Eucharistic Etiquette:
 A weekly word about reverence for the Eucharist.

Recitation of the Rosary before the exposed Sacrament should help lead the faithful back 'to a knowledge and love of the Lord Jesus, to union with him, finding great encouragement and support in liturgical prayer before the Eucharist.' (US CATHOLIC BISHOPS)

My Dear Parishioners,

Greetings Everyone and Praised Be Jesus Christ!

Like it or not, we now stand one month from Election Day 2024. While there may be a lot that we don't like about that, one thing that we may all like is the end of political ads! And that day is coming: Wednesday, November 6! ALLELUIA! While we wait for that day to come, I encourage you all to treat yourself to three things this month: Clarity, Charity and Calm. (And if needed, Maalox!)

Mother Angelica described living Christian Faith as "having one foot on the ground, one foot in the air and a queasy filling in one's stomach!" She was a woman who lived faith and she drank lots of Maalox! As we get ready to live our faith in voting, consider these three things:

Clarity: Voting with a well-formed conscience does take work, but it's not rocket science. In the coming month, seek clarity in three ways:

- 1) In Church Teaching: If you're wondering what the Church teaches about voting, formation of conscience and our duty as citizens, visit the US Bishops Website or read the Catechism.
- 2) In the platforms of the candidates: If you're wondering what the candidates stand for, visit their websites.
- 3) In silence: If you want greater clarity, try silence before the Blessed Sacrament. Sadly, much of modern media especially about politics only sows confusion. Seek Clarity.

Charity: Years ago, I remember hearing Archbishop Fulton Sheen saying (on an audio cassette) to a group of priests that "In listening to people, it's important to consider not just WHAT people say, but WHY they say it". While both the WHAT and the WHY are important, it's often in the WHY that we discover real conversation, listening and a window for charity. Five Years ago, the US Bishops launched a Let's Civilize it Initiative. You might want to check it out. <https://www.usccb.org/civilizeit>

Finally, Calm: St. Augustine noted that there are 3 characteristics of faithful Christian Disciples: Confidence, Courage and Calm. In an age of so many important issues, in an election in which so much matters, it's easy to lose calm. Remember that while it is our vocation to advance God's Kingdom on earth, His Kingdom is not of this world. Saints have saluted it from afar, with their eyes fixed on Jesus. We are called to do the same. To borrow a British expression: Keep Calm and Carry On! During this next month, Seek Clarity, Exercise Charity, Keep Calm, Vote and Carry On.

Peace, Fr. Rogers

 We hope that you will join us in prayer.

PLEASE HELP!-During the month of October, we invite you to join St. Patrick's Respect Life Ministry & our PREP families in donating your slightly used Winter clothing to Birthright in Coatesville, PA. Birthright supports Young & Single parent families in the Coatesville & surrounding areas.

With winter weather fast approaching they are in need of the following:

Coats & Jackets, hats-gloves & scarves, blankets & Diapers

Sizes: Infants to adults

Please bring your donations and drop them off in the St. Joseph Room. They will be collected & delivered weekly during the month of October.

Your generosity will be a blessing and appreciated by those in need.

What a gift it is to receive Jesus in the Eucharist! While many of us receive this gift each Sunday, there are many others who are unable to attend Mass and receive. Here at St. Patrick's, our Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion currently bring the Eucharist to approximately 10 -20 homebound parishioners on a weekly and/or monthly basis. Do you have an elderly, sick or homebound family member or friend who lives in the parish and is unable to attend Mass but would like to receive the Eucharist? If so, please let us know so that arrangements can be made to visit with him/her. Please contact the Parish office at (610) 444-4364 or Kathy Reinhardt at kmreinhardt@comcast.net with any questions.

CULTURE OF LIFE CORNER

WORD OF LIFE BULLETIN QUOTE

"When we meet Jesus in the Eucharist, this encounter has the power to change us. The Eucharist has the power to transform the depths of our hearts and the heart of our culture. United to the power of his Eucharistic Presence, may we work to ensure that each person has life – and has it in abundance."

