Eucharistic Etiquette:

A weekly word about reverence for the Eucharist.

St. Maximilian Kolbe said, "If angels could be jealous of man, they would be for one reason: "Holy Communion." This week, as we celebrate the Feast of the Great Angels, consider this word and what we are privileged to do: Eat the Flesh and Blood of God! Not even angels can do that!

All praise and glory is yours, Lord our God, for You have called us to serve You in love. Bless our sick:

My Dear Parishioners,

Greetings and Praised be Jesus Christ! At any given moment in time, there's a lot going on in the world and in the Church. This is particularly evident in this time of year as the Fall routine is back in place and as time rushes on. A lot is happening and time pushes us into many things ... Have you seen Christmas Décorations as of yet? I have!

Because it's so easy to get pushed, lost and anxious in all that is happening, it's very important to keep in mind the essential things; Those things that matter most and to examine them from time to time. For the Church, there are three essential things: WORSHIP, EVANGELIZATION and SERVICE to the POOR. These are the three major activities of the Church; if these are not happening then Church is not happening; If they are not happening well, than the Church is not well. As the brain, lungs and heart are to the Body, so too worship, evangelization and service to the poor are to the Church.

This week the Church celebrates Saints who manifest each of these activities in a beautiful way: The Archangels, St. Jerome and St. Vincent DePaul. Each of these feasts encourage us in what matters:

September 29: The Archangels Gabriel, Raphael and Michael: The Celebration of this Feast reminds us of God's Greatness and how we are called to be taken up into Him in Worship. In celebrating the angels, we are reminded of the invisible world that God created: Countless hosts of angels. Archangels Gabriel, Raphael and Michael – all of whom are found at work in the Scripture – demonstrate what WORSHIP of God looks like: An all-compassing, all-consuming affair! May we have the grace to so worship.

September 30: St. Jerome: This feast reminds us of the mission to Evangelize. Among many other great things, St. Jerome translated the Bible into the Language of the People. We call that Bible the VULGATE and the language of the people was Latin. He famously said, "Ignorance of Scripture is ignorance of Christ." Today amidst so much ignorance and the growing Babel in which we live, we are called to find ways to share the Good News. In St. Jerome, we have a marvelous example of New Evangelization

September 27: St. Vincent DePaul: Living in Paris, amidst much injustice and difficult times, Vincent DePaul served the poor with heroic generosity. He saw in a clear fashion that love of Christ means love of the poor. Faith without Charity is dead. The writings, legacy and life of Vincent DePaul continue to remind and encourage the Church in the work of Service to the Poor.

My friends, I encourage you this week to examine your life thru the lens of these three activities: Worship, Evangelization and Charity. Such an examen can center and free you from all the useless activity that in the end may not be doing us much good.

Peace,

Fr. Rogers

CULTURE OF LIFE CORNER

St. Patrick Parish welcomes the Pilgrim Statue of the Expectant Madonna

Next Sunday, October 1, we begin the celebration of Respect Life Month. It is a time for us to consider more deeply why every human life is valuable and reflect on how to build a culture that protects life from conception to natural death.

In celebration of Respect Life Month and to help further the growth of a culture of LIFE in our parish community, St. Patrick Parish has been gifted with two beautiful statues of the Expectant Madonna by members of our Respect Life Ministry and fellow parishioners Jim & Kathy DiBrino. These statues will be blessed by Father Rogers during the 9 AM Mass on Sunday, October 1 in honor of Respect Life month. Afterwards, one statue will remain in the Sanctuary throughout the month of October and one statue will begin its travel to the homes of our parishioners.

As such, the Respect Life Ministry extends an invitation to all our parishioners and families to welcome the Pilgrim Statue of the Expectant Madonna into your home for a one-week visit (Sunday to Sunday). This can be a special way to gather your family together in prayer each day while contemplating the precious gift of LIFE. A Prayer Booklet complete with the Rosary for Life intentions and other prayers specific to the family and pro-life matters will accompany the statue to help deepen your prayer time. This devotion will be made available beginning Sunday, October 1 and will continue throughout the year. For more information and to sign up for your week, please visit the parish website or contact Jen Keller at jenkellersp@gmail.com.

STAND FOR LIFE WITH ST. PATRICK CHURCH
NATIONAL LIFE CHAIN SUNDAY
SUNDAY, OCTOBER 1, 2023
2:30 PM – 3:30 PM ALONG CYPRESS STREET

Since 1987, thousands of Christians nationwide have gathered on the first Sunday of every October for a peaceful and prayerful public pro-life witness. It is a visual statement of solidarity by the Christian community that the Church supports the sanctity of human life from the moment of conception until natural death. The Respect Life Ministry invites you to join us and your fellow parishioners on LIFE CHAIN SUNDAY to bear witness and share with the Kennett Square Community your commitment to the culture of life. On this day, we gather in front of St. Patrick Religious Education Center and then space ourselves out along both sides of Cypress Street to form a “prayer chain” and public sidewalk witness for the sanctity of all human LIFE. During this time, we remain silent and prayerful while holding signs with pro-life messages. Our LIFE CHAIN will be held on Sunday, October 1 from 2:30 PM – 3:30 PM and we hope that you will join us. Thank you for prayerfully considering this life-saving matter. For questions, contact Jen Keller at:

jenkellersp@gmail.com

I will proclaim your greatness, my God and King; I will thank you forever and ever. Psalm 145:1

Today's reading is filled with hard sayings and viewed as unfair since all the workers are paid the same regardless of how much work they completed. We know that the evenly generous vineyard owner, our Lord, is always there to gather us in His arms. We often need to speak to our children about being last or left out because it is traumatic for them but they can learn and grow from some of these experiences. As Christian parents we could share a story from our childhood to help them find words to express their feelings and you can relate to them or read a relevant story from Scripture to provide additional tools to help them grow and understand the ways of the Lord. Silently reflect on how you might view fairness through God's eyes.

PREP has begun for the 2023-2024 year!

THANK YOU to all the Catechists that have answered the call to share their faith.

Sunday's children will enter through the back doors on Chestnut Alley. ALL parents must come into the building and sign out their child. Families will leave using the front doors and cross the street safely at the traffic light.

Monday's classes will use a car line via Chestnut Alley. For dismissal, please enter Chestnut Alley using Mulberry Street as not to cause congestion on Magnolia Street.

Be sure to display the last name of your child so the line can keep moving

Catechesis of the GOOD SHEPHERD

"Let the little children come" Matthew 19:14

Serving children ages 3-6

When in the Atrium different subjects will be presented to the children and will have "a linking point." The linking point has a meaning to help the children see something that may recur frequently. The linking point may not be the most important liturgical or theological element but does hold an importance. Some examples are the tree & mustard seed, light in Baptism and Christ our Light with the Good Shepherd, or a Scripture reading such as "The light shines in the darkness." John 1:5

Catechesis of the Good Shepherd Registration Forms may be found on the parish website under the YOUTH tab-CGS

Class begins on Wednesday, September 27 9:30-11:00AM

Parent orientation will occur during this time.
