My Dear Parishioners,

Greetings! This last full week before Thanksgiving Day offers a wonderful opportunity to cultivate thanksgiving; and thanksgiving does need to be cultivated. It's not a switch that is turned on and off; nor is it a mere feeling we wake up with on Thanksgiving Day. Thanksgiving is a Way of Life. So what ingredients are needed to cultivate gratitude. Let me suggest three:

1. TIME: Like a plant and anything else that is cultivated, gratitude takes time. This is why I'm reflecting on Thanksgiving this week and not next! Next week, there will be less time. But right now, we have time and these next days can be used well in such a way as to cultivate gratitude. (BTW: This year, we will experience less time in Advent! The 4th Week of Advent is just 24 Hours!) Thus, the important and precious Gift of Time!
2. REFLECTION ON TIME: Time is more than the ticks on the clock; it's a gift. Reflect on the GIFT of time that you have been given. In noting the GIFT of time which you have received, you can find the Providence of God. All that He has provided you. Reflect on the Time as a Gift of Time. (A great way help to this may be to read Job Chapter 38 and 39)
3. RESPONSE TO WHAT YOU SEE: Reflection allows us to see; and seeing provides an opportunity for us to respond. That response can take many forms. But for gratitude to be cultivated, the response that is best is SPECIFIC, SENSORY and SINCERE. So I'm not just responding with "Thanks", I'm responding with Thanks for this specific thing. I'm not just grateful in my heart/ feelings, but I give expression to my gratitude in a physical/sensory way. (Saying thank you/ Writing a card) Finally, I'm not just expressing thanks, I'm sincere in what I'm expressing. I mean what I say/do.

You may have heard it said that "it's not happy people who are thankful, but rather its thankful people who are happy." I believe that to be very true and even science is pointing to that truth. Test it out! Take time to be Thankful and See what happens!

Peace.

WORD OF LIFE BULLETIN BRIEFS

November is recognized annually as National Hospice & Palliative Care Month.

An old Irish proverb says, "It is in the shelter of each other that the people live." Indeed, we are created to depend upon one another and walk together in suffering. But when family members or friends approach life's end, we may not know how best to "shelter" them. To learn some concrete ways we can compassionately care for them, please visit: www.usccb.org/resources/rlp-18-caring-for-loved-ones-at-lifes-end-english-color.pdf

ST. PATRICK PARISH PILGRIM STATUE OF THE EXPECTANT MADONNA

Our Parish Pilgrim Statue of the Expectant Madonna continues her travels and recently made a stop at the home of Dave & Eileen

Dickens. They shared the following regarding the Expectant Madonna's visit:

"What a joy it was for the Dickens clan to pray through Mary, Our Mother. We shared quiet times praying and reflecting on the beautiful prayers included with Our Lady, especially those found in the "Mother's Prayers" and "Father's Prayers" booklets that were included with her.

Last Sunday, we were blessed to share Our Blessed Mother and the special prayers with three of our grandchildren and their parents. Also, reading the included children's book, I WOULD CLIMB ANY MOUNTAIN FOR YOU, with them stirred a special discussion on the beauty of all life, in all stages.

What a gift it was to have Our Lady with us on her grace-filled journey through our parish."

Have you signed up yet to host Our Lady? All parishioners and families are invited to welcome the Pilgrim Statue of the Expectant Madonna into your home for a one-week visit (Sunday to Sunday). For more information and to sign up for your week, please see your weekly parish flocknote, visit the parish website, or contact Jen Keller at jenkellersp@gmail.com.

RED CROSS BLOOD DRIVE

Our next Blood Drive will be held on Wednesday, December 20, 2023. It will be held in the St. Patrick Religious Education Center (old school) in the St. Joseph Room on the first floor from 12:00PM-5:00PM.

We are still in the midst of construction at our parish. Parking will be available on Meredith Street, Cypress Street or Chestnut Alley. There will be no parking in the parking lot. You will enter by the back door of the school or the Meredith Street door that has the handrail.

Help more patients. If you are an eligible type O, B- or A- donor, consider making a Power Red donation. Red blood cells are the most commonly transfused blood component.

Streamline your donation experience and save up to 15 minutes by visiting RedCrossBlood.org/RapidPass to complete your pre-donation reading and health history questions on the day of your appointment.

Sign up to donate by going to RedCrossBlood.org and enter sponsor code: stpatrickks to schedule your appointment. Sign up is also available on our website: www.stpatrickkenettsquare.org

Thank you so much for your continued support to the Red Cross.

I will give thanks as long as I live; I will raise my hands to you in prayer. Psalm 63:4

As we enter into the last weeks of the liturgical year, the gospel readings during this time are intended to prepare us for the end. At this time of year, days grow shorter and darker, we are reminded not to procrastinate, but to behave as if we might meet the Lord at any moment. Quietly reflect on what you would say to Jesus if he were to come to you today.

Check PREP Flocknotes to participate in the Joyful Scenes of Christmas and Sacrament information.

"Let the little children come"
Matthew 19:14

Catechesis of the Good Shepherd Serving Children ages 3-6

The children continue to focus on new skills related to grace and courtesy. This allows for greater focus and building on the foundation for the life of the atrium.

A few were introduced to the preparation of the water and wine cruets similar to the ones that are used at Mass as well as the preparation of the model. Children continued to work independently on presentations such as chasubles.

WOMEN'S ADVENT EVENING OF REFLECTION
THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 30, 2023
6:45 PM - 9:00 PM
with Sr. Sheila Galligan, IMH

St. Patrick Parish warmly welcomes all the women of our parish, their family members, friends and neighbors to join us for a Women's Advent Evening of Reflection on Thursday, November 30, 2023 from 6:45 PM - 9:00 PM. Please join us for an evening of prayer, sisterhood, and reflection! All women are welcome for light refreshments & fellowship in St. Joseph Room at 6:45 PM followed by a talk and time of prayer.

This year we welcome back Sr. J. Sheila Galligan who presents Waiting with Mary in Advent: Exercising Patience. Surely admiration and veneration are apt dimensions of Marian devotion. However, another perspective is identification with Mary or the imitation of Mary. In a practical way this means that we say: "Here is a life and faith pattern which I can call my own!" This Advent reflection will probe the implications of the Marian descriptive "Blessed" with a special focus on "Patience."

This evening is for women and hosted by all women! Water, Coffee, Tea and Paper Products will be provided. While there is no cost to attend, all women are invited to contribute to the evening if able. Below are a few examples of how you can help make this evening extra special:

- Assist with Decorating (all decorations will be provided)
- Greet & Welcome Guests
- Bring a bottle of wine
- Bring an appetizer or dessert
- Assist with Clean-Up

To help us plan accordingly, please RSVP by Monday, November 27 to let us know you are coming and, if able, how you might like to help. You won't want to miss this opportunity to prepare your heart for the Advent Season! To sign-up now online, simply scan the QR code or visit the parish website. You can also register by contacting the Parish Office at 610-444-4364. For questions, contact Jen Keller or Maria Miller. Thank you.