Take One Hour to Stand for Life

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 6, 2024

2:30 PM – 3:30 PM ALONG CYPRESS STREET

One of the greatest ways to publicly witness about the right to life is to participate in the LIFE CHAINS being held on Respect Life Sunday, October 6th. Life Chains will be held all over the nation and consist of pro-life individuals forming a "prayer chain" and public sidewalk witness for the sanctity of all human LIFE. During this time, we remain silent and prayerful while holding signs with pro-life messages to educate and inspire people passing by. Please join us for an hour of prayerful witness along both sides of Cypress Street next to the Parish Religious Education Center. All are welcome.

ST. PATRICK PARISH PILGRIM STATUE OF THE EXPECTANT MADONNA

This October, the month the Catholic Church celebrates Respect Life Month, marks one year since our Parish Pilgrim Statue of the Expectant Madonna began her journey into the homes of our parish families. She has graced over 40 homes to date and will continue her visits in this coming year.

Our Lady recently spent time in the home of Ilona Timanus in memory of her mother Kornelija Jaunakais (1924-2023).

We have been gifted with another Expectant Madonna statue, which will begin her travels through the PREP classrooms this year. In addition, each parishioner/family continues to have the opportunity to welcome one of our Expectant Madonna statues into their home. This can be a special way to gather your family together in prayer each day while contemplating the precious gift of LIFE. It can also be an opportunity to honor the anniversary of a deceased loved one, a wedding anniversary, birthday, or other special event in your family. For more information and to sign up for your week, please visit the parish website, your weekly Flocknote, or contact Jen Keller at jenkellersp@gmail.com. 236

PREP

Parish Religious Education Program

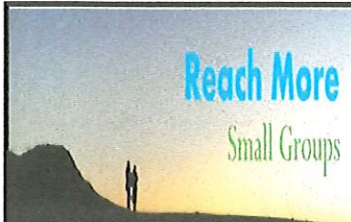

Whoever does not accept the kingdom of God like a child will not enter it.

Whoever receives one child like in my name, receives me.” Mark 9:37

In this week’s Gospel Jesus tells us in order to enter the Kingdom of God a person must have the trust and dependence of a little child. Jesus taught the disciples that in the Kingdom, the powerless, like children are the most welcome. If we want to reflect the church, we must do our best to find ways to encourage the children to come to him. Quietly reflect on how can you be trusting and loving in your faith.

LIVING ROSARY-Sunday, October 13 and Monday, October 14. Families are invited to pray the Rosary with PREP in the St. Joseph Room. Please refer to the PREP Flocknotes for more information.

REACH MORE SMALL GROUPS

FINAL WEEKEND TO SIGN UP

Group discussions. Groups of 6-10 people meet weekly to pray, read Scripture, and discuss how it applies to you personally. Small Groups are about friends helping friends follow Jesus!

- “Reach More is very rewarding. It keeps us focused on how we should be living our lives the way Jesus wants us to.”
- “It is a faith filled experience with the right focus and discussions leading to better, richer Catholic faith and with an appreciation and better understanding of the Scriptures on a personal level.”
- “I would tell anyone who asks me that the Reach More Small Group experience was like no other – it brought be closer to God.”

Have you been thinking about joining a Small Group, but have not yet signed up? If the answer is YES, then what are you waiting for? This is the final weekend to sign up as groups begin next week. Don’t miss the opportunity to experience being in a Small Group this Fall and be sure to sign up today! Catechesis of the Good Shepherd

Serving children ages 3-6

Catechesis of the
GOOD SHEPHERD
Let the little children come!
Matthew 19:14

This week the children were introduced to the atrium, which is central to the program. They listened to and pondered Psalms 46:10 “Be still, and know that I am God.”

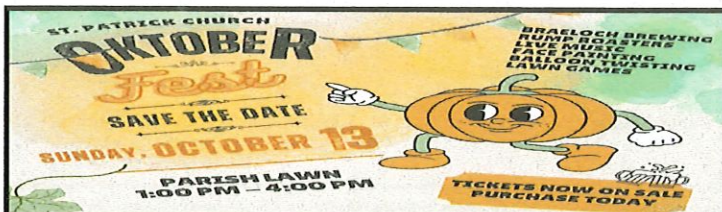

As well as being introduced to the practical life works, the children were able to use the different works with respect, patiently waiting for others to finish and were responsible for cleaning up their space.
