"The bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world." ~ John 6:51

Eucharistic Etiquette:

A weekly word about reverence for the Eucharist.

"When she (Mother Frances Cabrini) went to the chapel...her whole attitude...revealed that she was completely immersed in the Divine Presence. One day, during the Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament, a sister brought her a telegram. Observing that Mother made no response, the sister put the telegram on the prie-dieu. Then, perceiving that Mother still did not move, the sister looked into her face. She saw there a seraphic expression, the eyes openly fixed upon the Sacred Heart; but Mother was not able to see nor hear anything that was going on around her."

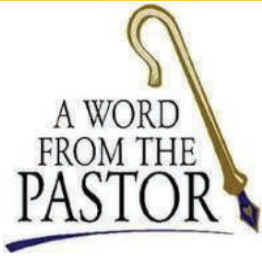

All praise and glory is yours, Lord our God, for You have called us to serve You in love. My Dear Parishioners, Praise be Jesus Christ! I'm writing this prior to the Nov. 5 Election, but regardless of who "wins", our country has great need. Need of Christians who Heed the Call. In this week when we salute our Veterans who heeded the call of our country, I share this article encouraging all of us to Heed the Call of Christ!

Peace,

Fr. Rogers

LIVING HOLY IN THE PRESENT MOMENT: By Mercedes Shirts

Sometimes I find myself sinking into a cloud of nostalgia, wrapping myself up in the comfort of memories from college and high school, from old friendships to previous jobs. Other times I pass my days waiting for my life to begin. I worry and wonder what tomorrow, next month, or next year will bring. I don't want these days to pass only to be logged as fleeting moments in the diary of my life. I want to take delight in each moment God gives to me. I want to allow Him to bend and mold me, to sanctify me in the present.

"As to the past, let us entrust it to God's mercy, the future to divine providence. Our task is to live holy the present moment."

These words from St. Gianna Molla echo the Lord's desire for us to continually dwell in Him, challenging us to surrender our entire lives to the Lord. These words encourage us to overturn the mundane moments, the repetitive moments, the extraordinary moments so that the Lord might sanctify them. In our distracting world, constantly dwelling in the light of the Lord is difficult, so here are some simple tips to begin practicing living holy in the present moment:

Lean into Scripture

The Lord doesn't make mistakes. During times of doubt or uncertainty, remember that scripture is layered with reminders that the Lord has intentionally placed us in each moment of our lives. These words from Esther are a particularly good reminder that the Lord calls us to the here and now: "Perhaps you were made for such a time as this." (Esther 4:14).

You were made for this time— right here, right now. Allow this invitation to the present to render your heart vulnerable. Allow God to refine you, direct you, and show you your purpose, sanctifying this moment.

Philippians 3:13-14 beautifully reminds us that a heaven-oriented mindset should be our concern as we journey through each day: "Brothers, I do not consider that I have made it my own. But one thing I do: forgetting what lies behind and straining forward to what lies ahead, I press on toward the goal for the prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus."

Be encouraged by the ultimate goal! Know that the Lord delights in both small and remarkable moments as you journey to Him. Treasure the idea that each moment can be a sanctified steppingstone on the way to Him.

Pray, Pray, Pray

Begin each day with a prayer of gratitude. During difficult times, pause and invite the Holy Spirit into your heart to guide you, to sanctify you, to give you wisdom and discernment. During joyful moments, whisper a phrase of gratitude to the Lord for bringing delight to your life. In all things, remember that He is with you in an incomprehensible way.

Turn to Church Leaders

Post one of the following quotes in a prominent place in your home as a reminder that living in the moment is a response to God's call to holiness.

