My Dear Parishioners,

Praised Be Jesus Christ! On this Labor Day weekend, we pause to salute all of those who make our lives what they are – the laborers whose braun and brains, sweat and toil, generosity and goodness contribute to our way of life. This is no small thing, for which it is right to GIVE THANKS.

In this pause of recognizing laborers, it's good to reflect on our relationship with labor. Often that relationship is weary, all or nothing; it swings to extremes; from Summer to September. Our faith teaches us there is another way, there's a relationship between God, Holiness, Leisure and Work.

I share an article here highlighting this relationship and commend your reflection on your relationship with work. We know that there's truth to the expressions, "All work and no play makes Jack a dull boy." Or from GB Shaw "We don't stop playing because we grow old; we grow old because we stop playing." I think Jesus Christ would agree! We need Holiness and that's the right relationship to God in all things!

Peace,

Fr. Rogers

Finding the Creative Spirit of God in Play! thesimplecatholic.blog

According to G.K. Chesterton, "It might reasonably be maintained that the true object of all human life is play. Earth is a task garden; heaven is a playground" (From the essay Oxford from Without).

This quote packs so much theology. What stands out most to me in Chesterton's thought is the word true. I think that while earthly life consists of toil and repeated work, God planted the seeds for true life to flourish in our earthly lives and hopefully culminating in the heavenly playground if we achieve sainthood. Let me explain.

The Sabbath is Made for Man The opening chapter in Genesis charts out the creation of the world by God. Creation occurred in six days [periods of time] and God rested on the seventh day. Why does God need rest? Is he not outside of time and space—thus He would never tire? The real purpose of the institution of the Sabbath rest on Sunday is because God knows that humanity needs time for rest and recreation! True joy and creativity oftentimes comes from our resting and recreational activities. Last summer I read a biography about St. John Paul II and it talked at length about the saint's love of skiing. The late pope encountered God and recharged himself to continue his papal duties through this playful activity.

Finding Fulfillment on Sunday God's creative genius established the holiness of resting on the Sabbath. In Catholicism, the Mass represents the ultimate fulfillment of the Jewish Sabbath. According to retired Pope Benedict XVI's book, Spirit of the Liturgy, the liturgy is a "playful thing" where people are in the presence of God, playing like children without aiming to achieve an end. Playing games with loved ones can generate a similar joy to that experienced during a Catholic liturgy, where the Eucharist is received weekly. Board games, lawn games, basketball, football, or soccer are all irrelevant as the creative activity of play itself is what brings joy.

Work and toil certainly has its place in our earthly lives. It can even serve as a means to holiness. Yet, we should not forget the importance of play as a means to holiness. Chesterton's words are like a theological medicine that thaws my impatient heart, especially since I tend to be more serious. This week my challenge to myself is to look for God's creative Holy Spirit in playing with my young children.

REACH MORE SMALL GROUPS ARE BACK!

REACH MORE SMALL GROUPS

St. Patrick Church

Our Reach More Small Group Leaders are prayerfully preparing for the Fall Season and invite YOU to join them! Whether you have never participated in a faith sharing group before or whether you been part of a group for years, Small Groups meet you wherever you are at in your faith journey.

What is a Small Group? Small group is a place to encounter Jesus. Groups of 6-10 people meet weekly to pray, read Scripture, and discuss how it applies to you personally. There are co-ed mixed, women, men, and couples groups. Small Groups are about friends helping friends follow Jesus!

Here is what your fellow parishioners are saying about being part of a Small Group:

- “It has been a wonderful experience and has made me closer to God. I have increased my knowledge regarding the Church and the sacraments.”
- “This is a good experience to reflect on the Gospel and exchange personal experience versus solely listening to the words in the pew while attending Mass.”
- “A good opportunity to meet and share your faith and grow in fellowship with others and God.”

Reach More Small Group Sign-Ups begin the weekend of September 14 and Small Group Leaders will be available after all Masses to answer your questions. We hope that you will considering joining a group this Fall. Groups will begin meeting the week of October 13. For more information, please contact Brian Eyre at eyre.brian.s@gmail.com.

St. Patrick Parish Spiritual Adoption

*“That they might have life and have it to the full.”
John 10:10*

Join our NEW Parish Spiritual Adoption Prayer Initiative- Sign Ups begin next weekend!

- PRAY for babies, that “they may have life and life to the full,” and for parents who are expecting a child

- LEARN and EDUCATE others about the development of the preborn
- SUPPORT mothers in need with donated baby gifts

Everyone loves the beauty and innocence of a baby. As an expression of that love, St. Patrick Respect Life Ministry announces a NEW Spiritual Adoption initiative for everyone!

We know the gift of human life is precious. Yet, sadly, we also know that not all newly conceived babies come to birth. Many parents experience the loss of a child before birth due to miscarriage or even abortion. Through the Spiritual Adoption initiative, we are asking you to pray a child to birth-asking God for health of the baby, and to give the parents of these children the grace they need to face whatever difficult circumstances in which they may find themselves.

You may “adopt” a child individually or as a family by signing up the weekend of September 7 & 8. More details soon to come. For now, please prayerfully consider spiritually adopting an unborn child and share the love for life that God has given you.

Glory to God in the Highest

The heavens declare the glory of God; the sky proclaims its builder's craft.

Psalm 19:2

In his special ways, God shares the plans he has for us and the purpose of his creation. We are given special gifts by God. One of those special gifts is wisdom. We are given these special gifts to help us cooperate with God through our words and deeds. Jesus followed the Jewish laws that were intended to keep them undefiled. In other words, to keep them pure and holy. Jesus reminds us that the evil we carry in our hearts can spoil or defile us. Quietly reflect on how you were called to cooperate with God this past week.

Catechesis of the Good Shepherd

Serving children ages 3-6

Catechesis of the

GOOD SHEPHERD

"Let the little children come"
 Matthew 23:14

Catechesis of the Good Shepherd is an approach to the faith formation of both children and adults. Together the children and adults grow and developed the ability to listen as they ask "God, who are you and how do you love us?"

The word atrium means "portico or porch entrance to a large house." Maria Montessori chose this name for the child's gather space because in the ancient church the atrium was a gather space between the church proper and the street. Catechumens would gather there to receive instruction as they prepared to be initiated into the church.

In our Atrium the children will participate in the different liturgical season activities, experience God through prayer, singing and exploring Biblical parables. Learn how to complete simple tasks that would normally be done by an adult.
