most meals, visits to at least 8 holy sites and three other tourist attractions and daily Mass. There will also be time for shopping at a very favorable exchange rate. If you are interested or have any questions, please don't hesitate to contact me at tbasilio@verizon.net or on my mobile phone (302) 218-0954.

Catechesis of the GOOD SHEPHERD 'Let the little children come' Matthew 19:14

Catechesis of the Good Shepherd

Serving children ages 3-6

The children are given the presentation of Baptism. They hear it proclaimed that through our Baptism, we receive the gift of the light and life of Christ who died and is risen; the paschal candle is the sign of His risen life and light; the baptismal candle and the white garment are signs of this gift to us. In the second part of this presentation the children are introduced to water. They are reminded that water cleanses us from Original Sin. The children are given the opportunity to practice what would have occurred at their Baptism. By using a shell, they pour water over their fist and say, "You are Baptized in the name of the Father, and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit." Do you wonder why they use their fist and not a doll? The fist is used because it is part of them, they reflect on what may have occurred on their Baptism Day.

As a reminder, the work of arranging flowers is a favorite in the atrium. Donating fresh cut flowers from your yard or local grocery store would be a special treasure for the children.