"We must be faithful to the present moment or we will frustrate the plan of God for our lives." – Blessed Solanus Casey

"Yesterday is gone. Tomorrow has not yet come. We have only today. Let us begin." – St. Mother Teresa

"God does not ask of us the perfection of tomorrow, nor even of tonight, but only of the present moment." – St. Madeleine Sophie Barat

"Let us strive to make the present moment beautiful!" – St. Francis de Sales

"O present moment, you belong to me, whole and entire. I desire to use you as best as I can. And although I am weak and small, you grant me the grace of your omnipotence." – St. Maria Faustina Kowalska

WORD OF LIFE BULLETIN BRIEFS

Advance Medical Directives

“Human life is good and to be protected. All medical decisions ought to reflect this core belief. Yet black-and-white answers to our questions about end-of-life issues are not always possible, and it can be very difficult to know how to make medical decisions. Each and every human person is distinct and unrepeatable, and each medical situation may be unique. In each set of circumstances we need to judge whether a given treatment will provide real benefit to the patient, without causing harm or other burdens that are out of proportion to the good being done. We should each be prepared for those difficult situations when medical decisions must be made.”

ST. PATRICK PARISH
PILGRIM STATUE OF THE EXPECTANT MADONNA

Our Parish Pilgrim Statue of the Expectant Madonna continues her journey through the many homes of our parish community and recently spent her second visit in the home of Michael & Magdalena Snyder. They welcomed Our Lady on October 20 and that same day, their mother passed away. They shared the following:

Today, October 20th, our beloved mother passed away. She rests in peace, having returned to her eternal home with our beloved God, the Holy Mother, and her family. While her passing brings sorrow, we find joy in knowing she is at peace. Today also marks a special moment as we welcomed Mary into our home, placing a beautiful statue of her on the table. This has been a deeply memorable week for us.

God continues to teach us how to love and cherish those around us, especially our family. Though we do not yet know the date of the funeral, we feel God’s presence, His love guiding us. Each of us walks our own life journey, but only God knows what is truly best for us. We trust and surrender ourselves into His hands until our final breath.

Lord, thank You for holding our hands and making us strong soldiers in life’s battles, so that we may one day win heaven. Give us strength, Lord. We believe in You, we trust in You.

All parishioners are invited to welcome our Expectant Madonna Statue into their home. If you have not yet hosted Our Lady or would like to welcome her back, please visit the parish website to sign up or contact Jen Keller at jenkellersp@gmail.com.

Encountering Emmanuel – A Guided Advent Journey for Prayer & Meditation

Dates: November 26, December 3, 10, & 18 (4 weeks)

Tuesday Evening, 7:00 PM – 8:30 PM / last session on Wed. 12/18

Where: St. Joseph Room

This Advent, learn how to invite Christ in so that he can bring his light, love, peace, hope, and healing into your heart.

Encountering Emmanuel – A Guided Advent Journey for Prayer & Meditation by author Heather Khym, cohost of Abiding Together podcast and the author of Abide, includes daily readings, reflection questions, and prayers that will gently guide you into the areas of your heart where Christ has not yet come—the areas where you’ve shut him out, the places you’ve long forgotten and ignored, or the spaces you’re ashamed to acknowledge. You’ll learn how to invite him in so that he can bring his light, love, peace, hope, and healing into your heart.

Join your fellow parishioners on a journey Encountering Emmanuel this Advent beginning Tuesday, November 26. Each weekly session will include prayer, a scripture reading, a short video on the weekly theme and group discussion. The journal is optionally at $10.00. You may participate in person or via Zoom.

To register for this study or if you have further questions, please contact Ann Marie Gillinger at amgmag03@gmail.com.

“He lifts those who have fallen; he loves his righteous people.” Psalm 146:8

Jesus taught the disciples that it is not the amount of money given that is important, but the sacrifice made during the offering. Jesus understood that people who have less have often been more generous than those who have plenty to share. Quietly reflect on what Jesus meant when he said that the widow has contributed a large sum.

Catechesis of the Good Shepherd Serving children ages 3-6. This week the Liturgical life we focused on preparing the cruets. It is explained that at Mass the cruet of water is on the altar table whereas the cruet of wine is brought with as a gift during the Offertory. This work of preparing the cruets is a wonderful way for the children to master controlled movement of pouring and adding to their vocabulary words used at Mass. The children continued on the gesture of making the Sign of the Cross and working of the Model Altar. The children also heard the word of God proclaimed by listening to Psalm 100:3 followed by singing Jesus Love Kristi.
