My Dear Parishioners,

Praised be Jesus Christ! This Wednesday, we celebrate the Feast of St. Luke, one of the four Evangelists. From his Gospel, we have many stories not recorded in the other Gospels. The Annunciation to Mary, the Parable of the Prodigal Son and the words of the Good Thief are just three examples. When it comes to the Last Supper, we find in Luke a unique word: “Eagerly”. Luke 22, 15 reads: “Jesus said to them: ‘I have eagerly desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer.’” That word is a powerful descriptive which points to Jesus’ great love and desire when it comes to the Eucharist: EAGERLY!

In our modern day, we may be eager about the Eagles, but how about the Eucharist? What might happen if we encountered the eagerness of God in the Eucharist? Well, we can see what happens especially in the lives of those who eagerly believe: Lives are transformed, sin is shattered and freedom is found whenever men and women discover the great gift of God-With-Us in the Eucharist.

More and more scientists, doctors, scholars and reputable men and women are discovering this great Gift. I share with you 4 modern stories of Eucharistic Miracles. Let us pray for the grace of being EAGER to believe, receive, worship and adore Jesus in the Most Blessed Sacrament.

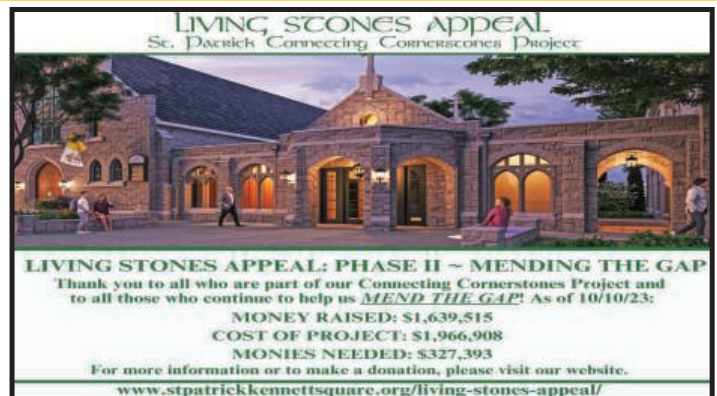

Peace, Fr. Rogers

After Mass Aug. 18, 1996, at St. Mary Church in Buenos Aires, Argentina, a discarded consecrated host was placed in water and locked in the tabernacle so it would dissolve. The tabernacle was opened Aug. 26. The host had not dissolved but instead turned into a fleshy bloody substance. After three years, a sample was tested by a team of scientists, including Dr. Frederic Zugiba at Columbia University. Zugiba reported that the sample was muscle tissue from the left ventricle of the heart, which was inflamed and contained a large number of white blood cells, which normally die outside a living organism.

Oct. 21, 2006, at St. Martin of Tours Church in Tixtla, Mexico, a nun was distributing Communion when she noticed one of the hosts began to bleed. A team of scientists conducted tests on a sample from October 2009 to October 2012. Their studies concluded: the reddish substance is human blood with human DNA, but no genetic profile could be obtained; the blood type is AB, which is the same as Lanciano and the Shroud of Turin; the tissue is heart muscle showing signs of stress, with active white blood cells; fresh blood was present under a superficial layer of clotted blood; and the blood emanated from within the host.

Oct. 12, 2008, at St. Anthony of Padua Church in Sokółka, Poland, a consecrated host that had fallen on the floor was placed in a container of water and locked in a safe. One week later, the host had not dissolved but had a red stain on it that looked like a blood clot. It was later determined that samples should be tested independently by two professors of pathological anatomy. Their testing found that the reddish substance is heart muscle tissue with characteristics of a person suffering and near death. They also observed that untransformed bread fibers are microscopically interwoven with the heart tissue in a way that cannot be explained.

Dec. 25, 2013, at St. Hyacinth Church in Legnica, Poland, a consecrated host fell on the floor during Mass. However, instead of dissolving after placed in water, it developed a red spot. The following month, a sample of the red material was submitted for pathological testing. This testing found the sample is heart muscle tissue that bore signs of stress. DNA testing showed the tissue is of human origin, but no genetic profile could be obtained.

WORD OF LIFE-BULLETIN BRIEFS

An old Irish proverb says, "It is in the shelter of each other that the people live." Indeed, we are created to depend upon one another and walk together in suffering. But when family members or friends approach life's end, we may not know how best to 'shelter' them. Here are some concrete ways we can compassionately care for them: www.usccb.org/end-of-life-care.

ST. PATRICK PARISH
PILGRIM STATUE OF
THE EXPECTANT
MADONNA

Our Parish Pilgrim Statue of the Expectant Madonna has begun her journey into the homes of our parishioners and spent the first week with Deacon Alan and his wife Karin. They shared the following regarding the Expectant Madonna's visit:

"Having this statue in our home has been a reminder of two important things. First, that God humbled himself for our benefit, becoming Man to affect our redemption. Second, that God chose the Virgin Mary so that Man can participate in the divine mission of salvation. During its time in our home, the statue has also prompted prayer and reflection."

Have you signed up yet to host Our Lady? All parishioners and families are invited to welcome the Pilgrim Statue of the Expectant Madonna into your home for a one-week visit (Sunday to Sunday). This can be a special way to gather your family together in prayer each day while contemplating the precious gift of LIFE. A Prayer Booklet complete with the Rosary for Life intentions and other prayers specific to the family and pro-life matters will accompany the statue to help deepen your prayer time. For more information and to sign up for your week, please visit the parish website or contact Jen Keller at jenkellersp@gmail.com.

Every day I will thank you; I will praise you forever and ever. Psalm 145:2

Like the king in today's Gospel, God sends out countless invitations: friends who want you to join in activities, teachers/coaches encouraging you, or a parent recognizing an act of kindness towards siblings. Each of these moments are invitations from God, asking us to stretch beyond the comfortable, and to live in the amazing life he has dreamed for each of us. Quietly think about someone that might need your intercessory prayer this week.

Catechesis of the GOOD SHEPHERD 'Let the little children come' Matthew 19:14

Catechesis of the Good Shepherd

Serving children ages 3-6

This first session encompasses the topic of grace and courtesy in the atrium, while introducing children to the specialness of the space. Here, we come together for the first time to orient ourselves to the physical and mental concentration which can elevate our bodies and minds to hear God and create a special relationship with His son. During this time, we learn about practical life works, like pouring water and spooning beans, which will help us concentrate and transition our ability to more fully take part in the liturgical works. We end our session with the enthronement of the Bible, the most important book in the whole world, highlighting its special place in the atrium and the way we may open our hearts to hear God's Word.

ADULT FAITH FORMATION LECTURE SERIES WITH FR. CONNOLLY ON SUNDAY, OCTOBER 22 & SUNDAY, OCTOBER 29-1:00PM-ST. JOSEPH ROOM

“What about those Scripture readings from the Old Testament at Sunday Mass?”-Perhaps the least understood Scriptures at Sunday Mass are those from the Old Testament, a.k.a. the Hebrew Scriptures.

In principle, the Old Testament reading is in some way related to the Gospel reading...but exactly “how” is often not that obvious!

Taking the Old Testament selections for up coming Sunday Masses, these two presentations will unpack the relevant Old Testament readings within their contexts and hopefully shed some light on their contribution to the Gospel selections and thus to our spiritual enrichment. Join Father Connolly after the Noon Mass on Sunday, October 22 and again on Sunday, October 29. All are welcome!

No musical experience is necessary.
